

When General Eisenhower was brought into the Republican Party as a reform candidate in 1952, he was accepted by the country as bringing a new day to Republicanism and saving it from its party defects.

In 1956, with Richard Nixon known to the country for what he is, with the definite possibility of his succeeding to the presidency, how can the citizen who wanted reform vote now for a ticket bearing the name of Nixon?

If you want more of these cards to mail to your friends, send a check for $5 for 100 cards (25 of each of 4 cartoons) or $1 for 20 cards to:

Californians For INTEGRITY In High Office

Room 509, 1060 Bush St., San Francisco 9, PR 6-0950
Cabot Coville, Chairman    John Erickson, Exec. Secretary

