

CSUCI to host 'An Evening with Patch Adams'

Camarillo, Calif., Sept. 14, 2007-California State University Channel Islands presents "An Evening with Patch Adams" from 6 to 8 p.m. on Sept. 26. Patch Adams, M.D., is a nationally known speaker on wellness, laughter, and humor as well as on health care and health care systems. He is also an author.

The event will be held on the CSUCI campus in Malibu Hall 100. A book-signing will follow from 8 to 8:30 p.m. Tickets for the event are $30 for the general public, $15 for CSUCI faculty and staff members, free for CSUCI students. Tickets can be purchased online by clicking the link to the event on the home page of CSUCI's Web site at <http://www.csuci.edu>.

Free parking and shuttle service to and from the campus will be available from the Camarillo Metrolink Station/Lewis Road parking lot in Camarillo from 5 to 9 p.m.

Dr. Adams approaches the issues of personal, community, and global health with zestful exuberance, according to Time Magazine. He believes that the most revolutionary act one can commit in our world is to be happy. He is a medical doctor; clown; performer; social activist; founder and director of the Gesundheit Institute, a holistic medical community that has provided free medical care to thousands of patients since it began in 1971; and the author of "Gesundheit!" and "House Calls."

This event is sponsored by CSUCI Instructionally Related Activities (IRA) Fund; Nursing, Psychology, and Sociology Programs; and Student Life.
