Members reviewed a memo from Union Representative Kathryn Forbes regarding suggested improvements of the APM.

Members suggested sending a memo to Jamie Pontius-Hogan, Assistant Dean of Students, suggesting that her office modify the Student Conduct or Disruptive Classroom Behavior Incident Form in the following way.

Once the faculty member submits the form, the comments go to both the Assistant Dean of Students office and the student in question. This would immediately expect the student to rebut the critique by the faculty member.
The APM could be modified to state that the faculty member need not receive the student back into their classroom until he student has responded.
