Judge to discuss ballot propositions

By Marilyn Holthouse

The Current Issues Forum will present Judge Steven Perren of the California State Appellate Court at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 19, in the AR to discuss the November election propositions.

The November ballot

will have at least 12 propositions; more are pending. Perren will evaluate those dealing with bond issues for a high-speed passenger train, alternative fuel and renewable energy, veterans and children's hospital. There will also be propositions dealing with farm animal treatment, minors' pregnancy notification, criminal penalties and laws, marriage limits, redistricting and renewable energy.

Reserve Friday, Oct. 17, when the Current Issues Forum will present the candidates for Camarillo City Council.

You now have two opportunities to be an informed voter:

- Proposition discussion, Friday, Sept. 19, 7:30 p.m., AR.
- City Council candidates, Friday, Oct. 17, 7:30 p.m., AR.

A note to our Leisure Village club publicists and other contributors to Inside Leisure Village:

It's been noted that many articles, letters, poems, etc., that have been deposited in the box in the AR have been written on personal computers. While this method is entirely acceptable, e-mailing the articles to editorlv@yahoo.com would facilitate the publishing of these items. However, whichever method the writer deems preferable, the criterion for publishing is not dependent on how the material is submitted.

Safety reminder:
The general rule — and often the law — is: "Bike with traffic, walk against it." The rule for walking also holds true for running.

Susan Amerikaner's recipe column begins this month. It appears on Page 5, along with information on how to submit your favorite recipe for publication. Enjoy!

Longtime resident Jack Burger was a beloved figure in the Village.

Fond farewell to Jack Burger

By Lois Keeler

A Celebration of Life was recently held for Jack Burger, and his life was surely a celebration.

He was born in New York City on Nov. 2, 1925, and started an early career in films and the entertainment industry after moving to California in 1936.

In junior high school, he started playing the drums and never stopped. He was a contract musi-

The Leisure Village Camera Club had one of its best years at the Ventura County Fair. Club members entered 107 pictures and came home with 12 winners. This was the best showing for any camera club that entered pictures in the fair. Overall, there were 2,400 pictures entered by clubs and resi-

I am glad to see that the thermometer sign relating to the campaign called "Kultivation Kwarters" has been removed from the AR. However, the notice regarding the campaign to raise $2,000 to "finish the planting in front of the Recreation Center" is still appearing on LVTV every day, indicating that this collection of "Kwarters" is an ongoing project.

I was under the impression that the Board had decided this was not an approved purpose of the Planned Giving Committee. If the money already collected can't be returned to the contributors, the Planned Giving Committee could give it to the Village to add to the landscape budget as a donation. Or is the Board going to allow LVTV to show the advertisement for "Kultivating Kwarters" until they collect $2,000?

Why is it necessary to have a fundraiser to pay for the maintenance of the common area in front of the Recreation Center? Article III, Par. 3.3 of "Covenants and Restrictions" provides that it is the duty of the Association "to maintain and otherwise manage the Common Areas" in the Village. I think it is demeaning to put cans in the Rec Office and the Main Office to collect "Kwarters" to pay for keeping up the appearance of the front of the AR. If money is needed to do this, then the money should come from the Association dues.

Are we in such financial straits that we have to collect "loose change" to keep up our beautiful Village? I think a bad precedent is being set by using this method to "help beautify the Village."

Will this set a trend to use cans to collect loose change to pay for other maintenance necessities? If "about $2,000" is needed to pay for this work, then add 10 cents to the monthly dues so each owner can equally share the expense — 10 cents x 2136 houses x 12 months = $2,563.20. Isn't that the way all the maintenance expenses are supposed to be financed?

I, for one, am embarrassed to see this method being used for this purpose. Seems to me we are creating a "nickel and dime" mentality!

— Rose & Mannie Abbate, V. 44

How refreshing it is, the office being open throughout the day! It shouldn't matter if sometimes no one comes during the noon hour. It's like a party: Occasionally, only a few may show, but we must be there for those who do turn up.

It's important to have accessibility to our needs throughout the day. Leisure Village is beyond the pale and should never appear as a "Mom and Pop" enterprise. Closed is just that, and our office should never be closed until the end of the day. This is a good fix.

Happy summer to all on the Board, and good tidings in your new chapter.

— Lynn Oberman, V. 1

Annual art show Nov. 2

By Margery Curry

While you drive through Leisure Village on a quiet summer afternoon, you might not guess at the amount of activity occurring all around you. Artists are wielding their pastels and paint brushes. Photographers are clicking their camera shutters. Sculptors are pinching fresh clay. Lapidarians are polishing precious stones. Quilters are threading fine needles.

