Boycott of California Grapes in S.J.

by John Marek

The United Farm Workers Organizing Committee met with concerned citizens at Our Lady of Guadalupe to coordinate the boycott of California table grapes in major cities throughout the U. S.

In attendance at the meeting were the two daughters of Ceasar Chavez, Marc Poche, Democratic Candidate State Assemblyman 25th Dist., Don Cortese, Candidate for County Supervisor, Dist. 2 and pickets from Delano.

In photo Dr. Jerome Lackner (center seated) gives suggestions to Rev. James Vizzard of Santa Clara University with Don Cortese, Brother Andy (extreme right standing) and other United Farm Workers.

Political Notes:

by Fernando Hernandez

As the boycott of California table wines is achieving a mark of success in cities across the country from New York to Los Angeles, (led by Cesar Chavez) the hierarchy of the Catholic Church issued a statement taking a strong stand in favor of the farmworker. This statement shows an increasing concern and sympathy not only by the Catholic Church but by all Californians in the status of the farmworkers.

In an article in the Los Angeles Times of July 19, 1968, James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, Archbishop of Los Angeles, and Archbishop Joseph T. McGucken of San Francisco, along with other bishops of the state were quoted as saying: "The majority of our nation's farm workers belong to that vast number of poor, forgotten, and neglected Americans. Both government and private agencies have given no more than token response to their cries for help

We feel strongly that genuine, lasting peace will never come to farm management-labor relations until farm workers are included under the National Labor Relations Act."

The Church has obviously been impressed with one of the most serious problems of our time -- the poverty of agricultural workers. It is redundant to say that the farmworkers in California are for the most part Mexican-Americans. For many, a farmworker is a Mexican-American. Yet in one of the heaviest concentrations of Mexican-Americans in the State of California, the 25th Assembly District, the duly elected representative of the people has gone on record against the interests of the farmworker, and for that matter against any but special interests groups.

In an assembly vote taken last week, Earle P. Crandall voted against extending the basic benefits of unemployment compensation to farmworkers. Mr. Crandall's reported reason, to cite the Sun Reporter's Editorial of July 17, 1968, was:

"That too much money was already in the trust funds piled up by other workers, and he feared that these funds would be used to subsidize farmworkers".

This certainly removes any doubt as to our representative's position. The Agricultural Lobby can take pride in its work -- another vote in its vest pocket.

In an election year such a voting record can prove embarrassing to Assemblyman Crandall -- especially in the 25th Assembly District.

Mr. Fernando Hernandez is a 1961 graduate of the University of Santa Clara, where he obtained his B.S.C. degree as well as a Master's in Business Administration (M.B.A.) in 1962. He is also a 1966 graduate of the University of California School of Law at Berkeley and practices law in San Jose where he makes his home.

El Partido Político en México

Por: N. Tlacomitla.

En las preocupaciones constitucionales que agitan el medio-ambiente de México, suena mucho la expresión "partido político". De un modo simplista se utiliza esa etiqueta como esencial para calificar regímenes y sistemas.

Se invoca ese rótulo para la execración o el deseo. Se le considera como fuente política de todos los males y de todos los bienes.

Yo creo que no es para tanta verbalización. Creo que la idea y concepto "partido político", es una pieza deseable o indeseable, de un concepto superior que engloba esa posibilidad positiva o negativa. La democracia es intervención del "demos". Su esencia consiste por lo tanto en algún mecanismo para interesar al "demos" y hacer que se sienta representado. Pero naturalmente las plataformas y "pistas de lanzamiento" desde las cuales el Ciudadano es promocionado a "representación" son un tanto accidental. Lo único seguro es que el "demos" es una simplificación teórica que solo puede realizarse por individuos equipados con una carga representativa.

