GENERAL REVIEW OF SAN LIUIS OBISPO COUNTY'S RESOURCES.

Situated midway between the two most important parts of the California coast, having climatic conditions that cannot be excelled, vast acreages of excellent agricultural and horticultural land that needs no irrigation, mineral deposits that are of great value, both temperate and semi-tropical climates, and all natural facilities for every kind of enterprise, the beautiful and picturesque county of San Luis Obispo can be exceled nowhere in the world.

This is one of the first settlements made by the Spanish in California, and consequently has an interesting history.

The early Spaniards found it a genuine paradise, a land having ever running streams traversing beautiful fertile mountain valleys wherein many varieties of wild animals roamed and fed. This of course attracted the attention of the explorers and soon the mission of San Luis Obispo was founded. The natives were gathered under the protection of the Mission, where in a crude way they were taught the ways of civilization, and the whole coast side of the county was divided up into several large grants of land that were given in the old open-handed, Spanish way to certain grandees for county was divided up into several large grants of land that were given in the old open-handed. Spanish way to certain grandees for services rendered, or to supply favorites with valuable patrimonies. All of these rich gifts have passed from the hands of the original owners and their heirs, to business men who have in many cases divided them up into small farms, many of which are the richest in the county.

The county has an area of three thousand two hundred and fifty square miles, and a population of 16,000 people.

The coast line is about one hundred miles in length, on which there are several small harbors, Port Harford, eight miles to the west of San Luis Obispo, being the best. This harbor has been used for the past fifty years, and has lately been improved. The Pacific Coast railroad carries the produce of much of the county to this port, where it is shipped by steamer to the various markets.

The western side of the county is well watered by many small streams, and is devoted almost exclusively to dairying and farming interests, which bring large profits to the residents of that section. The rainfall for this section is quite regular, and averages about twenty inches.

The eastern part of the county has a very light rainfall, yet the land is of such a quality that very little water is needed for raising land is of such a quality that very little water is needed for raising cereals. This is at times a very productive wheat country, but the long distance from market is a great drawback. Several large cattle ranches are situated on the Carisa plains and San Juan valley. To be accurate, the whole of the eastern part of the county is given over to the growing of grain and raising of cattle, which is the source of a heavy income to the county.

Arroyo Grande is noted for its excellent fruits, and large vegetable production, of which apricots, pears, prunes and cherries, and beans and potatoes form the most extensive crops. All varieties of both citrus and deciduous fruits are grown extensively in this section of the county and the erection of a cannery is contemplated in the near future.

tion of the county and the erection of a cannery is contemplated in the near future.

While the county is far ahead of most of California it could be made much better and will in the near future. The natural resources are vastly superior to most other counties in the State, but a full realization of the advantages here will not come for some time yet. Large areas of the hill land of the county have been planted in grapes and this has proved to be a profitable investment. Every species of this luscious fruit may be grown to perfection. The industry probably claims the longest career of any in the county or State, and to the founders of the old Mission may be traced the planting of the Mission grape.

In the matter of transportation the county is well supplied, having the coast division of the great Southern Pacific for the full length of the county and the completion of this line over the Gap has made San Luis Obispo a place of importance in the State, and when the fertile lands, mineral resources, and above all, the healthfulness of the climate and the magnificent grandeur of its scenery, becomes known, there will be a steady and permanent increase in the population of this section.

The Pacific Coast railway has a length of 78 miles, extending from San Luls Obispo south to Los Olivas, in northern Santa Barbara county, and Port Harford and traverses some of the richest sections of the county.

There are numerous small but safe landings along the county's coast line and wharves are located at Port Harford, San Simeon, Cayucos, and Pismo. As the coast steamers make regular stops, the cheap transportation afforded is of incalculable value to the county.

On the ranches in the eastern part of the county large herds of

On the ranches in the eastern part of the county large herds of cattle are raised, but as nothing but the natural feed is ever used, large ranches are required for stock raising. Of these, the San Juan and Carisa are representative ranches, the former having sixty-two thousand acres and the latter over forty thousand.

