Also please let Melody know if you are interested in helping SPB focus on sustainability.

SEAL Center reserved 6 spots for SPB members to attend Back 2 Basics. This will take place on October 24th, 25th. It is an overnight retreat, with military training. If you intend to be a student leader, this could be very beneficial, because you will gain essential tools to help you in school and the real world.

Vice President's Reports:

Alissa and Josh had idea for quarter sheet ads for events to be distributed at GBM. Each person will get 30 sheets, and they will also be available in the office.

Event Report:

80's Rollerskate- October 3rd, from 11:30-2am, Free to students with ID, guests $7.50.

Rocky Horror Picture Show- working on invoice. The performers would need 6 hotel rooms if we are not able to house them in the dorms or Hub. 6 hotel rooms is not in our budget therefore we need to find a solution. Flyer should be done by today. Event is October 16th.

Block Party- October 17th, from 9pm-12am. Lost at CI theme. DJ Lucid will be the entertainment.

Talent Show- October 18th, 7pm-10pm. Doors open at 7pm. Talent Show forms due October 3rd.

Event Follow Up:

Invisible Children-40 people screening, good event, thinking about "book drive" to help with Schools 4 Schools (IC org.) at the end of the semester, perhaps collaborate with our book store.

Pit Stop-Parking crunch hindered Pit Stop, and therefore flyers were distributed to students in the café, library and Sage Hall. This is a great way to be involved in active advertising.

Voting Items:

A Frame and Megaphone will be postponed for next week.

New Business:

Water- possibly purchasing a water cooler to help with sustainability, and could be beneficial for SPB as well as ASI. We are looking into different brands that will be cost efficient.

Open Forum:

Star of the Week: Ali Heller, for being aggressive in assessment, as well as personal development. Also Star of the Week: Dana Lockwood, for her amazing advertisements!

We want to celebrate birthdays; Nigel from September 17th, Josh from September 29th, and Wendy on October 5th.

Chelsee is now President of the International Relations Club. She is also sitting on the Family Weekend Committee, and they need volunteers.
