Miss Julia Morgan,
Merchants Exchange,
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Madam:

With reference to the shipment of 21 cases from Arthur Byne, Madrid, Spain, we duly received your telegram, requesting us to communicate with Mr. McGregor toward obtaining payment of the $990.00, the amount of charges on the shipment. We did so, but with the usual result, that is, no communication from the office up to the present.

We have forwarded the shipment by Panama Pacific Line, in bond, per S/S Kroonland, sailing on the 21st inst, and as we were obliged to consign the shipment to order of Maison Garrouste, we are attaching bills of lading to a sight draft, drawn on you for the amount of charges as mentioned below.

Will you please honor on presentation, and oblige.

Yours truly,

Tice & Lynch, Inc.

Dear Miss Morgan:

I have been down here in Andalusia several days now superintending the packing of the "tile ceiling" and investigating old houses, patios, and architectural accessories in general. I am hoping to secure permission to export an old house I visited yesterday some miles from here. If the permission materializes I shall send photos of the facade and patio.

I bought some 10,000 old Spanish roof tiles for a Florida house - just the plain sort with rich coloring of moss and exposure: would

Dear Madam:

Supplementing our letter of the 18th inst,
we now inform you that we have received from the Hudson Forwarding & Shipping Company, this city, a check, in payment of the charges on the shipment of 21 cases forwarded in bond by Panama Pacific Line.

We have picked up the foreign bills of lad-ing, which we are delivering to the Hudson Forwarding & Shipping Company, and they will no doubt forward
the bills of lading direct to you.

We have also instructed our bank to cancel the draft which we drew on you, and requested them to instruct the San Francisco Bank to deliver the Panama
Pacific Line bill of lading to you.

Yours truly,

Tice & Lynch, Inc.

Dear Madame:

Referring to your communication addressed to Mr. C. A. MacGregor under date of May 2nd, relative to a shipment from Maison Garrouste in connection with six marble columns and ceiling, we have the pleasure to inform you that upon instructions of Mr. Willicombe we have paid Messrs. Tice and Lynch their charges, and herewith enclose original bills of lading which covers the shipment consisting of twentyone cases marked J. Morgan, San Francisco, shipped by Casa Garrouste on the s/s "Cabo Torres".

We presume that the Consular Invoice covering the shipment is in your possession. However, if to the contrary, kindly advise and same will have our further attention. Please be careful with the enclosed bills of lading as the loss of same would cause you a great inconvenience in securing shipment at your end.

Awaiting your early acknowledgment, we beg to remain

Very truly yours,

Mr. Arthur Byne,

Dear Mr. Byne:

Enclosed is Mr. Hearst's check to cover the Plateresques, items #2, 3, 4 and 5, which we are delighted to have.

Mr. Hearst is in New York and the check came back here from there. I am wondering if the first check for the Columns($6,500.) was mailed to you directly? He said you could draw on him for the sum, Chase National Bank, or that he would forward a check. I wrote him to please send the check, but if you have not received it, please draw on him for the amount.

We have just inspected the Ceilings and like them very much - four can be used at once, the balance in future plans.

I cannot write more tonight, but send you and your Mildred Stapley my best thanks and appreciation.

Sincerely,

JM:G