And all of this preparation will bring you an outstanding time at the Village Painters Annual Art Show in the AR on Nov. 2, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

I hear other crafters, too, are planning to join us on Nov. 2 in other recreation rooms, so this year will be a spectacular event.

cian with the movie studios and television for many years and worked with Dinah Shore, Tennessee Ernie Ford, Lawrence Welk and Herb Alpert, just to name a few. He appeared in many films, including "The Stripper" with Joanne Woodward and "Say One For Me" starring Debbie Reynolds, and he was the rehearsal drummer for Fred Astaire. He was well-respected in the industry by so many.

Jack went into the Army in 1943 and returned to Hollywood in 1945 at the end of the war. A great deal of his time after the war was spent organizing USO tours in Asia and Alaska. He continued with his Bongo and Conga drums and wrote and recorded instruction manuals, which were very well received. By many of his fellow workers and by people in the industry, he was known as Jack "Bongo" Burger.

In 1960, he entered college at CSUN and received a bachelor's degree in anthropology and government history. His accomplishments never stopped. Jack also had many other talents, which included woodworking, and he was an accomplished painter in oils.

Jack and his wife, Marie, were married on Jan. 28, 1968, and they moved to the Village in 1994. They had a wonderful 40 years together.

Jack was active in the Village and started the Writers Club, setting up the present rules and keeping the club going. All the members have a deep appreciation for the way the club was set up, and the camaraderie still exists today.

Jack's sister, Beverly

Wallace, also lives in the Village, and she was a great influence in his life.

So, we said goodbye to Jack Burger, but those who knew him will remember his mischievous ways, his quick wit and his ready smile. If only all of us could make a life so worthy of celebration.

What's cookin' in the Village

By Susan Amerikaner

This is a new column for tasty recipes by residents of Leisure Village.

We kick it off with the world's best German Potato Salad, by Gudi Amerikaner, V. 32. No matter how much she makes, we never get enough!

Gudi's Potato Salad

Red or white new potatoes
(2 per person)
Salt and garlic salt to taste
Onion
Cucumber (peeled)
Radishes
Dill weed
Vinegar (Gudi likes wine vinegar)
Vegetable oil

Boil potatoes till done; not mushy! Drain and let cool. Peel and slice about 1/8 to 1/4 inch thick. To make vinegar mixture, mix 1 part vinegar to 3 parts water. Heat and pour over potatoes. Add oil, stirring until "slippery." Thinly slice cucumbers and radishes. Let them sit for a while; then drain. Dice medium onion. Taste potatoes to make sure they are to your liking. Season to taste with salt and garlic salt. Add onion, cucumber, radishes and dill weed. Add crisp bacon pieces, tomatoes, green peppers or anything else you like!

"There are no set quantities of ingredients," says Gudi. "You have to experiment. If you taste too much oil in the potatoes, add some water and pour off the excess liquid."

See your favorite recipe here! Put a handwritten or typed copy in the ILV box in the Recreation Center hallway. Include name and phone number. You can also e-mail to susanamerikaner@roadrunner.com.

Medical guidelines send mixed message to older patients

By Lillian Hawthorne

For the last few years I have been treated for a gastrointestinal problem that is monitored by periodic colonoscopies. I'm sure that those of you who are familiar with this test well know how difficult, uncomfortable and unpleasant it is, especially the preparation.

The compensation, however, has come afterward in the doctor's comforting words, "Everything looks fine."

The last time I underwent this procedure, I heard even more comforting words from the doctor: Now that I was turning 80, a colonoscopy would no longer be necessary.

My immediate reaction was a combination of gratitude and relief; later on, I began to have other reflections.

Certainly I would not miss having to go through this test, but what else did not having to go through it mean? Did it mean that the test results after this time didn't matter any more? That, after 80, these health problems no longer warrant the same attention or worry as at an earlier age?

Did it mean that because I have already lived more than my "three score and 10" allotted years, I should not be worrying so much or wanting so much to have more years?

Did it mean that the test was not worthwhile or cost-effective given the reality of the medical market and my stage of life? Did it mean that adding years to older patients' lives was not as desirable or necessary as to younger people's lives?

I agree that medical treatment needs to be pragmatic as well as compassionate in factoring in circumstances and resources. I understand that there are different standards of wellness that I should expect and accept now that I'm older, which may also mean different standards of treatment to expect and accept.

And I do believe that the intent of such medical policy — on the part of most of the profession in general and certainly my doctor in particular — is consideration for vulnerable elderly patients.

