Advising Notes

1. HIST 4 is required before enrollment in HIST 100W for all students catalog year 2004-05 to present.
2. It is strongly recommended that history majors take both HIST 11 and 12.
3. No General Education Integration or Multicultural/International course offered by the Department of History may be used to satisfy the General Education requirements for history majors.
4. History majors are not permitted to take history courses by CR/NC grading.
5. General Education and elective units may be used toward a double major or minor (see Double Major or departmental minor). Consult the appropriate department chair, program coordinator, or faculty adviser for further information.

6. Students who are planning to do graduate work in history are advised to take a foreign language as an undergraduate in consultation with the History Department.
7. HIST 100W should be scheduled in consultation with the undergraduate adviser.
8. All majors must take a total of 27 units from the three fields listed below, taking into account the following requirements:
  - Students must take a minimum of two courses (6 units) in each field, with at least one from A and one from B in the European History Field.
  - Up to 3 units of HIST 190 may be applied toward the major.
  - HIST 190 may not be taken in lieu of a course offered by the department. Students should have taken courses in the appropriate field prior to taking HIST 190.
  - No more than 3 units of HIST 193 can be applied to any one field.

Fields

United States History: HIST 101, 102T, 137, 158, 159, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 177, 178, 179T, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 190, 193.

European History: (A) HIST 103, 111, 112, 116, 119T, 121, 122, 124T, 125, 126, 127, 130, 131, 144, 150, 190, 193. (B) HIST 104, 129T, 132, 133, 134, 135, 138, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 149T, 151, 152, 190, 193.

World Regions: HIST 105, 106, 107, 108A, 108B, 109T, 110, 114, 115, 157, 160, 162, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169T, 190, 191, 192, 193, 199T.

History Minor

The History Minor consists of 18-21 units of upper-division history courses. Students will choose six upper-division courses from the three fields (U.S., European, and World Regions). Students may take HIST 100W as one of the six courses, but in order to do so they must take the prerequisite of HIST 4. Therefore, students who take HIST 100W will take a total of seven classes for the minor. History minors are not permitted to take history courses by CR/NC grading.

Note: The History Minor also requires a 2.0 GPA and 6 upper-division units in residence.

Credential Program

See the Social Sciences credential adviser, Social Science Building, Room 102, for advising, and refer to Secondary Teaching Credential under Social Sciences Programs (see page 484).

American History Requirement

The American history requirement for graduation may be fulfilled by passing (a) the Advanced Placement Examination (see Advanced Placement) or (b) HIST 11 or 12.

Graduate Program

The Master of Arts program in History is designed to extend the competence of persons engaged in a wide variety of fields requiring a broad grasp of historical knowledge, techniques, and interpretation. Within this degree program, students may choose to complete either a traditional track or a teaching option. The traditional track, which offers both thesis and examination as possible culminating experiences, best satisfies the needs of those interested in public service, teaching at the community college level, or pursuing advanced graduate study in history. The teaching option best satisfies the needs of those interested in enhancing their teaching of history primarily at the secondary level.

Prerequisites. Admission to the Master of Arts degree program in History assumes undergraduate preparation equivalent to this university's major in history. Majors from other disciplines may qualify for admission depending on grade point average and other factors deemed pertinent for success in historical studies. The department determines in each case whether the applicant needs additional preparation before receiving classified standing. Applicants to the Teaching Option must have either a teaching credential or special approval from the graduate coordinator prior to applying.

Graduate Writing Requirement. The graduate writing requirement will be met by submission of a 15- to 20-page research paper formatted according to disciplinary style. The graduate writing committee will meet twice a year — November 15 and March 14 — to assess student writing. Detailed guidelines can be found in the