For some time there has been under consideration a proposition to build a railroad from the San Joaquin valley to Port Harford for the transportation of the great cereal crop of that region and since the production of oil, in that district it becomes more imperative that direct connections with the coast be had. Also there is much talk of a pipe line from the oil belt to Port Harford and if this plan is carried out refineries will be placed on the coast, but this may not be done for two or three years, as the oil productions would probably not warrant it yet.

Last, but not least, comes the mineral resources These are not to any great extent developed, but enough is known so that it can be safely said that this will be a great element in the future of the county. Oil, gold, quicksilver, copper, coal, iron, magnesia and chromic iron are known to exist in more or less paying quantities, but with the exception of quicksilver mining very little development has been done. On the coast side of the county several unsuccessful attempts have bene made to find oil, but as other sections of the county have the best of indications renewed efforts are being made and new companies organizing. In a few years this will be one of the cluthy have the best of indications renewed efforts are being made and new companies organizing. the much sought for oil sand will soon be struck, as the district has every indication of being a good one.

The Sycamore and Newsom's Hot Sulphur Springs are among the finest in the State and patronized equally well by health and pleasure seekers, as tub or plunge baths are to be had at either.

As a word of conclusion there are few, if any, sections in this State that offer the varied and great opportunities which San Luis Obispo city and county offers to the business man or home-seeker. And as the fame of its climate and scenery spreads countless will be the thousands of pleasure seekers and tourists that will visit here and depart with always a good word for the open-handed hospitality of old San Luis Obispo.

Of the many health-producing resorts in California there are but few that are more pleasantly situated or more widely and favorably known than Newson's Hot Surphur Springs, located two miles to the southwest of Arroyo Grande. Mr. D. F. Newsom, the owner of this resort, is one of the pioneers of this section of the coast, and perhaps is better known as the father of the public school system of San Luis Obispo county. The property on which the springs are located is a tract of wooded land several hundred acres in extent of hills and valleys, and in one of the latter, which contains some six acres, is located the springs. Mr. Newsom has erected several cottages, which he rents furnished for a nominal sum, and which are conveniently located to the two plunge and several tub baths, which are a great convenience to guests and campers, and as the latter have the use of grounds free of charge, thousands go there each season. The ocean beach being but a short drive, many take advantage of its added pleasures in bathing and clam digging.

N. C. BREW.

N. C. BREW.

So much pride is now being taken by the patrons of retail furniture dealers in the ornamentation of their homes, in purchasing for parlor or bedroom, that the retail dealer considers alike the two virtues in purchasing wholesale, elegance and quality, and all who have purchased from or inspected the stock of N. C. Brew, 721 Higuera street, fully and unanimously assert that it is one of the best selected stocks in San Luis. Mr. Brew is a thoroughly experienced furniture dealer and a good judge of all matters connected with the trade, and you will always find his large stock of household furniture, from kitchen tables to tapestry carpets, the very best.

RICHMOND & SMALLMAN.

An institution in which the gentler sex evinces practically no interest, but which is of great importance to the average man, is a first-class tonsorial parlor, such a one is the Sunset Barber Shop (formerly known as Armstrong's), located on Monterey street, next door to Sinsheimer Bros. store, and presided over by jovial Jim Smallman and the none the less popular and affable Billy Richmond. Messrs. Richmond and Smallman have made many changes and improvements since their advent as proprietors and any one desiring a first-class hair cut, shave or bath will do well to pay them a visit.

COSMOPOLITAN HOTEL.

With the commencement of civilization dates the beginning of the public inn or hotel, and in communities the world over they are established for the comfort and convenience of the traveling and local public and in some we find that no effort has been neglected to cater to the convenience and comfort of the guests, Such a house is the Cosmopolitan Hotel of San Luis Obispo, presided over by mine host Sebastian. Mr. Sebastian is late of Los Angeles, where he has followed the hotel business for a number of years and the popularity and patronage he is enjoying but proves the old adage that "earnest effort brings its just reward."

CHAS. L. ST. CLAIR.

CHAS. L. ST. CLAIR.

