Veteran southern California sportstrait artist Art Brewster captures the heart of Titan basketball — All-American guard Leon Wood and coach George McQuarn. Wood is the most decorated player ever to wear a Cal State Fullerton uniform and McQuarn has resurrected the program, earning one of 15 District Coach of the Year awards last year in a vote of the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

CAL STATE FULLERTON CAMPUS

California State University, Fullerton is a broadly based liberal arts institution that also offers many professional studies such as business administration, education, engineering and nursing. Having first offered classes in 1959, the university has grown to 23,000 students and achieved national distinction.

In 1984, the university will host team handball competition at the Summer Olympics. It also will begin its 25th anniversary observance with the theme "Honoring the Past—Creating the Future."

The university's students come primarily from Southern California with many from other states and other nations. Most students commute each day to and from classes: many come to classes only in the evening.

Drawn from throughout the world, the 750-member faculty is noted for its commitment to effective teaching and scholarly activity. Research is actively pursued, typically with students involved.

The university enjoys full accreditation for its overall program. In addition, national recognition has been accorded to programs in art, athletic training, business, chemistry, education, engineering, communications, music, nursing, speech and hearing, and theater. All told there are 82 degree programs—40 of them at the graduate level.

Reinforcing classroom instruction is the largest university level internship and cooperative education program on the West Coast. The program allows students to gain on-the-job experience while continuing their regular studies.

Another amenity is the extended education program. It provides classes, workshops, conferences and study tours on a year-round basis. Extended education offerings are open to the community without the formalities of regular admission to the university.

Still another strong point is the university's cultural events program. It includes a series that brings nationally known professional artists to the campus for residencies as well as public performances and the Cabaret Repertory Theater Company, which performs regularly in Brea.

An extensive recreation program aimed chiefly at students but also open to community members is another highlight, as is the 7,000-person network of community support organizations. The Titan Athletic Foundation is one of these support groups.

Further examples of community outreach are the Fullerton Arboretum and Tucker Wildlife Sanctuary. Opened in 1979, the Arboretum is a 25-acre on-campus preserve that was established jointly by the university and the City of Fullerton. Tucker Wildlife Sanctuary is a half-hour from campus in a canyon of the Santa Ana Mountains.

To reinforce the university's commitment to high academic standards and community services, Cal State has embarked on an ambitious campaign called "Commitment to Mind-power." Its purpose is to raise the necessary non-state funding to make a very good university a great university.

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Jewel Plummer Cobb, President

Dr. Jewel Plummer Cobb was appointed the third president of Cal State Fullerton on July 8, 1981. Her selection was the culmination of a nationwide search begun in November, 1980 to replace Dr. L. Donald Shields, who had resigned after a ten-year term to accept the presidency of Southern Methodist University.

Dr. Cobb had served as Dean of Douglass College at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey, since 1976. There she also held the rank of Professor of Biological Sciences. Prior to her Douglas appointment she was Dean of Connecticut College and professor of Zoology for seven years. Previously, she was Professor of Biology at Sarah Lawrence College in New York.

Born in January, 1924, Dr. Cobb is known for her work in cell physiology, her promotion of the advancement of women in scientific fields and her activities on behalf of minorities. She is the first black woman to head a major public university on the west coast.

Cobb earned her bachelor's degree in 1944 from Talladega College in Alabama and her M.S. and Ph.D. in cell physiology from New York University in 1947 and 1950, respectively. She is the mother of a son, Jonathan, who is a student in the Cornell University Medical School.

TITAN ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

(714) 773-2677

The Titan Athletic Foundation is a non-profit organization that exists solely to aid the athletic scholarship program at Cal State Fullerton. It is a group of individuals with a genuine interest in athletics, the University and the community.

The foundation supports athletics by providing funds for scholarships that insure an effective recruiting program which attracts the best athletes available. The 1983 drive totaled nearly $150,000.

The TAF was founded in January, 1973 and the initial 150 members raised approximately $30,000. Membership today totals more than 800.

Fullerton businessman Pierre Nicolas was the TAF's first president. He was succeeded by Don Karcher, president of Carl Karcher Enterprises; Buck Johns, president of Home Works; Larry Slagle, vice president of Yellow Cab of North Orange County; and most recently Jim Woods, president and chairman of the board of Baker Oil Tools.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

Lynn Eilefson, Athletic Director

Lynn Eilefson brought a background of fund-raising, marketing and stadium construction to Cal State Fullerton and his expertise in those areas already has shone brightly during his tenure.

Long dormant plans for a joint venture by the University and the city of Fullerton to erect a Youth Sports Complex featuring football/soccer and baseball stadiums have been revitalized with funding arranged and a 1985 completion date targeted. An "Orange Crush" theme for Orange County's largest intercollegiate sports program has been adopted and the most ambitious fund-raising goals in Titan Athletic Foundation history have been set.

"Cal State Fullerton has a great amount of untapped potential for an excellent program of intercollegiate athletics woven within an outstanding academic framework," said Eilefson upon his Apr. 1 1982 appointment.

"I have no doubt that, with a proper perspective, we can strike a balance between academic and athletic excellence while building a most successful sports program."

Eilefson came to Fullerton after serving as senior assistant director at UCLA where he was responsible for alumni and booster liaison, marketing, promotions and sports information. He previously served for eight and a half years at Fresno State University in a variety of positions including associate athletic director, coordinator of the stadium development fund and six years as executive director of the Bulldog Foundation. Prior to that he held posts at Lawrence University and Montana State University.

At Fresno State he drew up a capital fund campaign to build its 30,000 seat on-campus stadium. He raised cash contributions from $30,000 to more than $500,000 during his term and also launched the "Red Wave" mania that has captured the San Joaquin Valley.

Eilefson is a 1957 graduate of the University of Montana with a degree in Business Marketing Management. He and wife Bev live in Placentia. His children are all graduates of Fresno State University, and make their home in Fresno.

ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

Success in the classroom as well as on the court is the goal of Cal State Fullerton basketball coach George McQuarn and he has responded by establishing an academic enrichment program for his student-athletes.

"While I believe an athlete is responsible for his academic progress, I also believe it is the responsibility of a coach to establish an atmosphere and environment conducive to academic success," said McQuarn.

The program has been accelerated with the recent appointment of Alison Cone as the Athletic Academic Coordinator. She will be assisting the student-athletes in reaching their academic goals by organizing a tutorial program, study halls and advisement sessions. Foundation and developmental classes also will be made available to help perfect basic skills.

Another requirement for athletes will be enrollment in a Speech Communications class. Coach McQuarn believes this effort will help enhance verbal communication skills necessary in the classroom and future career endeavors.

To assist freshmen and transfer student-athletes in making a successful transition to Cal State Fullerton, a college preparation and career orientation course will be offered during their first semester on campus. They receive information on and are encouraged to use the many campus support services which will further assist them in achieving their personal, academic and career goals.

"We are a goal-oriented program and the graduation of our players is an important goal to me," said McQuarn.

George McQuarn enters his fourth season as head basketball coach at Cal State Fullerton riding the crest of a wave of momentum which has seen him turn a barren program into one commanding national attention.

The Titans were the nation's most improved team in 1981-82 with an 18-14 record and they continued that growth through a most memorable 1982-83 season. They set a school record for regular season victories (21-8), posted their best-ever PCAA mark (12-4), earned their first berth in the National Invitation Tournament and defeated the nation's No. 1 ranked and last unbeaten team — Nevada-Las Vegas — before an overflow crowd in Titan Gym, where they were undefeated in 13 games.

McQuarn's accomplishments did not go unnoticed by his peers as he was selected District 15 Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

"We had a tremendous year," said McQuarn, 42. "If someone had told me before the year started what we were about to accomplish, I wouldn't have believed him.

