Jane M. Tolmach (Mrs. Daniel M. Tolmach)

I was born Nov. 12, 1921 in Havre, Montana and named Jane Louise McCormick. We moved to Calif. Nov. 1923 and to Ventura a few months later. I received my elementary and high school education at St. Catherine's Academy in Ventura. After one year at Ventura Junior College, I went to UCLA and received an A.B. degree in Psychology. Following this I worked nine months in the Ventura County Welfare Dept. as a social worker in Old Age Security and Blind Aid. Then I went to Smith College School for Social Work in Northampton, Mass. and received a Master's degree. While at Smith I did my field work in a children's agency in Baltimore. After Smith I worked for the Amer. Red Cross as a Psychiatric Social Worker at Corona Naval Hosp.

I married Daniel M. Tolmach M.D. Sept. 1946 and we lived in Peekskill, N.Y. for 1½ years. Then we moved to Oxnard where we have been ever since. My husband practices pediatrics here. We have four children.

Below I shall list some organizations I have been active since we have lived in Oxnard.
