

The President and the Executive Council of the UCLA Alumni Association present to you herewith a certificate of Life Membership in the Association. It is to certify that you have complied with all the pertinent requirements of the articles and by-laws of the UCLA Alumni Association and are entitled to all membership privileges and rights therein granted for life. Your interest in the Association and in the University is greatly appreciated.