The great elevating and educational influence today of the metropolitan daily newspapers of our country is being felt throughout the width and breadth of our country, for the great lines of steel railways or throbbing steamboats place at the disposal of the average city of a few thousand population the same advantages to subscribers as in the larger cities, that of reading the news within a few hours after it is published, it is to this end that agencies are established, with a rustling, wide-awake man as manager. The people of San Luis are to be congratulated in the prompt service that they receive and the fact that Mr. St. Clair handles nearly all the San Francisco and Los Angeles dailies shows the esteem in which he his held by the publishers. the publishers.

MAISON DOREE RESTAURANT.

An old saying is that "the way to reach a man's heart is through his stomach," and if that be true the whole-souled proprietor of the Maison Doree restaurant, Mr. Cheisa, should indeed be blessed with a large circle of male friends, and if one is to judge by appearances his acquaintance among the gentler sex is equally large, for his bill of fare consists always of appetizing viands prepared by a first class chef from the best the market affords.

DAILY AND SEMI-WEEKLY BREEZE.

With the vast improvement in printing presses so that from a few hundred to as many hundred thousand copies can be published in the same time it has created for the newspaper in a small city of a few thousand inhabitants a feat that was almost impossible a decade of years or so ago, that of publishing a daily newspaper. San Luis, not to be outdone by her sister cities, Salinas and Santa Barbara, supports two daily papers, the leading being the Breeze, published each evening except Sunday. The semi-weekly issues of the paper are published on Tuesdays and Fridays. The Breeze enjoys the distinction of being one of the leading country newspapers on the Pacific Coast, will a combined circulation of nearly two thousand copies, daily and semi-weekly.

LIVE AND LET LIVE LIVERY STABLES.

LIVE AND LET LIVE LIVERY STABLES.

In every community where good roads are an established fact, and the climate permits, most every one enjoys a ride in a comfortable buggy with a span of good driving horses hitched to it, and as each individual cannot afford such a luxury for the principal reason that he hasn't the time or facilities to take care of them, the consequent result is that a business opening is afforded for livery stables. As the above conditions exist here, Mr. S. J. Mudd, who has had long experience in that business, lately assumed the proprietorship of the livery business formerly conducted by Mr P. J. McHenry, and has added many new rigs, both single and double, as well as having on hand a three-seater and a bus, and has purchased several head of the best driving stock to be had in the county, so that any one wishing first-class service in this line will do well to try him.

J. L. ANDERSON.

J. L. ANDERSON

Until a few years ago San Luis had no exclusive gentlemen's furnishing goods and clothing house, and Mr. Anderson, who was alive to the business opportunity open to him and thoroughly understanding the business, was quick to take advantage of it, and though he started in a modest war his business has grown so rapidly that today his large store at the corner of Moro and Monterey streets is one of the most widely known in the county. His stock is of the best and the latest styles in anything a man, youth or boy wears, with the exception of shoes, can be had at a reasonable price. The tailoring department is under the management of a first-class tailor and his patrons include a large number of the county's leading men.

SINSHEIMER BROS

One of the pioneer business houses of this county and one whose volume of business has increased until today it stands among the leaders between San Francisco and the southern metropolis is the general merchandise firm of Sinsheimer Bros. They stand without a peer as the largest shippers of beans, wheat and other cereals in this section of the State and have held for years a membership in the San Francisco Produce Exchange. Their large double store is stocked with the best of goods in every line, so outfitting man, woman or child, the house or farm is a small task if you but place yourself in charge of their efficient and ship carms of clerks. charge of their efficient and able corps of clerks

LEWIS' PHOTO STUDIO.

Since the invention of the camera and from the time the daguer-reotype first became popular until the present day, when the life size carbon finish photo is to be seen in the large studios, the public taste and demand for photographs has always furnished a remunerative field for the first-class artist, and if one is to judge by the patronage he enjoys the verdict is that Mr. Lewis during his many years' residence in San Luis has truly earned his laurers as one of the best His studio is fitted with up-to-date apparatus and his specialty is photographing babies and children.

PALACE SHOE STORE.

