ASSISTANT CENTER MANAGER

ERNEST A. DUNN

Assistant Center Manager Ernest A. Dunn, the man with the "smiling eyes," was raised in the cattle country in Wisconsin on milk and beefsteak, but apparently he didn't get fed sour milk or tough meat for there is nothing hard to swallow or chew about his disposition.

Like Mr. Pulliam, this soft spoken gentleman always has a cigar protruding from his face. He, like the Manager, also has them imported from the same firm in Florida.

His soul must be a happy one for smile wrinkles are evident above his upturned mouth. A trace of boyish bashfulness may still be seen as he talks.

One seems to feel a quiet efficiency while enveloped in his friendly magnetic personality.

His hobby is consistent with this popular leader's tastes since his favorite spare time activity is fishing---ask him about the big one that got away.

M E S S A G E

It is time to say good-bye. I want to say to each of you that I have enjoyed working with you. We have had many hard days of work together, and we will all carry certain pleasant memories of both our work and the recreation we have enjoyed.

It is my wish that your long journey be a very pleasant one and that the new project that is to be your home will be even better than any one of you anticipate. With your ability to improve your own surroundings, I feel confident that you will have a model community in all respects in Jerome.

You are entering an entirely different type of country from that of the Pacific Coast. You will find an abundance of rainfall, which in itself will be a novelty. The weather apparently is warmer than the San Joaquin Valley, but there is also some compensation for this change. You will live in a country where timber is abundant and streams and lakes plentiful.

Rest assured that I will be interested in your progress and that there will be a certain amount of personal satisfaction in knowing that you are making good in a new, untried field.

Good-bye and Good Luck!

E. A. Dunn
Assistant Center Manager