"As we became more successful through the course of the season, I think our expectations got greater and losing our final three games was a disappointing way to finish up. But looking back, we accomplished a lot. Even after we were 8-2 we looked at the remaining schedule and couldn't find 12 more wins.

"We moved up from third to second place in the conference. If Nevada-Las Vegas hadn't come into the PCAA last year, we would have been the champions. We were the only team to beat them, which was a great achievement for our program."

The possibility of winning 39 games in two years was far from McQuarn's mind on March 8, 1980 when he was hired at Fullerton. Two returning part-time players from a 12-15 team and a senior redshirt who had been dropped by a conference rival were the nucleus of his first squad.

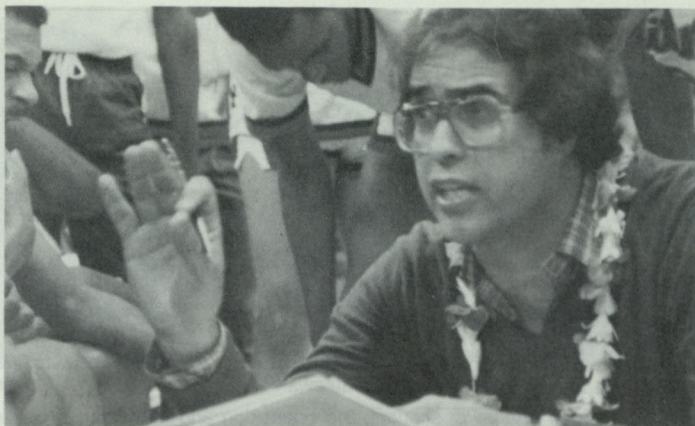

"I think people forget how far the program had dropped," said McQuarn. "We've come a long way and in a hurry, at least a year ahead of my schedule. The real challenge today is to sustain the program at its present level."

McQuarn's standards for his program were shaped in great part by his four successful years as an assistant to Jerry Tarkanian at Nevada-Las Vegas, which was 93-28 (.769) during his tenure. He gained a reputation as a top-notch recruiter and it has been enhanced by his performance at Fullerton.

The gem of his first recruiting crop in 1980 was guard Leon Wood, whom he converted from a shooter into a phenomenal point guard over the course of a redshirt season after his transfer from the University of Arizona.

In 1981, McQuarn signed blue chip freshmen Tony Neal and Gary Davis, junior college sharpshooter Ricky Mixon and Wichita State center Ozell Jones. The following year he landed three top junior college forwards — All-American DeWayne Shepard, All-State Johnny Wilkes and All-Conference Craig Fuller.

This past spring, he corralled the state junior college and the CIF 2A players of the year in guards Darnell Fletcher and Jon Samuelson, respectively.

McQuarn quickly proved himself more than a recruiter during his first year at Fullerton. He molded a young Titan squad into a deliberate unit as opposed to the up-tempo groups of the last two years. This season he hopes to play more aggressively on defense while maintaining the offensive tempo.

While his recruiting and coaching abilities are the more visible of McQuarn's attributes, equally critical to his success at Fullerton have been his attention to discipline and academic success.

"I believe in teaching mental discipline and insisting on total concentration," says McQuarn. "I want my players to play through outside elements they have no control over, including a coach with an aggressive personality. I seek players who are willing to accept this concept."

McQuarn is equally adamant about attention to classroom studies. At UNLV he set up an Academic Support Program and at Fullerton he has established a similar program to assist his players in succeeding academically.

"We are a goal-oriented program and the graduation of our players is an important goal to me," says McQuarn. "While I believe an athlete is responsible for his academic progress, I also believe it is the responsibility of a coach to create an atmosphere and environment conducive to academic success."

McQuarn graduated from Long Beach State in 1966 with a degree in physical education. He earlier had attended UCLA on a baseball scholarship and earned All-West Coast honors as the Bruins' catcher.

A Fresno native, McQuarn graduated from Centennial High School in Compton where he earned All-CIF honors in basketball and baseball before attending Compton College, where he was selected to the JC All-American baseball team.

McQuarn's coaching career began with a phenomenal tenure at Verbum Dei High School in Los Angeles. Between 1969 and 1973 he guided the varsity to four consecutive CIF championships and had an overall record of 123-8 (.939).

David Greenwood, Roy Hamilton, Raymond Lewis, former Titan Keith Anderson and current assistant coach Donny Daniels are some of the Eagles who played for McQuarn.

An appointment as the Recreation Superintendent for the City of Compton lured McQuarn away from Verbum Dei, but he returned to coaching with the UNLV appointment in 1976. The 1977 Rebel team reached the final four of the NCAA Championship Tournament and the 1980 squad gained the semifinals of the NIT with a 23-9 record.

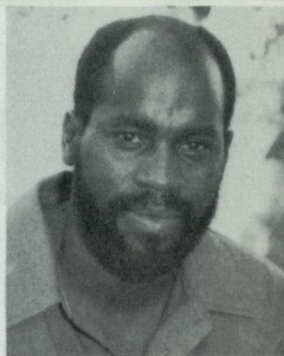

Assistant Coaches

John Sneed

Phil Mathews

Donny Daniels

JOHN SNEED — is in charge of scouting the opposition and coordinating the academic program and services for members of the basketball team. He also has made a major contribution toward the promotion and marketing of Titan basketball, which has more than doubled attendance during his four-year tenure at Fullerton.

Sneed brought experience with winning Division I programs and remarkably successful high school teams to Fullerton when he became a member of head coach George McQuarn's original staff in 1980.

Sneed was an assistant for one year at the University of Arizona, a 21-6 season (1976-77) which took the Wildcats into the NCAA playoffs. During 1977-78 he was an assistant at San Diego State and the 19-8 Aztecs won the PCAA title before being eliminated in the post-season tournament by Cal State Fullerton. He also was at San Diego in 1978-79.

Sneed succeeded McQuarn at Verbum Dei High School in Los Angeles in 1974 and won the CIF 4A title and CIF Coach of the Year honors with a 30-2 record. His Eagles won two more Camino Real League titles with 28-1 and 23-5 seasons and three times he was league coach of the year. His career prep mark was 81-8 (.910) and the 1974 team was recognized as national champion by the National Sport News Service.

A Long Beach State graduate, Sneed served two years as an assistant to McQuarn at Verbum Dei. He is a native of Gastonia, North Carolina.

PHIL MATHEWS — is in charge of recruiting high school and junior college basketball prospects to Cal State Fullerton and coordinates game scheduling. He also assists with scheduling and monitoring classes and tutorial services.

Mathews brought PCAA experience as a player and coach to the Titan staff with his appointment in 1981 after a highly successful high school coaching career.

Mathews played two years at Riverside City College under coach Bill Mulligan and then transferred to UC Irvine and played for coach Tim Tift. He was the third guard as a senior as UCI went 16-14 and participated in the Division II regional playoffs. Mathews was an all-league and all-county selection at North High School in Riverside.

After obtaining a bachelor's degree in social science in 1972, Mathews remained at Irvine as an assistant to Tift and during his five-year tenure the Anteaters were 70-65.

After earning a master's degree in education, Mathews moved to Santa Ana Valley in 1977 where he posted three winning seasons. The Falcons were 12-10, 22-5 and 18-7 and won a pair of Century League titles.

DONNY DANIELS — begins his second year on the staff as a part-time assistant. The former Titan player (1974-76) and assistant to former head coach Bobby Dye also worked one year (1981-82) in a volunteer capacity for head coach George McQuarn.

Daniels played two seasons for McQuarn at Verbum Dei High School before attending Los Angeles Harbor College. He played two years under coach Jim White before transferring to Fullerton, where he was the club's top defensive player in 1975.

