Dear Jane:

The process of selecting delegates to the Democratic National Convention is underway. A staff, headed by Tom Saunders, is now at work in San Francisco, gathering names for submission to the Selection Committee.

This Committee must meet on or about February 17 to review the names and make final choices, so the pressures of time are upon us. Your recent list of suggested names has been received. I am enclosing forms, one of which should be completed for each suggested individual. If you have other suggestions as to individuals whom you believe should serve as delegates, please send them along as soon as possible.

In submitting your suggestions, will you take a few moments to give us some background information and, of course, complete addresses, phone numbers, etc. For your convenience, a quantity of forms are enclosed for this purpose. Meanwhile, we will be soliciting names from other Democratic office holders and party leaders.

As you know, we are permitted only four delegates from each Congressional District, plus twenty delegates at large. Where two or more Districts are totally contained within a single County, delegates may be appointed from that County without regard to CD lines. (The newly reapportioned Congressional District lines will prevail.) It is important to remember, too, that the cost to each delegate will be in the neighborhood of $750, including travel, hotel and delegate fees.

Sincerely,

Charles Warren, Chairman