Yet in spite of all that, I'm uncomfortable with a treatment policy that sends such a mixed message to us older patients, even if unintentional, i.e. that at the same time as we are presumably being protected, we are also being diminished. It may well be that this medical policy is necessary and wise, but I wish doctors would realize how this can make older patients feel.

It's as if they are devaluing the remaining years of our lives because there are so few left — whereas, for us, those remaining years are precious because there are so few left.

— Lillian Hawthorne is a retired clinical social worker and emeritus faculty member of the School of Social Work at USC. Her article appeared in the July 21 issue of the Los Angeles Times.

WORDS TO LIVE BY

— I'm in the initial stages of my golden years: SS, CDs, IRAs, AARP.

— I asked my wife if old men wear boxers or briefs. She said, "Depends."

LV Musicians set concert, ice cream social for Sept. 14

By Stan Vansant
and Anita Lind

The LV Musicians are proud to present The Foy/Fay Duo and The Seoulful Quartet in concert on Sunday, Sept. 14, at 3:30 p.m. in the AR. It is presented free of charge to all LV residents, friends and LV employees.

There will be an ice cream social immediately following the concert. Admission is free; however, you will need an admission ticket. The free tickets will be available in the Recreation Office from Monday, Sept. 8, through Wednesday, Sept. 10. No tickets will be available after Wednesday, and admission tickets will be required at the door the day of the concert.

The concert will begin promptly at 3:30 p.m. and will last about one hour. The ice cream social will begin when the concert ends and will last about one hour. We know it is getting close to dinner time for most of us, but life is short, so eat dessert first!

Don't miss it!

Called a gem of a cello coach by actor Samuel L. Jackson, cellist/pianist Janice Foy, Ph.D., champions American music globally and will do so with ASCAP composer Larry Mumford's "Rhapsody for Cello & Orchestra."

Recently Dr. Foy appeared with Grammy artist Herbie Hancock and Bennie Maupin as soloist and with her New American Quartet in a World Peace Concert at the Ikeda Hall to a sold-out 1,200-seat house and two standing ovations.

Linda Fern Fay is a teacher, pianist and organist who enjoys performing a wide variety of music, from classics to jazz. She is on the piano faculty at Ventura College, performs at the Pierpont Inn and is the organist at First Presbyterian Church of Oxnard. She has performed in LV with her husband, Donald.

The Foy/Fay Duo grew out of performances of the music of Ventura County composer Pauline Delmonte. Her music so inspired each one that the fun of learning and performing new music for the Dominant Music Club in February proved to be the stimulus for a new duo.

Also appearing on the program is the Seoulful Cello Quartet. The quartet was formed on August 13 to bring together creative souls from two different parts of the world — East meeting West — in an effort to restore humanity through music. Korean-born Eric Choi suggested the idea to Foy. Choi is principal second in the L.A. Philharmony, a member of the L.A. Symphony and principal cellist with the Korean Philharmonic Orchestra. The quartet members are Janice Foy, Eric Choi, James Lee and Sun Hee.

This Sept. 14 concert is a preview for another concert to be held at the Ventura College Theatre on Sunday, Oct. 12. It is part of the Sixth Annual Daniel Pearl World Music Days, a global network of concerts that uses the universal language of music to diminish hatred, respect differences and reach out in global friendship.

Quakes can trigger fires; be prepared

By Joe Foraker

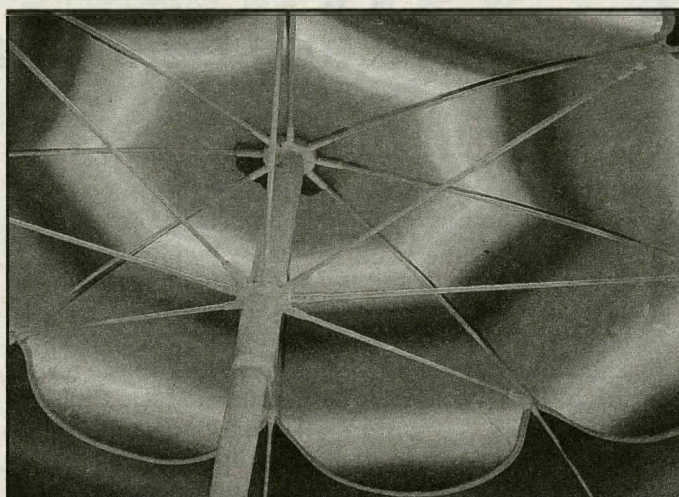

The potential for fires following severe earthquakes is extremely high. Among the causes are burning candles, lighted cigarettes and pipes and electrical short circuits.

