Business

06/07: 11 Admissions criteria. The SAC discussed problems with issues related to conflicts between SSU admission requirements and individual major admission requirements. The SAC also discussed problems that students are having finding open classes for next semester. Matthew Lopez-Phillips said he would talk to Kathryn Crabbe about visiting SAC next semester to discuss these issues.

06/07 7 Priority Registration Policy and Form. The SAC discussed the issue of informing groups that want to receive priority registration for the Fall 2007 semester that they must submit an application form to SAC by early March of 2007. An e-mail will be sent to the advisor for all groups that currently have priority registration to inform them of the need to apply for priority registration next Fall. A copy of the application form will be sent to Laurel Holmstrom to be posted on the Academic Senate web site.

Holiday Celebration:

The committee had an end of the year celebration with food and soft drinks.