SEASON PREVIEW

The Cal State Fullerton basketball program is faced with the formidable challenge in 1983-84 of continuing the pattern of constant, dramatic progress it has achieved during George McQuarn's first three years of coaching.

After logging the greatest improvement of all Division I schools in 1981-82 with an 18-14 record, the Titans last year compiled a 21-8 mark to set a school record for regular-season victories and earn Fullerton its first berth in the National Invitation Tournament. They finished second in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association to Nevada-Las Vegas, which saw its unbeaten season and No. 1 national ranking disappear in a defeat in Titan Gym in late February.

Finding a replacement for sharpshooter Ricky Mixon and getting more point production out of a front line weakened by injuries are the primary goals for McQuarn, who was selected District 15 Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

"We won 39 games the last two seasons with Ricky Mixon and he will be extremely difficult to replace," said McQuarn. "He had a tremendous impact on this program."

"Our physical condition at forward and center also is of great concern. We don't know how much or if DeWayne Shepard can play after knee surgery last spring. And the loss of Craig Fuller to injury on the first day of school is something we aren't prepared to handle. Our depth is non-existent."

Six of last year's top eight regulars return led by All-American point guard Leon Wood, who was selected to play this summer on the United States' team in the Pan American Games. Wood led the Titans in scoring (18.1 ppg) and the nation in assists (11.0) with a collegiate single season record of 319 while earning his second All-PCAA berth.

Six-foot-six juniors Tony Neal, who led the team in rebounding (10.0 rpg), and Gary Davis, who is expected to play more guard than forward this season, are back for their third years in the program. Returning for a second campaign will be centers Ozell Jones (6-11) and forward Johnny Wilkes (6-5) but Shepard is a question mark.

"We really can't count on DeWayne being able to play this year," said McQuarn. "We want that knee to heal completely. He would have made a dramatic difference to our team last year had he been healthy."

With Davis expected to take Mixon's spot at off guard, Wilkes will battle newcomer Rob Otis (6-6) for the small forward position. Otis was an All-Oregon Community College Athletic Association choice from Mt. Hood CC in Gresham. He shot 65.5 per cent from the floor while averaging 17.9 points and 8.8 rebounds in league play on a 21-4 club.

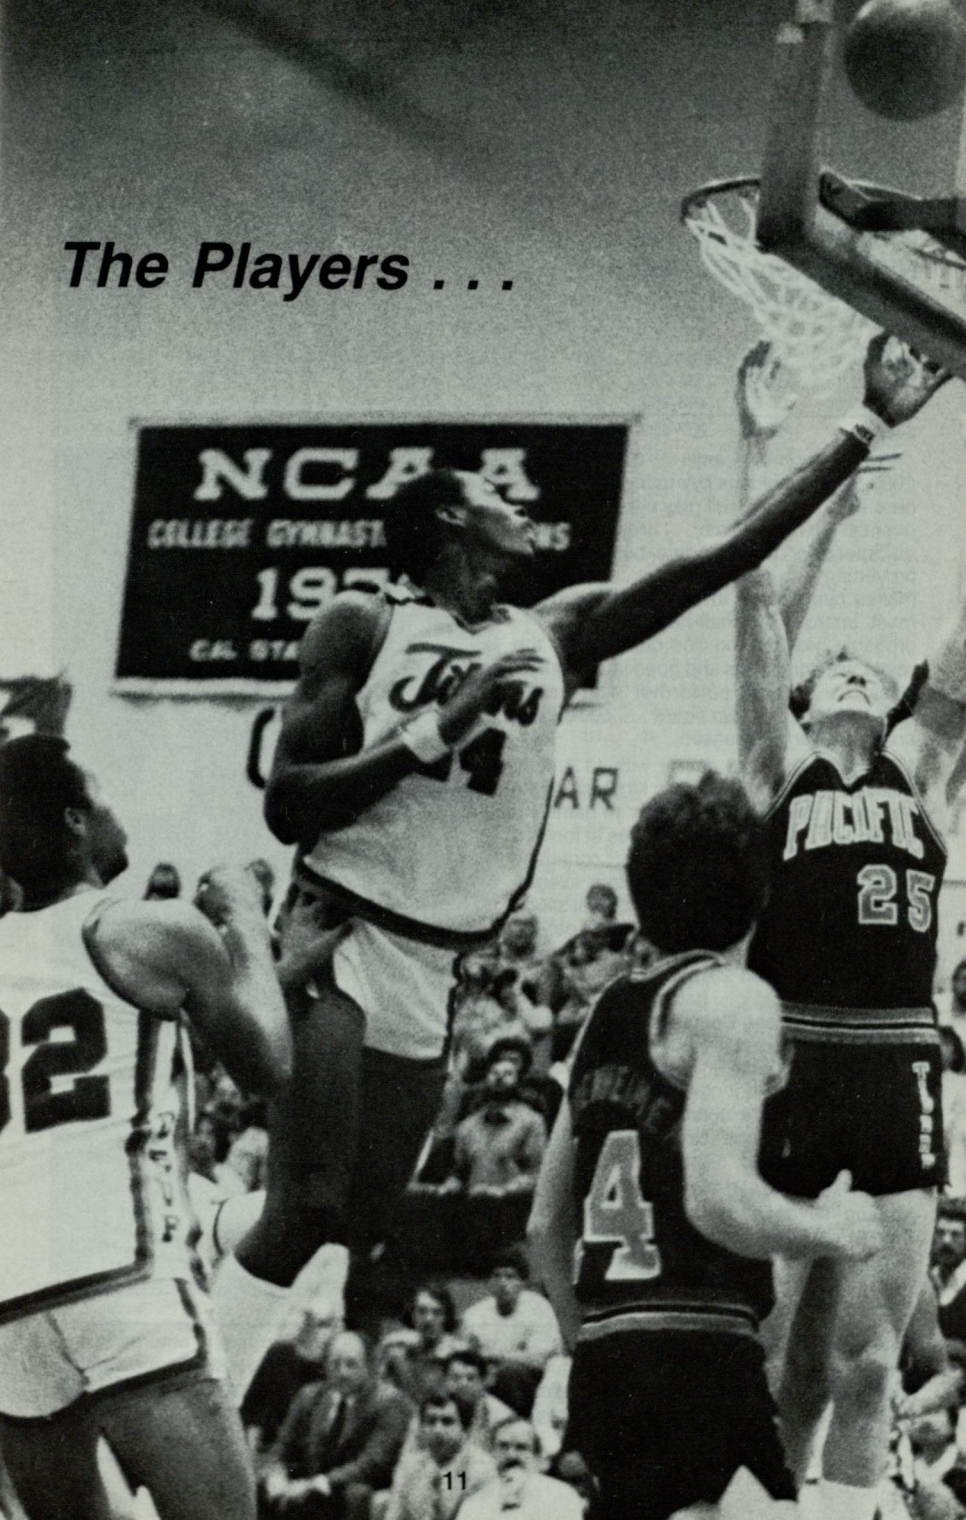

If Davis plays forward, two junior college transfers will be vying for the off guard spot. Darnell Fletcher (6-2) averaged 23.5 points for Pasadena City College last year and was the State JC Player of the Year while Kevin Henderson (6-4) was the top scorer (13.7 ppg) as a freshman at Saddleback College.

Jon Samuelson (6-5) was the CIF 2A Player of the Year as he led Sonora High School to the CIF championship by averaging 16.8 points, 5.6 assists and 9.1 rebounds per game. He is expected to relieve Wood at point guard.