More than 500 fires were reported after the Loma Prieta earthquake. Fortunately, most of those fires were extinguished by individuals who discovered them or by vigilant neighbors.

In a major earthquake emergency, fire departments cannot respond immediately to all requests for aid. Normal channels for reporting fires also will be disrupted.

Every residence should have a fire extinguisher for emergency purposes. Family members should also know how to use their fire extinguishers. Type ABC, which is suitable for all fires, is recommended. Each new fire extinguisher comes with easy-to-read instructions on proper use. Fire extinguishers must be recharged by a qualified fire service company after use.

— Joe Foraker's earthquake preparedness columns ran previously in the Orange County Register.

BITS FROM THE BOARD

Vic Fledge took home an Honorable Mention for "Christmas Decor" in the Open division at the Ventura County Fair.

Bits from the Board

By Renee Kramer

Here's a rundown of the Open Board Meeting held on Monday, August 4.

— A request by the son of a homeowner to continue parking an RV owned in part by he and his 95-year-old mother, who no longer drives, was denied. The son does not live in the Village, and the rules specifically provide that any vehicle parked in the RV lot be owned and driven by the Village resident.

— Re-establishment of the Purchase Research Committee will be ready for review at the September Board meeting.

— Motion to not allow a dog run/dog park to be built was passed by a 3-to-1 vote.

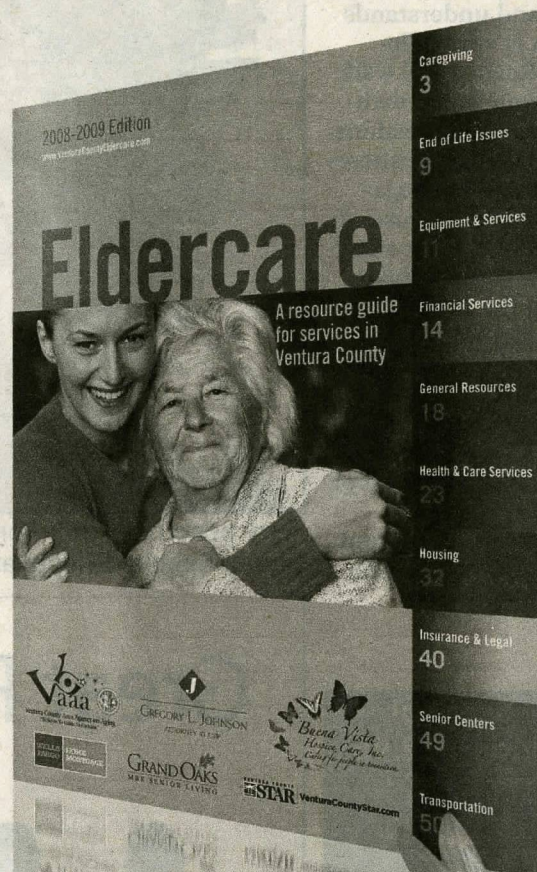

— The Architectural Committee recommendation for a second bus stop cover between villages 39 and 41 was approved by the Board.

— The Board announced that residents may not be prohibited from putting political posters in their windows that can be seen from the street, therefore it is necessary for our Rules and Regulations be amended to be in conformance with the law.

— Discussion of Planned Giving Committee's fund-raising activities for Village beautification was not the intended purpose of the Committee's creation. A motion was made that those activities should cease and that the Committee should limit their efforts to its intended purpose: to facilitate gifts and bequests to the Village from residents in their wills. A review of the Planned Giving charter will be reviewed at the September Board meeting.

REALTORS CORNER

Real estate agent can help get a house ready to sell

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate

Do you sometimes wonder why you see a "For Sale" sign on a house for a long time? The news is all around us with newspaper articles, television news and computer updates. Times have changed, and with today's challenging market, the old way of selling isn't working anymore.

When you place your home on the market to sell, you have control over only two things: listing price and condition. It is so important that your house be properly prepared for sale so it is presented in its very best light in order to sell in a timely fashion for the best price possible.

