My dear Julia,

You must think me a very poor correspondent, but the fact is I seem to have so little of interest to communicate and then time - how it rushes!
Yours of 12th inst. arrived yes.
Thank you so much for writing often. I wish we cd. get over & see for ourselves how you are figured this winter, but it wd. seem as if your present arrangement would be turn out quite satisfactory. How pleasant for you to have yr. friends the Maybecks so near. And how more than pleasant to know that you are succeeding in what you have undertaken. Whether you get into - Become Act, or not you have this satisfaction. G

Come you want to get there & you have our best wishes, but don't over work. Your life is so full now you must feel quite content. How about Aven any thing more definite about his joining you? I hope whenever he does go abroad he will take us on the way, I mean a visit before he sails. Please tell him so from us when you write. Your summer experience was quite unique. Am sorry you had the Grippe. I don't believe you have any more idea of "looking after" yourself than your friend has - you must be a pair!
I sent you two photos - for an surprise - addressed to the Club.

The children, their mother gave them to me for you!
I enclose one of my own efforts, the three generations. Little Olivia is very interesting, how I wish you cd. see her. She attends Kindergarten, the other day the teacher gave each child a card & 5-round pieces of red paper to paste on to the card. Every other child stuck hers in a straight line, but Clivia put hers thus:  She received a little prize  for showing design! She asked me if when I was a big girl I got married, said she shd. not & that Prime wd.

not either but he wd. be a Saddy, (that is what she calls her father) when he got to be a big man I am sorry the photos of her are not better likenesses.

We are enjoying delightful fall weather - talk of going away but do not get started. Expect certainly to go south again after Christmas. Sure, my sisters are in Litchfield settled in their Wilkins' flat as they call it where many Spinster come a go. Am glad you called to see me Miss Has-Branch's cousin - you remember how anxious she was to have you.

Be sure & give my love to the folks at home when you write.
Your Mother & Emma will surely go over to see you by another spring I think.

Does Emma continue to be hard-hearted & unrelenting toward a certain young man?
Cousin Piers sends much love as does yours affectionately,

Luz P. Le Brun