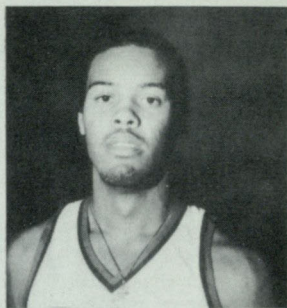

Expected to back up Neal will be transfer Gary Moeller (6-7), who played two seasons at UC Santa Barbara before returning to junior college last year. Oliver Seeley (6-7) is the likely back-up to Jones at center, the position he played at San Fernando High School two years ago.

Fullerton, which has beaten the eventual NIT champion in each of the last two seasons, opens the campaign Nov. 22 by hosting the Australian Olympic team in an exhibition. The Titans begin regular season play Nov. 25 and 27 at the Tip-Off Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii. The Titans play a December tournament in Montana as well and meet strong non-conference foes in Pepperdine, St. Mary's and Arizona.

The performance level of Gary Davis in 1983-84 may hold the key to the Titans' success as a team . . . will play either big guard or small forward or both . . . great range and quickness for the front line but needs improvement in rebounding . . . his height makes him difficult to defend at guard but must improve his ball-handling skills . . . probably best one on one defender on the roster with long arms and good lateral quickness . . . durable performer who hasn't missed a game in two years . . . could blossom into star this season.

LAST YEAR: No. 3 scorer with 11.2 point average . . . selected team's Most Improved Player . . . started at guard first 14 games of season . . . started final 11 games at forward and averaged 13.6 points . . . continued great play against Long Beach State, averaging 14.5 points with 13 of 18 field-goal shooting . . . scored 20 points in first half of career-high 25-point game vs. UC Santa Barbara (March 3) . . . had 23 points vs. Chapman College (Dec. 1) . . . had career-high nine rebounds vs. Long Beach State (Feb. 5) . . . shot 66.7 per cent from free-throw line in PCAA play but only 36 per cent (9 of 25) in other games . . . hounded UNLV's Larry Anderson in Feb. 24 upset of nation's No. 1 team, holding Rebs' No. 2 scorer to nine shots in 39-minute, 8-point effort.

FRESHMAN YEAR: Played all 32 games including seven starting assignments and made PCAA All-Freshman team . . . hit last-second 20-foot jumper to defeat UC Irvine, 62-61 in semi-finals of PCAA Tournament . . . began year at small forward but had more

Coach McQuarn: "Gary continues to improve and we will need for him to emerge in his junior year. He is our best defensive guard and his size causes problems both offensively and defensively in the backcourt. When he moves to forward, we must get more rebounding out of him. If he makes the progress over last year that he made on his freshman season, he will be alright."

Tony Neal has been the Titans' most consistent inside player for the past two seasons despite his under-classman status . . . led team each of past two seasons in rebounding and is devastating at skills often overlooked by the media and fans: defense, picking up loose balls and setting screens . . . plays power forward despite small forward stature . . . long arms . . . plays hard at both ends of the floor . . . tremendous mental discipline and on-court concentration . . . is not distracted by external factors . . . arguably the most indispensable player on the squad . . . underwent arthroscopic surgery on right knee in August.

LAST YEAR: Averaged 10.0 rebounds per game, 10.4 during conference play . . . led team with 62 steals . . . No. 5 scorer at 8.7 points per game . . . with 289 rebounds was only five shy of school single season record . . . chosen team's top defensive player for second consecutive season. . . selected to all-tournament team at Utah Classic with 26 rebounds and 15 points in two games . . . probably his best game was home victory over No. 1-rated Nevada-Las Vegas (Feb. 24) . . . scored season-high 18 points and took game honors with 13 rebounds and four steals . . . followed up with 10 rebounds and 10 points in a win over third-place Utah State to share PCAA Player of the Week honors . . . had 21 rebounds vs Chapman College (Dec. 1) . . . value to team stood out most vividly when he was not at his best . . . suffered knee injury at San Jose State (Jan. 13) and Titans lost . . . didn't start next game at Pacific (Jan. 20) and Titans struggled, 62-56 . . . wore knee brace in loss at Nevada-Las Vegas (Jan. 22) . . . after abandoning brace, Neal led team to nine wins in next 10 games . . . averaged only six rebounds and seven points in final three games of season and Titans lost them all . . .

struggled at free-throw line all season, hitting only 41.6 per cent (37 of 89) . . . missed 13 in a row over six-game span.

FRESHMAN YEAR: Led team in rebounding with 8.5 per game and was No. 3 scorer with 10.9 points per game . . . selected PCAA Freshman of the Year . . . split duty between power forward and center positions . . . had season-high 18 rebounds in 36 minutes of play at Utah State (Feb. 6) . . . scored career-high 24 points vs. Loyola-Marymount (Jan. 9) . . . had brilliant game vs. Spring Arbor College (Dec. 23) when he hit six of nine from the floor and nine of 11 at the line for 21 points and had 14 rebounds and four blocked shots in 33 minutes of play . . . hit game-winning free throws in triple overtime win over UC Irvine (Feb. 25) . . . played all 55 minutes . . . selected team's Defensive Player of the Year . . . led team with 61 steals . . . made All-PCAA Tournament team with 28 points and 30 rebounds.

HIGH SCHOOL: Averaged 25 points and 12 rebounds to lead Santa Ana Valley to the CIF play-offs . . . twice was selected to the 3A All-CIF and All-Orange County teams and was the Century League's Most Valuable Player as a senior . . . was Valley's MVP three times.

PERSONAL: Mother is Carol Neal . . . father is deceased . . . has three brothers.

Coach McQuarn: "Tony 'disappeared' in our last three games and you saw what effect that had on our team. He is indispensable to us. He is a major league, big-time rebounder even though he is barely 6-foot-6. He wants the ball and pursues it, horizontally as well as vertically. We need for him to regain the touch he had at the free-throw line as a freshman."

MOST OFTEN ASKED QUESTIONS OF LEON WOOD

Q.: Why did you pass up the NBA draft last June?

A.: "There really wasn't much of a decision. My mother really wants me to get my degree and I'm real close. And at the time of the draft, my foot was in a cast so my bargaining power would have been low. I also want to play in the Olympics next summer. That's been one of my dreams all along."

Q.: What was your experience at the Pan-Am games like?

A.: "It was different alright. I had to adjust to playing off the ball and without the ball. We had to give it up as soon as we could. The international style of play is quite a change, too."

Q.: Why did you transfer from Arizona?

A.: "From the first day of school there, I just knew it wasn't the place for me. I'd grown up in Santa Monica and there I was out in the middle of the desert. I wanted to leave right away but my mother told me to stick the year out."

Q.: Everyone assumed you were going to UCLA out of high school. What happened?

A.: "They made the coaching change, bringing in Larry Brown, and we thought he might be a little intense. Coach (Larry) Farmer had recruited me real hard and I think he thought I was going there all along."

Q.: Why did you choose Fullerton?

A.: "Coach McQuarn convinced me that I could become a point guard and with my size, that was probably the only way I was going to make it to the NBA. It also was a chance to come back home and help build a program."

Q.: Don't you ever get tired out on the floor?

A.: "Not really. I play two or three games a day in the summer so conditioning isn't a factor. Some guys really bang on me, though, and that can get you down a little."

Q.: How do you feel about all the publicity you have received and being in the media spotlight?

A.: "So far, it's all been pretty positive and I kind of like it. But I try to keep everything in perspective."

With the pre-season injury to Craig Fuller, the play of center Ozell Jones becomes extremely critical to the Titans' success in 1983-84 ... must improve his consistency to carry the load in the middle, where only questionably healthy DeWayne Shepard has experience ... at 6-11 could be a dominant factor in a league with few true pivot players ... great mobility and agility for his size ... played two years in regular's role at Wichita State before transferring to Fullerton.