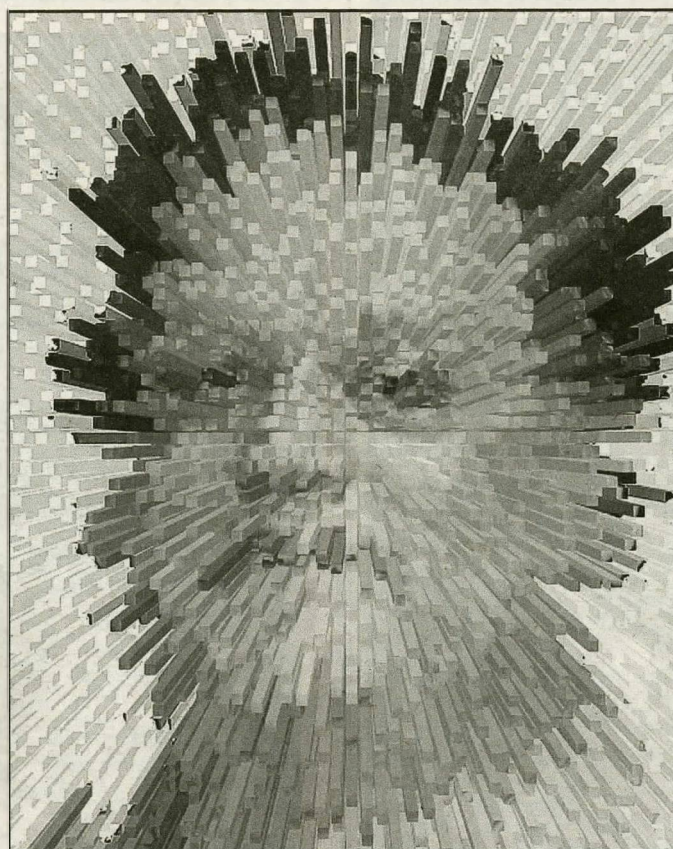

How you live in your home and how you market your house to sell are two completely different things! You're not selling your furniture or prized collections — you're selling your property, which is probably your biggest asset.

Selecting a Realtor who markets and understands your area is very helpful. Your Realtor will walk through your home with you and make suggestions to accentuate the positives and minimize the negative features of a house. A comparative market analysis will show you similar houses on the market and information regarding recent sales of similar houses. This will assist greatly in establishing a list price for your home.

Remember, buyers look for value!

Village 30's annual BBQ a big success

Village 30 held its 5th Annual Get-Acquainted Barbecue on Saturday, Aug. 9. The 33 residents attending enjoyed hamburgers and hot dogs with all the trimmings, potato salad and cole slaw, desserts and a variety of beverages. Marilyn Foraker organized "game time" by having each attendee submit their baby pictures beforehand, then splitting everyone into groups to see which team could correctly identify the most people. Prizes for the winners were awarded, submitted by residents looking to get rid of their "white elephants." Everyone left with full stomachs and happy faces.

ear-nose specialist, has passed on, and Roby lives with fond memories of him and their travels around the world. Roby especially loved Europe, and they traveled there seven times.

One of the highlights of their travels together was meeting a fascinating woman named Eleanor on a train. Eleanor introduced her husband, and they all had a wonderful time talking together. Eleanor's husband was the governor of New York at the time, Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Roby was born in El Monte, California. Her family lineage goes back several generations in America. Her ancestors were among the founders of the Quakers Friends Church.

Roby has lived in Leisure Village for 17 years. When asked about her favorite things involving Leisure Village, she had high praise for the security services. She lives with her son, Erland, an English professor at Moorpark College. Her daughter, Althea, is a nurse in Oregon.

Roby's life has been filled with music. She enjoys concerts, opera, and recitals. Her favorite classical composer is Beethoven.

Roby also enjoys spending time in her garden. She gets great pleasure from her beautiful flowers, and they flourish under her kind caring.

Sitting with Roby, experiencing her joy and enthusiasm for life, I found it hard to believe that she was over 65. I had to ask her one final question: What keeps you so youthful?

Roby has some gentle advice. Eat a balanced diet. Exercise. Don't worry. Be positive.

Roby has obviously followed her own advice, as her happy and healthy attitude attest. She is a treasure, and we are lucky at Leisure Village to call her our friend and neighbor.

Showtyme

By Natalie Rosen

On Friday, Sept. 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the AR, Showtyme will present the delightful, versatile and melodic Bonnie Bowden, who has graced stages and media across the globe for more than 25 years.

In her years with Sergio Mendez, she toured the world many times over. Her vocal solos, ranging from jazz to classical, have been featured on more than 20 albums.

This way, newcomers to the Village and those who did not renew prior membership can join without waiting for next year. No other club in the Village has ever offered this bargain.

Don't wait. Join now!

L.V. New York Club

By Gerry Schulman

The New York Club annual picnic was a great success. It was held in the AR for the first time, and the setting was lovely and a good time was had by all. The entertainment was by Henry Samuels, who gave us a great performance.

