

account for all of the time not in attendance at CSUF.

An approved planned educational leave will maintain a student's continuous attendance status.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS

For the bachelor of arts, bachelor of science, and bachelor of vocational education degrees a minimum of 24 semester units must be earned in residence at CSUF; at least one-half of these units (12) must be completed among the last 20 semester units counted toward the degree. Summer session credit and credit earned in the California State University and Colleges International Programs may be applied on this requirement on a unit for unit basis.

For special residence requirements see Public School Credentials and School of Graduate Studies. For interpretation and definitions see Admissions—Determination of Residence.

Extension credit and credit by examination may not be used to fulfill the minimum residence requirement. (California Administrative Code, Title 5, Chapter 5, Section 4043.)

SCHOLARSHIP REQUIREMENTS

To qualify for any bachelor's degree a student must have at least a C average (2.0 on a four grade-point system) on his or her total college record, must have maintained at least a C average at CSUF, and must have at least a C average in his or her approved major.

See also School of Education—Application for Admission to Credential Programs, School of Graduate Studies, and Scholarship Status in the preceding section of this catalog.

SPECIAL COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Entering undergraduate students should note the following specific requirements:

United States Constitution and American History. In accordance with Title 5 of the Administrative Code, Section 40404, a student, in order to graduate, must demonstrate his or her competence with respect to the Constitution of the United States, American History, and in the principles of state and local government of California. This may be done by passing examinations or by completing appropriate courses. (See History Department—American History Requirement and Political Science Department—United States Constitution Requirement.)

ENGLISH REQUIREMENT

English 1, Composition, or its equivalent is an all-university graduation requirement. This requirement must be completed before the end of the fourth semester of university attendance. The requirement may be met by the successful challenge of English 1 through Credit by Examination or through satisfactory performance on the Advanced Placement Examination in English or the English Equivalency Examination. The English Placement Test does not substitute for the English 1 requirement.
