Dear Assembly Candidates:

I have the highest respect for each of you for offering to articulate the serious issues facing our state. The winner of the responsibilities to serve as a member of the California Assembly will carry the burdens of office, but the losers will also be winners if their campaigns are conducted on a high level of integrity, candor and ethics. The public will be better informed and hopefully have more respect for those who seek public office, depending upon your conduct in the coming campaign.

My district and Capitol staff are available to provide you with information on state operations and legislative activities. I will personally be glad to discuss the complex issues with each of you at a mutually convenient time and place. My Administrative Secretary, Ann Schlange, will make arrangements.

Sincerely,

J. K. MAC DONALD