Eileen Hasen did a great job, probably due to the fact that Marty assisted her and had the ever-present cane to keep her in line.

The 8th Anniversary Party will be held on Thursday, Oct. 2. The party is for members only. This is an Affair to Remember. We will be entertained by Harry Middelbrook and Terry Gregory, professionally known as Harry and Terry. Harry had his own TV show and appeared with the likes of Della Reese, The Four Freshmen and many other top-flight entertainers. It is a show not to be missed.

Please let your friends know that it is not necessary to be from New York to be a member of the New York Club. All are welcome.

Veterans Club

Our next meeting will be Thursday, Sept. 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the MPR. We're having a special presentation by Gene Valentino of the events and music of the '40s. Gene was an outstanding radio and TV announcer, and he has put together a great show that all of us of that generation will enjoy. Gene did this three years ago for the Players Guild, and it was a success.

Last month as speaker we had former Navy man Dean McNulty, who was aboard ship in Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941. He gave us his first-hand description of what took place at that time.

Everyone is invited for friendship and refreshments. For more information, call Marty at 389-1610.

We told you that when Players Guild returned from our August hiatus, we would be bigger and better than ever. We are keeping our promise.

For the September presentation, we will show "Those Were The Days," a review of songs and dances from the 1920s through the 1950s.

This offering is so extravagant that it requires two producers and two directors. They are Joyce Belcher and Cathy Friedman. The huge cast is composed of many stars from our previous presentations. Our performers will be: Joyce Belcher, Al Botta, Marilyn Foraker, Cathy Friedman, Helen Hartman, The Happy Hoofers, Ted Lansing, Carole Miller, Annie Robinson, Norm Scanlan, Gerry Stone and Ida Zeller. I hope I left no one out.

As always, refreshments and social time will be after the meeting.

LV Musicians

By Anita Lind

LV Musicians meets on the second Thursday of each month in the AR, alternating between afternoon and evening meetings.

What an enjoyable afternoon we had in August! Irene Olson played some pieces she learned 60 years ago. Imagine: She apologized because she needed to use sheet music! Irene, accompanied by Stan Vansant, serenaded us with a couple of tunes.

We're always pleased when Sam Arouesty and his saxophone are able to include us in his very busy schedule. Sam is a member of a 17-piece band, "Seniors of Note," and is a member of a saxophone quartet. Their rehearsal hall, if you want to call it that, is the Senior Center right here in Camarillo. He plays many of the songs we know so well and enjoy.

Barbara Rosenberg, pianist, played several old favorites. Barbara's schedule is not always within her control, so we are pleased that she was able to make the adjustment to our new meeting time.

One of our LV residents asked if his granddaughter, Laura, could play. Laura played two original compositions on the piano. What a delight to have someone so young and talented join us for the afternoon!

Stan Vansant, our original "one man band" closed the afternoon. Stan puts a great deal of effort and time into his performances. One day I'll write an article about what it is Stan does to do what he does so well.

Stan challenged us in what he called his Dick Guttman style. Stan played excerpts from a series of songs, each containing a woman's name. The audience wrote down as many of the names as they recognized. Of course, the one everyone guessed correctly was for the letter, "I," "Goodnight, Irene". As is always true, all good things must come to an end, and so the entertainment ended and refreshments were served.

There will be a concert on Sunday, Sept. 14, at 3:30 p.m. in the AR sponsored by the LV Musicians. For information, see Page 7.

If you enjoy listening to music, please join our audience and bring a friend. If you play any musical instrument and would like to volunteer to entertain, please contact Fred Grayson at 482-8889.

Sing-a-long Group

By Anita Lind

The Sing-A-Long Group meets on the second and last Monday of each month in the AR from 7 to 9 p.m.

Many years ago, Jules Nayfack and Guy Mosher started a tradition of playing the organ from 7 to 7:30 p.m., just prior to the bimonthly sing-a-long. Their intention was to entertain people as they arrived for the sing-a-long. Dick Guttman continued the tradition when Guy and then later Jules were no longer able to continue the tradition. I want to thank Stan Vansant for his dedication to continuing the pre-sing-a-long piano (organ) entertainment. Just want him to know he is appreciated by all the Sing-A-Long folks.

We are going to add a new component to our Sing-A-Long, "The Solo Performance." Here's how it works. Select a song from one of our sing-a-long books. Meet with Stan or Irene during the 7 to 7:30 pre-sing-along recital. Stan or Irene will assist the singer in selecting a key, and you will be assigned a date for your solo performance. There will be no more than two solo performances each time we meet. The singer will sing the song one time through while the audience is silent, then the second time around, the audience will join the singer. There will be no impromptu performances. Please don't be shy. Sign up for the "Solo Performance."