Fortunately the great liberty loving race of Americans extend, in a sense of the word, to their pedal extremities freedom and comfort, and you'll find in the average city store that deals exclusively in that line footwear that gives comfort and satisfaction, and to San Luis Obispo the Palace shoe store, Higuera street, opposite Garden street, is known as such Always a complete line of ladies' children's and men's shoes, and boots, in the best qualities from a pair of baby's shoes at a few bits, to the high top walking shoes or the patent leather drses shoes at several dollars a pair. Mr. O'Sullivan & Sons are proprietors and they spare no pains to please and satisfy their customers and enjoy a lucrative trade alike from residents of the city and county.

J. M. M'CURRY, DENTIST.

There are very few people but that have had to consult a dentist, either because of a decaying tooth which they wished filled, dentist, either because of a decaying tooth which they wished filled, or perhaps the pain was almost unendurable and to have it extracted seemed the only relief, little realizing that a first class dentist could treat that tooth and save it for them, and you who read these few lines will do well to keep Dr. McCurry, office corner Marsh and Garden streets, in mind when you wish any work whatever in his line, as he is a graduate of one of America's leading dental colleges, and his several years' experience on this coast has thoroughly fitted him for the proper execution of his duties, whether it be extracting, treating the teeth, crown work, or any other branch of his profession.

J. DORMER.

It is without doubt a true statement when we say that there is not a man in this county whose business takes him to or places him more in touch with the homes of this community than Mr. J. Dormer, who conducts an exclusive sewing machine business at the corner of Marsh and Garden streets. Just so long as families reside here just so long will the sewing machine industry continue, and it is a foregone conclusion that as an actual necessity the sewing machine stands today next to the kitchen stays. Mr. Dormer carries in stock the today next to the kitchen stove. Mr. Dormer carries in stock the leading and standard makes of machines, and any lady who contemplates making a change or purchasing a new machine will do well to inspect his stock.

LLOYD RESTAURANT.

To the old traveler or the local resident who prefers the best in serving "the inner man" and enjoys a meal so much that upon leaving the table he will remark "just like mother used to make," we refer him to Miss Grace Yarrington and her mother, who conduct the only private family boarding house in this city, located on Broad street, between Marsh and Higuera streets The house is surrounded by large well kept grounds, containing a plentiful growth of flowering plants and shrubs plants and shrubs.

W. H. SCHULZE.

W. H. SCHULZE.

One of the exclusive gents' furnishing clothiers and furnishers of this city is W. H. Schulze, who is widely known throughout the county and who is deservedly popular owing to his liberality in dealing with his customers. His stock of hats, caps, etc., is one of the largest and most complete this side of San Francisco, and his line of clothing for boys, youths, and men is one of the best selected in San Luis, and as there is a tailoring establishment connected with the firm, there has yet to be the first case of dissatisfaction among his many customers, either as regards fit or quality of goods.

LAUGHERY HOTEL.

In stopping at a public hotel there are two important facts that the great majority of travelers have to consider; those are price and accommodations, and as the first in the instance of this hotel are moderate and the second first class, it is but just that the wholesouled proprietor, P. J. Fitzpatrick, is forced through lack of rooms to turn away a great many who come to him through the recommendation of former guests, and his patronage from the country districts is a splendid sign of the esteem in which the public holds him.

RENETZKY & CO.

From the time the ancient Egyptians began wearing sandals down to the present day the human race has worn a protection for the feet. True, that some have, to all exclusion of comfort, pinched and tortured their feet almost beyond endurance, so that the dictates of fashion might be followed, and for the benefit of those who desire to secure a stylish fit and at the same time enjoy the solid comfort of their shoes, 'tis well they should keep in mind Renetzky & Co., of 708 Higuera street, for h.s stock is selected from the best goods put out by the leading manufacturers. by the leading manufacturers.

M'CAFFREY BROS

There are thousands of families in this great country who keep in their homes for daily use various kinds of liquors, and as they are not open or bold in the matter, they do not care to patronize the saloons, hence the establishment of the wholesale and family liquor stores, and as such is the above firm, who enjoy a large family trade in this country, as well as the leading wholesale patronage. Their stock is selected of the best only, in both spirituous and malt liquors, and their wholesale store is located at the corner of Broad and Higuera streets. guera streets.

