

What the President of the United States Has to Say About CDC:

"I have always regarded the California Democratic Council as one of the United States' most important centers of citizens' participation in public affairs."

What Governor Brown Has to Say About "Champions" of CDC:

"I became a 'Champion' of CDC because I believe in the principle of grass roots Democratic action, and because I believe that the CDC plan for expansion of membership is vital to the government in California.

I join my fellow 'Champions', the other Constitutional Officers, in urging the support of 'Champions' of CDC. "

The following table gives a graphic indication of the change in the California political picture since 1952, the eve of the birth of the CALIFORNIA DEMOCRATIC COUNCIL.