Join us for Sing-A-Long in the AR, Mondays, Sept. 8 and 29, from 7 to 9 p.m.

L.V. Bowling League

By Marty Simons

By the time you read this, the 2008-2009 season will be underway, with 16 to 18 teams competing.

Since there is nothing to report on the league as yet, I thought you might enjoy knowing some of the scores that were bowled during the off-season. Al Schuster had a 279 game en route to a 717 series. Les Galvin came in with a 277, Jim Dalton with at least one 240, and Herb Roberts led the over-90 group with a 204. He kind of humbled us "younger folks." Those are some of the scores I remember, and they were scratch.

We are still looking for substitute bowlers. It's pretty much a guarantee that you will be able to bowl as there are always people traveling and such. Come on down to Harley's Camarillo Bowl on Friday mornings. You can bowl as a pacer to establish your handicap if you don't already have one. Look forward to seeing you. Any questions? Call Marty Simons at 987-9295.

L.V. Women's Golf Association

Congratulations to our winners of the Eclectic Tournament, played July 30 and Aug. 6. Low Gross Over the Field for the 18ers was Cynthia Maier and Low Gross Over the Field for our 9ers was Pauline Waterbury. We had suffocating heat for both days, and we congratulate all the ladies that played.

We look forward to our September Ringer Tournament that will be played Sept. 3, 10, 17 and 24. Flights will be determined by the number of players. After completion of the tournament, better score on each hole determines gross score. Good luck to all!

Sept. 10th, our general meeting at 2 p.m. will follow the tournament. Happy hour begins at 1:30 p.m. Come early and enjoy conversation with friends. Please see CLUBS on 20

Village Painters

By Aurelie Zachary

At our Aug. 6 meeting, we discussed the Art & Craft Show sponsored by the Village Painters that is scheduled to be on Nov. 2 in the AR. Only members are allowed to display their paintings, and they must be framed and on wire hangers. Marge Curry, president, sent out invitation letters to those clubs who wish to participate.

This year, there is a new twist. Members of the clubs will be allowed to sell their "creations" on tables set up in the MPR.

Ruth Miller's Tuesday class continues. Those who attend enjoy the challenge she asks of them.

Lindy Stein holds a workshop on the first and third Saturdays of the month from 10 a.m. to noon in the Lanai Room for those who cannot attend the workshop on Monday afternoons. She will help those who request it.

Our great annual picnic is coming up this Tuesday, Sept. 9, in the picnic area at 5 p.m. There is still time to call Sharon at 389-6834 to make that all-important reservation. For $15 you will get terrific barbecue chicken dinner, including special side dishes and chocolate cake for dessert. We'll have music a la Allan, plus SAS provides wine, soft drinks, appetizers, games, prizes and a movie! Y'all be there!

The following Tuesday evening, on Sept. 16, we will have our regular movie night with a presentation of "Charlie Wilson's War," starring Julia Roberts and Tom Hanks. The movie will be shown in the Annex at 7 p.m.

On Sept. 23, our game is Manipulation. Join us in the Annex at 7 p.m.

It's back to the MPR for "News & Views" on Tuesday, Oct. 7, at 7 p.m. Please bring your articles and other interesting topics for discussion.

And remember to watch LTV for SAS announcements and see our posters all around the Rec Center. Listen for telephone calls from Judy reminding you of everything I just said!

The Mavericks had a pizza party in August in the AR. Everyone had a great time enjoying pizza and line dancing. The new floor in the AR was wonderful.

We also had a Game Day and Picnic in August, and it was wonderful to see so many people enjoying the continental breakfast and all the games. The picnic in the BBQ area was great, with everyone eating lunch and meeting new friends.

Please mark your calendars for our always popular "Cash In The Attic" night on Friday, Sept. 26, in the AR. We hope everyone will bring their "treasures" that they wish to be auctioned off on that evening. These usable and resellable items will be displayed for all to see before the start of the auction. Billiard Club

By Jack Quinn

The summer 8-Ball Fun Tournament was a huge success, thanks to John With & Associates, who set up this event. Also, thanks to the many participants that made it exciting.

At a glance, the winners in the SA group are: first place, Ron Stave; second, Ray Martinez; third, Jack Quinn.

The A group: first place, Joe Miller; second place, Ilya Keslin; third, Reuben Ruiz.

The B group: first place, Helen McGinnis; second, Kathy Wirtz; third, Betty Herrmann.

