Dear Ian:

Just received your letter mailed May 23rd on account of forwarding. Your address was as follows:

William P. Wreden
1105 El Valporiso
San Mateo, California

The actual address is;

William P. Wreden
1105 Valparaiso Avenue
Menlo Park, California

By devious means, someone directed this letter to me so that I received it via slow dog train. I am sorry that I did not get it before. A still better address for speed is ;

William P. Wreden
Box 56
Palo Alto, California

I have written the editor of the San Luis Obispo County Telegram-Tribune and if he is pleased with it, it will undoubtedly appear soon. Did you receive the bill for the shells? I presume you did not wish any more shells or I would have heard from you.

Sincerely,

WPW:P