LAST YEAR: Team's No. 2 rebounder with 7.1 rebounds per game ... No. 4 scorer at 11.0 points per game ... had best field-goal percentage on team at 53.0 per cent (134 of 253) ... started 24 of 29 games ... lost starting role to Fuller in mid-February but regained it for post-season play where he did well ... had eight rebounds and six points vs. Long Beach State in PCAA Tournament (Mar. 10) ... had game-high 13 rebounds and 12 points in NIT game at Arizona State (Mar. 18) ... had big games vs. UNLV's Sidney Green, scoring 16 points with career-high 17 rebounds at UNLV (Jan. 22) and 12 points with eight rebounds in Feb. 24 victory in Ti-

Coach McQuarn: "We need to get more consistency out of Hoppy. He is the type player who needs someone to push him and Craig Fuller filled that role. Now we need for him to mature and take it upon himself to play up to his potential. That's all we ask of him."

tan Gym . . . scored 20 points (all in the second half) vs. Long Beach State (Jan. 8) . . . had career-high 23 points in season opener vs. Northern Arizona (Nov. 27) . . . set school record with 100 fouls.

WICHITA STATE: Averaged 7.0 points and 5.0 rebounds as a freshman and 7.8 points and 7.1 rebounds as a sophomore while starting 39 of 57 games . . . helped lift Shockers' program to national prominence before becoming involved in an eligibility controversy . . . had to win legal appeal to play in Missouri Valley Conference post-season tournament . . . was denied opportunity to play during Shockers' stay in NCAA tournament . . . high point game was 17 vs. Long Beach State (Dec. 2, 1980) and top rebound effort was 15 vs. Iona (Jan. 3, 1981) . . . returned to Wichita with Titans (Dec. 7) and was greeted warmly — before the game, in which he scored 10 points.

HIGH SCHOOL: Won All-City and All-Moore League honors under coach Ron Palmer at Long Beach Poly High School . . . also named All-American.

PERSONAL: Nickname is "Hoppy" . . . nurse named him when he was born in the hospital hallway on the way to the delivery room . . . "I just hopped right out" . . . parents are Ozell Smith and Luladee Jones . . . has three sisters and one older brother (James) who played at Locke High School in Los Angeles.

Oliver Seeley has a golden opportunity to accelerate his development as an inside player of the future in the Titan program . . . family history indicates he will add to 6-7 frame and could make a contribution as early as this season . . . good agility and mobility and has good size to play small forward spot . . . must guard Ozell Jones in practice daily.

LAST YEAR: Saw very limited duty as a freshman, playing only 41 minutes during 13 game appearances . . . played as many as seven minutes only twice, vs. Northern Arizona (Nov. 27) and vs. UC Santa Barbara (March 3) . . . scored season-high four points vs. UC Irvine (Feb. 10) . . . hit 5 of 9 shots from the floor but was 0 for 7 at the free-throw line . . . grabbed two rebounds vs. Niagara (Dec. 29) in Utah Classic.

HIGH SCHOOL: Averaged 12 points and 15 rebounds at San Fernando High School . . . selected to second-team All-City squad and All-San Fernando Valley performer . . . averaged three assists and six blocked shots . . . played center.

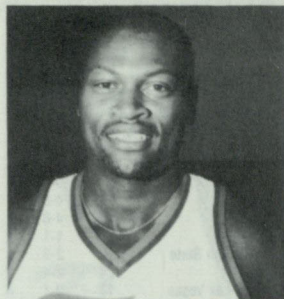

PERSONAL: Parents are Mardell and Sylvester Stovall . . . has five brothers and five sisters . . . 6-foot-9 brother Roger played basketball at Glendale College in Arizona.

Coach McQuarn: "The injury to Craig Fuller and the uncertainty of DeWayne Shepard's status means he will have to make a contribution this year. He played center in high school and had trouble with the adjustment to forward last year but it's likely he will see action at center this year behind Hoppy. He's going to have to work hard and I hope he realizes how important he can be."

The late-season absence of DeWayne Shepard was the difference between a great and a truly remarkable 1982-83 season for the Titans . . . his availability this year will be a major factor in forecasting team's likelihood of success . . . had major knee surgery in March but could be ready to go by PCAA schedule in January . . . probably would have sat out to regain full health if not for injury to Craig Fuller . . . came to Fullerton from Arkansas with stunning credentials . . . JC All-American and main force on a national championship junior college team that was 65-10 during his tenure . . . excellent rebounder and inside player, both offensively and defensively . . . suffered knee injury in spring of 1982 in pick-up game . . . underwent arthroscopic surgery in August of 1982.

LAST YEAR: Fell behind in conditioning and pre-season practice due to late August arthroscopic knee surgery . . . sat out first two games before stunning debut at Loyola-Marymount (Dec. 4) . . . scored 11 points and grabbed seven rebounds in only 17 minutes of action, hitting all five field-goal attempts . . . had 10 rebounds vs. Sacramento State (Dec. 10) but never again scored in double figures . . . led team in field-goal percentage at 64.1 per cent (25 of 39) . . . top rebounder on team in boards per minute played (1 per 3.16 minutes).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Led his WestArk Community College team of Fort Smith, Arkansas to the 1981 national junior college championship with 33-5 record . . . team posted 32-5 record during his sophomore year when he received All-American honors . . . was the Most Valuable Player of the 1981 JC tournament . . . averaged 13.7 points and 7.8 rebounds per game in a disciplined system.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played for coach Ron Taylor at Central High in Helena, Arkansas.

PERSONAL: Parents are Jimmy and Roselee Shepard . . . has seven brothers and seven sisters.

Coach McQuarn: "A healthy DeWayne Shepard would have made us a truly outstanding team last year. We saw what he could do on one leg but that wasn't even close to the player that came out of West Ark Community College. Even if he can play this year, we don't expect a contribution from him until the conference schedule begins in January."

Johnny Wilkes was forced to make the transition from top scorer to a role player for the Titans last year and endured a challenging season . . . will challenge newcomer Rob Otis for starting spot at small forward if Gary Davis moves permanently to big guard position . . . strong yet graceful player . . . plays hard at both ends of the court . . . played freshman season at University of Colorado before returning to southern California for a year at Long Beach City College.

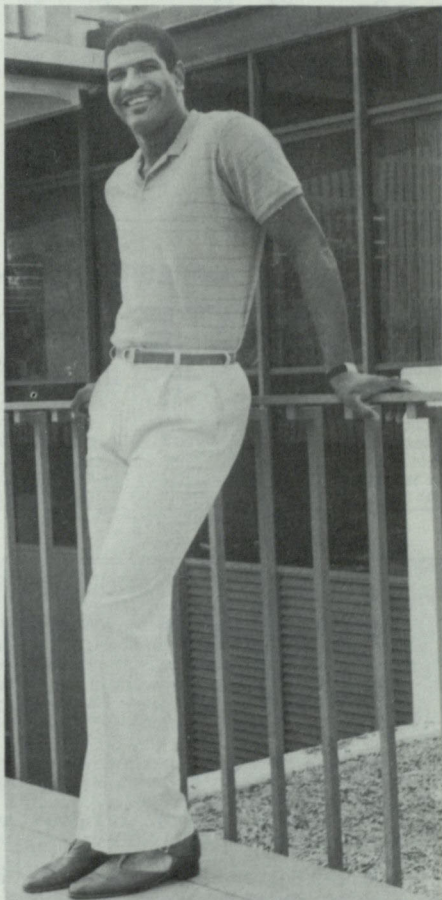

LAST YEAR: Appeared in all but one game and got starting call at small forward six times . . . averaged 15 minutes per appearance . . . took only 75 shots while averaging 3.0 points and had 2.9 rebound average . . . scored season-high 10 points in season opening win over Northern Arizona (Nov. 27) . . . twice had eight points . . . top rebound effort was eight vs. Niagara (Dec. 29) in Utah Classic . . . played season-high 28 minutes vs. Fresno State (Jan. 27) and saw 27 minutes next outing vs. San Jose State (Jan. 29) but didn't play more than 18 minutes in any one game the remainder of the season as Gary Davis moved into starting role with Ricky Mixon starting at guard.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: All-State selection for Long Beach City College, which advanced to the state playoffs . . . All-Conference selection . . . averaged 20 points and 11 rebounds.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played at Dorsey High School in Los Angeles for coach Dave Wood.