Bill Foeller has his energetic crew of volunteers working hard to complete the patio on the west side of the Billiard Room. The patio will feature a fire pit to warm the tootsies on a chilly evening or cook a marshmallow.

Mark your calendars for the next monthly meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 23.

Racquet Club

By Anne Wolfson

The Racquet Club meets the second Wednesday of the month in the Multi-Purpose Room. We are a very active group of tennis, paddle tennis and table tennis players, and we welcome all Villagers to join us!

Our speaker for our August meeting was Bob McQuivey, whose topic was, "Anything You Always Wanted To Know About Leisure Village*, But Were Afraid To Ask." Bob is president of the Leisure Village Board and is very knowledgeable and was happy to answer the many questions that were asked. Bob is also an outstanding tennis player and enjoys the camaraderie of our Racquet Club.

In September, our speaker will be Patti Jaeger, who is the head nutrition consultant for Ventura County. She is a registered dietician and will be able to answer questions on the latest findings on how to stay healthy by the foods that we eat! We are looking forward to an interesting evening, so put it on your calendar for Sept. 10 in the Multi-Purpose Room at 7:30 p.m.

attended, and we're seeing more friendships developing than ever before. We're seeing more people on the dance floor than sitting at tables.

There was Catherine Conti, who has lived in Leisure Village for one year and has never attended a dance here. She did go, in August, to her first Dance Party night, and she loved it! You can count on her attending again.

There was so much going on! Birthdays are celebrated every week and they are fun. Two were celebrated last month: Joe Hektner celebrated his 90th birthday, along with his wife Mary. And there was Kathy Wirtz, who sat in the middle of two tables with her family and friends. She handled the singing of "Happy Birthday" well and always looks exceptional on the dance floor.

Arlene and Irv Bergman were there. They love to dance, and it seems they're always on the dance floor. They do most of the dances, and it's a pleasure to see them in action on the dance floor — dancing at its finest!

Rose Palumbo and Bob Crissey do every dance. They have fun — big time — and they don't stop!

You rarely see them sitting; energy galore and lots of action, including many innovative steps.

Bill and Sandy Foeller "ran the show" on Country Western Night, while the Byrnes and the Ohmstedts took a night off to attend a wedding. The "ranch hands" really know how to run a "show," and they did very well! A big thanks to them.

Now that the AR refurbishing has been completed and really looks great, we look forward to using it, with all the other Villagers who use it for their events.

So here's the September dance schedule: Sept. 6, Jerry Dokken Quartet; Sept. 13, The Aristicats; Sept. 20, Rick Tucker, Country and Western; Sept. 27, Moore Music Trio, and this will be Hawaiian Night, so dress appropriately if you wish.

Contrary to a previous notice, the Dance Night closing time will not be changed. All dances start at 7:30 p.m. and end at 10:30 p.m. The cost is $5.00 per person.

Isn't it nice to see so many people at the SNBP and to be with happy, smiling faces who love to be there? So, as usual, be there! Your presence is looked forward to by all!

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

Here are some signs to remember:

In a podiatrist's office: "Time wounds all heels."

On a septic tank truck: "Yesterday's meals on wheels."

On a plumber's truck: "We repair what your husband fixed."

On another plumber's truck: "Don't sleep with a drip, call your plumber."

Over a gynecologist's office: "Dr. Jones, at your cervix."

At a tire repair shop: "Invite us to your next blowout."

On an electrician's truck: "Let us remove your shorts."

On a maternity room door: "Push, push, push!"

On a fence: "Salesmen welcome, dog food is expensive."

On the front yard of a funeral home: "Drive carefully, we'll wait."

Car keys can serve as security alarm

Submitted by Paul W. Herring

Here's a great idea: Put your car keys beside your bed at night. If you hear a noise outside your home or someone trying to get in your house, just press the panic button for your car. The alarm will be set off, and the horn will continue to sound until either you turn it off or the car battery dies.

This tip came from a Neighborhood Watch coordinator. The next time you come home for the night and you start to put your keys away, think of this:

It's a security alarm system that you probably already have and requires no installation.

Test it. It will go off from nearly everywhere inside your house and will keep honking until your battery runs down or until you reset it with the button on the key fob chain.

It works if you park in your driveway or garage. If your car alarm goes off when someone is trying to break in your house, odds are the burglar or rapist won't stick around. After a few seconds, all the neighbors will be looking out their windows to see who is out there, and, sure enough, the criminal won't want that.

Also remember to carry your keys while walking to your car in a parking lot.
