

STUDENT AFFAIRS

Applications should be submitted to the Professor of Aerospace Studies during the fall semester one year prior to anticipated enrollment in AFROTC. Detailed information concerning AFROTC can be obtained by calling the Department of Aerospace Studies (487-2593) or by visiting the Air Science Wing of the Men's Gym, Room 158.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS

A number of graduate assistantships and teaching assistantships are available to students who are enrolled in the master's degree program and whose previous records show outstanding achievement in academic work, outstanding subject matter competence in the major field, and the special qualities necessary to the duties assigned. A beginning graduate assistant may receive a stipend of up to $4,130 for twenty hours per week of work during the academic year. Some assistantships may be for reduced time and carry prorated stipends. For information write to the Dean, School of Graduate Studies or your department chairman, specifying field of graduate study and any special abilities that might justify assignment as a graduate assistant.

RESIDENT ADVISERS

42

The university employs a number of students as advisers in its residence hall program. These positions are available to students whose interest and background indicate competence in this type of work. The stipends vary, depending upon the work assignment. Generally they cover the cost of residence hall room and board. Applications and further information are available at the beginning of the spring semester from the Director of Housing.

BASIC EDUCATION OPPORTUNITY GRANT

The Basic Education Opportunity Grant Program, more commonly known as Basic Grants, is a new program of student financial aid which was authorized by Title IV, Part A, of the Education Amendments of 1972. This program provides for grants of $1,800 less the expected family contribution for all eligible students to assist them in meeting educational costs. To be eligible for the Basic Education Opportunity Grant, the following criteria must be met: (1) an undergraduate student for the period for which application is made; (2) attendance on at least a half-time basis (6 or more credit hours per term); (3) United States citizenship or residence in the United States, for other than a temporary basis, and intention to become a resident. Program regulations change from year to year. Check with the Financial Aids Office for the regulations now in effect. Students may apply by filling out the Student Aid Application for California. Forms are available at high schools, community colleges and CSUF Financial Aids Office.

BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS (BIA) GRANTS

If you are at least one-fourth American Indian, Eskimo, or Aleut, as recognized by a tribal group served by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, you may apply for a BIA grant. The amount is based on financial need and availability of funds from your area agency. You must first submit an application for financial aid and supportive documents by the deadlines, then make an appointment with a Financial Aids counselor to complete the BIA application.