PERSONAL: Parents are James and Marie Wilkes . . . has four brothers and two sisters . . . older brother James played at UCLA and with the Chicago Bulls of the N.B.A.

(statistics on pg. 26)

Coach McQuarn: "Johnny had to make the adjustment not only from junior college to major college but from center to small forward and from scorer to role player. It has taken him some time, but I look for him to have an improved senior season. He is a solid player at both ends of the floor but we are going to need more production from him this season."

KNWZ ADDED TO RADIO PACKAGE

A major step in the continued development of the Cal State Fullerton basketball program has been taken with the agreement between radio station KNWZ and packager J.R. Sports Inc. for the Anaheim-based AM station to broadcast the entire 1983-84 Titan schedule.

KNWZ (1190) will serve as the flagship of a two-station network that will again include KWRM (1370 AM) in Corona for the third consecutive year. The KNWZ signal covers all of Orange County and extends as far as Inglewood into Los Angeles County. KWRM serves the Corona-Norco-Riverside area as well as the Pomona Valley.

"I'm really pleased that we will be able to better serve the needs of Cal State Fullerton fans with increased signal coverage," said John Rebenstorf, president of J.R. Sports and the Titans' play-by-play announcer of all sports the past two and a half years.

"It should be an exciting season and with the addition of KNWZ, we can now fully serve all Titan fans in the area. This is the first time Cal State Fullerton athletics have been carried on an Orange County AM station."

Dan Mitchell, president of K-NEWS Inc., signed the agreement on behalf of KNWZ.

"We're really excited about the prospects of all of Orange County and a good portion of the rest of southern California being able to listen to our games," said coach George McQuarn.

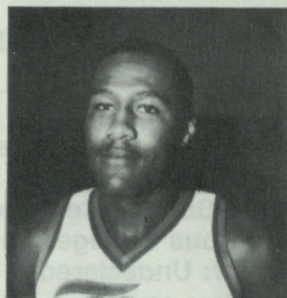

Rebenstorf has been the voice of Titan basketball and football for the past three seasons and has done selected baseball games. A native of Danville, Illinois, Rebenstorf covered high school basketball and minor league baseball before moving west in 1971 to UC Riverside.

He served as sports director of KSOM in Ontario and KBON and KMEN in San Bernardino and has covered numerous events.

Age: 20* Birthdate: 12-15-62
Residence: Pasadena
High School: John Muir
Previous College: Pasadena CC
Major: Physical Education

Darnell Fletcher is the obvious candidate to fill the big shoes left by the graduation of Ricky Mixon . . . prolific outside shooter who led Pasadena City College to a 28-8 record and the California state championship game where the Lancers lost in triple overtime, 66-64, to Cerritos College . . . selected Player of the Year among large college schools . . . averaged 23.5 points per game . . . shot 53 per cent (347 of 653) from the floor and 74 per cent (154 of 207) from the line . . . also had 105 rebounds, 89 assists and 64 steals . . . MVP of the Metropolitan Conference . . . selected MVP of three tournaments: Moorpark, Golden West and Pasadena . . . also made all-tournament team at Palomar . . . scored 30 or more points 15 times with high of 37 . . . had 31 in title game vs. Cerritos . . . was a sixth man as a freshman and averaged 11.2 points for 14-14 club . . . shot 54 per cent (137 of 250) from the floor and 62 per cent (40 of 64) from the line . . . had 62 rebounds, 41 assists and 27 steals.

HIGH SCHOOL: Did not compete in sports junior or senior years . . . averaged 14 points, 5 rebounds and 11 assists as small forward on Muir varsity as a sophomore . . . began season on sophomore team at Pasadena High School . . . MVP of sophomore baseball team and also played freshman football.

PERSONAL: Parents are Ned and Clara Fletcher . . . has eight brothers and sisters . . . enjoys movies.

Coach McQuarn: "A great jump shooter with long range in junior college. Is very competitive and plays much bigger than most players his size. Is working hard at adjusting to the Division I level and should give us good depth at the guard spot. Due to early injuries in conditioning and practice, he fell a little behind, but is working hard to catch up."

Gary Moeller is a very welcome addition to the Titans, particularly after the injury to Craig Fuller . . . expected to help out on the backboards . . . was No. 6 scorer on 1981-82 UC Santa Barbara squad at 4.1 points per game . . . was No. 3 rebounder at 3.1 per game . . . was fourth with 18 steals . . . came on strong late in freshman year . . . averaged 10.7 points over final seven games . . . had 16-point game vs. Utah State and 15-point effort vs. Long Beach State . . . had high of 10 rebounds vs. Grambling . . . scored six points and had four rebounds in 31 minutes of action in two games vs. Fullerton in 1981-82.

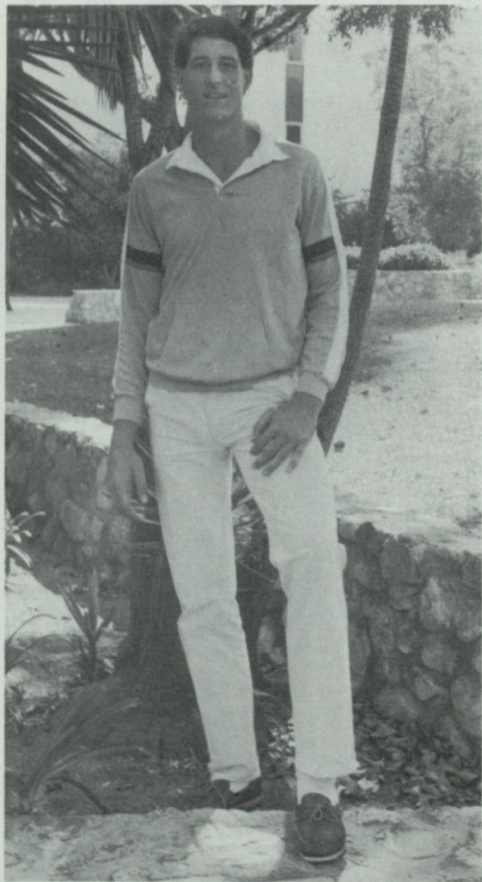

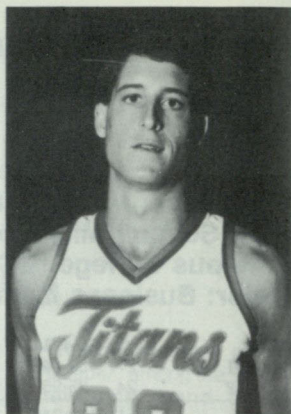

HIGH SCHOOL: Led Mira Costa to a 19-8 record and 11-3 slate in the Ocean League during his senior year . . . averaged 26.5 points and 14.5 rebounds to win league MVP honors . . . made four all-tournament teams . . . first-team All-CIF 3A selection . . . also played baseball . . . as junior averaged 15 points and 9 rebounds to win first-team all-league berth.