DO YOU NEED MONEY?

Don't make the people you owe wait for their money; it's not fair to them. If you need money to run your business or harvest your crop, get it at the bank. Part of a bank's business is to loan money to responsible people.

SOME LEADING BUSINESS FIRMS OF PASO ROBLES.

GEO. F. BELL.

By carefully considering the wants of the public and at all times making an earnest effort of please, the Pioneer General Store, Geo. F. Bell, proprietor, has gradually built up from a little corner grocery to one of the largest and best stocked stores in this part of

with the increase in business he is enabled to buy larger quantities at a lower price, at the same time observing the most important feature in purchasing wholesale, that is, quality.

He constantly strives by courteous treatment to his customers and reasonable profits to himself, to merit the confidence and support of all.

BANK OF PASO ROBLES.

BANK OF PASO ROBLES.

This financial institution marks one of the steps in the progress of Paso Robles. It is the pioneer bank of that city, being established in the year 1887. It is situated in the corner room of the Blackburn block, which was erected with special regard to its occupancy. A general banking business is carried on there in all its branches, and every facility is extended to its patrons consistent with conservative management. Interest is paid on time deposits; loans allowed on personal security; exchange bought and sold on San Francisco, New York, London and all other desired points.

The Bank of Paso Robles has since its establishment enjoyed the good will and esteem of the people of this section, and at all times carries a heavy deposit balance. It includes among its depositors many of the largest financial institution of the section. It is officered as follows: H. Eppinger, Jr., president; R. E. Jack, vice-president; F. D. Frost, cashier; A. F. Jack, assistant cashier. The board of curectors include the officers and W. F. Brown.

PASO ROBLES CYCLERY AND BICYCLE HOSPITAL.

The above well patronized institution was established by its present proprietor six years ago. In addition to a general bicycle business, involving the functions of an up-to-date cyclery, Mr. Smith also has a jewelry and watchmaking department. Guns, ammunition, sewing machines and sundries are also carried by him, including sewing mach nes, needles, all parts of wheels, guns, etc. Vulcanizing, brazing. enameling, locksmithing and lathe turning are features of his repairing department. A large stock of wheels of various makes are carried to select from. Facilities for renting, repairing, and purchasing are all offered the public at C. S. Smith's Paso Robles Cyclery and Bicycle Hospital.

PASO ROBLES FURNITURE CO

A large and extended trade is carried on by this household furnishing establishment. R. C. Heaton, the manager, established the business six years ago. Both new and second-hand furniture is carried here, which is both sold and rented. Houses are furnished complete, all grades of furniture and other goods are bought and sold; in short, this house offers inducements out of the ordinary lines of business. The renting of household furnishings is one of the specialties

Mr. Heaton has lately added a full line of farming implements, vehicles and hardware so that he is in a position to compete with all concerns of a like character from San Francisco to Los Angeles.

B. B. PIERCE.

B. B. PIERCE.

Few men of this section are better known than B. B. Pierce. He has been a resident of Paso Robles since the commencement of activities in this city. His livery stable is one of the well known stables of San Luis Obispo county. It is well stocked with good horsefiesh and vehicles of all descriptions. Included in the stock here are fast roadsters and gentle animals suitable for ladles' driving purposes. These stables are prominently located at the corner of Railroad and Twelfth streets. Mr. Pierce conducts his stable on first class principles, and his prices are very reasonable. Through his long residence in this section and his extended acquaintance and familiarity with the county, he is enabled to offer patrons any desired information regarding this locality.

PASO ROBLES BOTTLING CO.

PASO ROBLES BOTTLING CO.

This institution is the bottlers of the famous Paso Robles Soda Springs water. This water, which is in large demand wherever introduced, is being shipped by the firm to all parts of the world. It easily takes first place when a comparison is made of the well known mineral waters of Caliornia. No mineral water bottled contains the life and sparkle that is found in the Paso Robles water. Mr. T. Brooks, the manager, has engaged in this business in Paso Robles for the past six years, and in addition to the local mineral water, bottles all kinds of soft drinks. These works are fully equipped for every branch of the bottling business, and the trade handled is both local and foreign.