PERSONAL: Parents are Lee Hovland and Joe Moeller, former pitcher for the Los Angeles Dodgers . . . has six brothers and sisters . . . born in Torrance . . . has own painting company . . . enjoys music, cars and the beach . . . came to Fullerton "to play for a successful program" . . . attended Harbor and El Camino junior colleges to gain eligibility during redshirt season.

Coach McQuarn: "Gary is a hard worker who is physical and plays aggressively. In the absence of Craig Fuller, he must become a factor on the boards for us. He needs to improve his foot skills to be more effective on the perimeter."

Year: Junior Ht.: 6-6 Wt.: 200
 Age: 21* Birthdate: 1-22-62
 Residence: Gresham, OR
 High School: Barlow
 Previous College: Mt. Hood CC
 Major: Physical Education

Newcomer Rob Otis will likely be battling returnee Johnny Wilkes for the starting small forward spot most of the season . . . a guard in high school who grew taller in junior college and moved to the frontline . . . has good ball-handling skills and strong on perimeter play but still learning to play up front . . . first team and MVP of Oregon Community College Association . . . Most Valuable Player at Mt. Hood CC . . . averaged 18 points and nine rebounds per game . . . shot 70 per cent from the floor and 68 per cent from the free-throw line . . . led team to a 21-5 record last year . . . honorable mention All-American . . . selected to three all-tournament first teams.

HIGH SCHOOL: Three-year varsity letterman at Sam Barlow High School . . . league and team MVP as a senior . . . second-team all-state . . . also team's MVP as a junior . . . pitcher for the varsity baseball team two years . . . played football as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: Parents are James and Diana Otis . . . has six brothers and sisters . . . born in San Mateo, California.

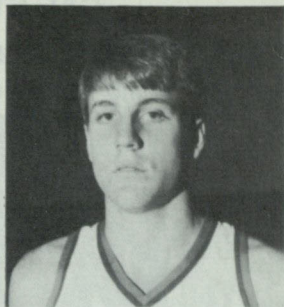

Coach McQuarn: "He has long arms and big hands along with the ability to run the floor well. We're looking for him to give us depth at the forward spot. He has performed well during drills but must learn to carry this over to game situations. He's currently lifting weights to gain strength for improvement in his rebounding and aggressiveness."

Fresno State's 69-60 win over DePaul in the championship game of the National Invitation Tournament capped what undoubtedly was the most successful basketball campaign in the 14-year history of the Pacific Coast Athletic Association.

Coach Boyd Grant's Bulldogs, who finished fourth in the PCAA's regular season standings and second in its post-season tournament, were one of a record four conference teams to participate in either the NIT or NCAA tournaments and their NIT championship was the first-ever post-season tournament title for a PCAA school.

Establishing itself as one of the top collegiate conferences in the nation, the PCAA compiled the seventh best conference win-loss percentage in the nation against outside NCAA Division I competition, according to figures released by the NCAA's statistics bureau. In fact, the conference's final won-loss record of 61-34 (64.2 percent), was more than 10 percentage points higher than any of the other four major conferences west of the Rocky Mountains.

Even more impressive is the PCAA's top four teams' (UN Las Vegas, Cal State Fullerton, Utah State and Fresno State) combined record of 39-9 (81.2 percent) against outside Division I opposition.

Against other conferences on the West Coast, the PCAA compiled the following combined records: Big Sky, 13-7 (65.0%); Pac-10, 4-6 (40.0%); Western Athletic, 8-2 (80.0%); and West Coast Athletic, 17-6 (73.9%) for a total of 42-21 (66.7%). The top four teams had marks of 10-1 against the Big Sky (90.9%), 3-1 against the Pac-10 (75.0%), 6-0 against the WAC (100%), and 6-1 against the WCAC (85.7%) for a remarkable total of 25-3 (89.3%).

The 1982-83 season will also be remembered for a number of other achievements, including the conference's first-ever nationally-ranked No. 1 team — UNLV — which climbed to the top of both the UPI and AP college basketball polls in February after bursting to a 24-0 record.

The PCAA's post-season tournament, held for the first time at the spacious Forum in Inglewood, smashed its all-time attendance record by attracting more than 33,000 customers over its three-day run. The championship game was televised regionally over CBS-TV.

Two PCAA players, UNLV's Sidney Green and Cal State Fullerton's Leon Wood, were honored on numerous post-season All-America teams and UNLV's coach Jerry Tarkanian was named the national Coach-of-the-Year by UPI for leading the Runnin' Rebels to a magnificent 28-3 record.

Utah State's Aggies recorded the largest turnaround in the country, when coach Rod Tueller led them to a 20-9 record after a 4-23 campaign in 1981-82.

The Aggies were one of just four PCA schools, also a conference record, to notch more than 20 wins with UNLV checking in a 28-3, Cal State Fullerton at 21-8 and Fresno State at 25-10.

1984 Post-Season Tournament

March 8-10

The Forum in Inglewood

The tremendous growth of the Pacific Coast Athletic Association in basketball got another boost last year with the shift of the west coast's only post-season tournament to The Forum in Inglewood. A total of 33,000 fans attended the three-day session and the exciting overtime final between Nevada-Las Vegas and Fresno State was carried live on a regional CBS network.

TELEVISION PACKAGE

The Pacific Coast Athletic Association has reached a three-year agreement with Katz Sports, a division of Katz Communication, Inc., for the television syndication rights of the conference's regular season basketball games.

Under the terms of the agreement, Katz Sports will hold the rights to 30-35 PCAA conference games a season, including all games in the conference's post-season tournament, over the next three years and will distribute the games to stations in each of the conference areas.

In addition, the conference and Katz are negotiating the television rights of those same conference games with CBS-TV and NBC-TV and the major cable networks.

As planned, the conference regional network will span five states including California, Nevada, Utah, New Mexico and Texas.

"The PCAA is extremely happy to have come to an agreement with a company the stature of Katz Sports," enthused PCAA commissioner Lewis A. Cryer. "It's one more building block in propelling the PCAA into the upper echelon of NCAA Division I basketball."

The following is a run down of games for the 1984 PCAA/KATZ Basketball Television Network.

NOV. 27, 1982

TITAN GYM

No. Arizona 27 28 - 55
CS Fullerton 56 41 - 97

What would develop into a tremendously successful basketball season got off to an explosive start as the Titans avenged a previous year's loss in Flagstaff to Northern Arizona. The Titans broke out to a 16-3 lead and never were threatened as coach George McQuann was able to go deep on his bench even before halftime. Ozell Jones scored what would be a season-high 23 points and Leon Wood handed out what was to become a typical 12 assists.

TITAN GYM

Chapman College ... 32 43 - 75
CS Fullerton 41 51 - 92

A relatively tiny Chapman College squad, which had taken the Titans into overtime the year before, put up another stern test. The Panthers tried to take advantage of their lack of size by firing up plenty of the experimental three-point field goals but they hit only 1 of 16 (6.3 per cent) while surprisingly outrebounding the larger Titans. Tony Neal did his part for Fullerton, grabbing a career-high 21 rebounds.

GERSTEN PAVILION

CS Fullerton 35 42 - 77
LMU 26 32 - 58

The Titans got their first look at the new Gersten Pavilion at Loyola-Marymount and came away happy with an easy 77-58 victory. DeWayne Shepard made his delayed debut with what would be a season-high 11 points and seven rebounds in only 17 minutes of action. Lions' freshman Keith Smith fired from long range to top all scorers with 19 points while Gary Davis hit 7 of 10 shots toward a Fullerton high of 14 points.

HENRY LEVITT ARENA

CS Fullerton 32 29 - 61
Wichita State 37 45 - 82

Fullerton got its first taste of big-time basketball as the Titans rolled into a throng of 10,215 on a cold night in Wichita, Kansas. The Shockers cheered homecoming Ozell Jones before the game but they ignored him as Wichita State rolled to a deceiving victory. Fullerton got a three-point play from Tony Neal to open the second half and draw the margin to two points before going on a cold spell. The Titans still were down only 50-42 before the Shockers went on a 14-0 spree in a three-minute spurt midway through the second half. The absence of Antoine Carr was overcome by Xavier McDaniel, who scored 27 points and grabbed 18 rebounds.

TITAN GYM

Sacramento State ... 38 37 - 75

CS Fullerton 54 50 - 104

Outmanned Sacramento State got caught on the Wichita rebound as the Titans rolled to what would be their highest point total of the season. The Hornets tried to run with the Titans and the new 30-second clock but hit only three of 14 three-point field-goal attempts. Fullerton enjoyed one of its biggest rebound margins of the year — plus 20.

A disciplined Howard University team declined to use the clock but shot a shivering 38 per cent during a 69-51 Fullerton victory. Ricky Mixon came off the bench firing as he threw up 18 shots in a 20-point performance. Tony Neal scored only three points but had a game-high 11 rebounds, three blocked shots and five steals along with three assists.

LEWIS & CLARK COLLEGE

CS Fullerton 21 34 - 55

Portland 27 27 - 54

Fullerton showed great determination and courage in snatching victory from the grasp of defeat against the University of Portland at Lewis and Clark College. The deliberate Pilots shot 81 per cent to build a 27-21 half-time lead and they were up 52-49 with 2:42 to go. Leon Wood broke loose to score 26 points including the last six of the game and the Titans were off to a 6-1 start despite Portland's 72 per cent game effort.

The Titans survived in the unique surroundings of the Minidome in Pocatello and then managed to beat a crippling Rocky Mountain blizzard home for Christmas. A 7-0 run midway through the second half put the Titans ahead, 41-34, and Leon Wood did his thing to protect the lead down the stretch and win the hearts of the admiring crowd. The Titans enjoyed their best free-throw shooting night of the year at 80 per cent (16 of 20).

Agile man-mountain (6-6, 260-pound) Charles Barkley got most of the pre-game attention but it was center Darrell Lockhart and guard Odell Mosteller who did most of the damage for Auburn University in the opening round of the Utah Classic. The Titans had a frigid hand, shooting what would be next to the season low from the floor — 36 per cent. They had several opportunities to make a second-half run at the Tigers but couldn't get the key hoop.

CIVIC AUDITORIUM

CS Fullerton 36 24 - 60
 San Jose State 37 36 - 73

San Jose's Civic Auditorium proved a jinx again as the Titans stumbled to their first PCAA defeat of the season. Dwayne Warner hit 6 of 7 shots from both the field and the foul line to repeat a similar 1982 performance and pace the Spartans, who ran off a 13-4 spurt late in the game for a commanding 66-57 lead. A pair of three-pointers by former Titan Kevin Bowland sealed Fullerton's fate and the news got worse. Fullerton played without Ricky Mixon, who had undergone minor groin surgery, and would see Tony Neal suffer a knee injury that would require post-season arthroscopic surgery.

CS Fullerton 28 34 - 62
 Pacific 27 29 - 56

With Neal and Mixon ailing, senior John Hall got his first and only start as a Titan and came through with flying colors, scoring 14 points in a hard-fought win at Pacific. The Titans, down 15-7 10 minutes into the game, ran off a 10-1 spurt at the outset of the second half and then relied on Leon Wood's foul shooting (15 of 17) down the stretch. Wood brought Titans followers' hearts to a standstill when he crumpled to the floor in pain after a final-second blocked shot.

CS Fullerton 19 52 - 71
 UNLV 37 39 - 76

After playing a dismal first half before a full house in Las Vegas and a Channel 9 television audience in Los Angeles, the Titans roared back in the second half behind Leon Wood and threw a scare into the unbeaten Rebels. Wood scored all 21 of his points after intermission including 12 in a row in one span. Ricky Mixon, who hadn't even practiced since surgery, came off the bench for a courageous 24 minutes and scored 18 points. DeWayne Shepard gave in to the pain of a damaged knee and played his final game of the year.

TITAN GYM

Fresno State 27 26 - 53
 CS Fullerton 24 32 - 56

Guard Mitch Arnold's last-second shot bounced off the rim and the Titans added two last-second free throws by Gary Davis to snap an eight-game losing streak to the Bulldogs and give George McQuarn his first win over Boyd Grant. Craig Fuller's steal and then a tip-in produced a 54-50 lead with 3:20 to go and Fresno could get only a three-point bucket by Tyrone Bradley. Tony Neal abandoned the knee brace he had worn the past two outings and the Titans began a streak that would see them win nine out of 10 games.

CS Fullerton 41 45 - 86

A long-awaited Rebels-Titans rematch drew a record crowd of 5,015 into steaming Titan Gym along with a live southern California television audience. With Gary Davis shutting down Larry Anderson, Tony Neal playing his finest game of the year and an interior defense swarming around Sidney Green, Fullerton gained national headlines by knocking off the country's No. 1-ranked and last unbeaten team rather handily. A desperation 28-foot bank shot to beat the clock by Leon Wood for three points helped Fullerton erase a five-point halftime deficit with a 17-6 spurt out of the blocks and the Rebels, who had rallied many times during the PCAA race, couldn't catch up this time. An ailing Danny Tarkanian failed to score for the Rebels and had only six assists.

GAME 26

TITAN GYM

UC Santa Barbara ... 28 32 - 60
CS Fullerton 40 41 - 81

What would prove to be Fullerton's last victory of the season was accomplished in methodical fashion over the struggling Gauchos, who stayed in the game only briefly. Gary Davis scored 20 of his career-high 25 points as Fullerton jumped to a 40-28 halftime lead.

GAME 27 MARCH 6, 1983 SELLAND ARENA

CS Fullerton	29	43	72
Fresno State	36	58	94

A year earlier it was Leon Wood having a long day in Selland Arena while Ricky Mixon was firing away for 29 points. This afternoon it was Mixon who got the cold hand, hitting for only six points while Wood went crazy for 33 points including 21 in the second half to earn a rousing ovation from even the boisterous Red Wave as he left the floor. Fresno State could do little wrong as it began building momentum with a new-found running game that would carry them to the championship of the NIT.

GAME 28 PCAA TOURNAMENT MARCH 10, 1983 THE FORUM

Long Beach	34	27	61
CS Fullerton	36	23	59

Fullerton's stay in the PCAA post-season tournament at the Forum was short-lived as Ricky Smith fired up an off-balance, 15-foot bank shot at the buzzer to beat the Titans. Long Beach held the ball for the final three minutes after an apparent Fullerton lead was erased when Ricky Mixon was cited for traveling before a jumper went in and a Leon Wood fast-break pass was intercepted and returned for a 49er two-point-er. Wood accounted for a season low of "only" 22 points with seven assists and eight points. Long Beach used the now-defunct three-point field goal to great advantage, hitting seven of 17 attempts including three critical ones by center Michael Zeno.

GAME 29 NIT — 1st ROUND MARCH 18, 1983 ASU ACTIVITY CENTER, TEMPE, AZ

CS Fullerton	38	45	83
Arizona State	41	46	87

The Titans got the taste of the Long Beach upset out of their mouths and enjoyed their first trip to the NIT despite a narrow loss at Arizona State. Tight officiating in the first half got the Titans into trouble and the Sun Devils went on to a 10-rebound margin to offset the long-range bombing of Leon Wood and Ricky Mixon, who combined for 52 shots and 49 points. Wood totaled 10 assists to establish a collegiate single season record of 319.