No es fácilmente una decisión programada y legal la que decide cuales han de ser esas pistas de lanzamiento: Es una realidad social la que se impone. Y esa "realidad social" evolucionada al hilo del mayor o menor número de ciudadanos. Cuando eran en Atenas pocas mas de once mil, los demás eran esclavos o ilotas, la democracia podía ser individualista: porque todos, uno a uno, cabían en el Agora de Atenas, como hoy cupieran en mayor holgura en el estadio de la Universidad Nacional. Cuando la democracia a fines del siglo XVIII, quiso reaparecer, adornada con su imaginaria de escayola-Libertad, Patria- del tipo neoclásico, se pensó en una democracia individualista: La Convención francesa, por ejemplo. Los primeros avatares de la democracia - en su origen clásico o en su reproducción romántica - obedecieron en parte, a una cuestión de sitio. En el Agora de Atenas, en el Senado de Roma en la Asamblea de París, se buscaba, como en los teatros, de procurar "el lleno".

Luego cuando esto empezó a resaltar imposible porque se extendía a demasiados el concepto de "ciudadanía", trató de corregirse el individualismo con la representatividad. El Señor Gil Robles, en su apasionante libro reciente, considera que el partido político, nació por la espontánea necesidad de reconocer el "pluralismo" esencial de la Sociedad moderna, frente al artificio ya imposible de la unidad artificiosa, lograda por una suma indiscriminada de individuos. Robles, hizo al fin y al cabo, del mas coherente tratadista del sistema tradicionalista, pero se resigna a "los partidos" como una consecuencia leal de la pluralidad social inevitable; como un efecto realista de causas ideológicas.

Teóricamente dice: "Los partidos políticos implican esencialmente diversidad y aún oposición de ideas o sentimientos, y resultan contrarios a la unidad y armonía que debiera formar la entraña de la sociedad". Esa unidad no la ha roto la política partidarista, la ha roto la realidad misma, a partir de Lutero.

Lutero es el padre de los pasaportes, de los partidos, de las Aduanas, de todo cuanto es producto inevitable de un "Libre Exámen" político que sigue, naturalmente, al "libre exámen" religioso. No hay que considerar, pues, el "partido político", como bandera revolucionaria, movilizadora contra el órgano natural - familia, municipio, sindicato - convocados por la doctrina tradicional. Todo es esto en la misma línea; todo es reconocimiento orgánico de la orografía social. Todo eso es un modo de dar relieve a la sociedad inevitablemente pluralista. A la misma convención o asamblea de la Francia Revolucionaria, le fue imposible mantener el artificio de la suma de individuos libres; La Montaña, la Gioconda, los Jacobinos corrigieron la suma y empezaron a organizar restos y divisiones que ya esbozaban "el partido político".

Los ingleses son los que lograron mas decorosamente organizar un sistema de partidos. Pero, ya he advertido alguna vez que esto fue así porque, en el fondo, los partidos albergaban substancia social orgánica. El Partido Liberal fue como una gran Cámara de Comercio, el Conservador como una gran Cámara de propiedad. Cuando luego fue la función laboral empezó a tener entidad real y propia, surgió el tercer partido: El laborista, que es como una confederación sindical. Todavía, cuando no basta esta distribución tripartita de la realidad, surgen los "partidos ocasionales" en los cuales frente a un problema específico se agrupan en partido fugáz los que están concretamente interesados en aquel problema: Los médicos o los aseguradores, en este caso.

El éxito del sistema sajón de partidos, deslumbró casi un par de siglos a los sistemas políticos del mundo. Los Estados Unidos, por ejemplo, los constituyen artificiosamente sobre una sociedad muy distinta pero a lo que era poco peligroso aparcarla en esos dos andenes, republicanos o demócratas sobre la base de que todos los demócratas son republicanos. Aún así, todo hubo de reducir la función esencial de los partidos a elegir un autócrata. De cuatro en cuatro años, Estados Unidos fabrica su Julio César a la vista del público. Y aún así, cuando la ocasión llega, se ve perfectamente que el montaje constitucional puritano y sajón, falla en cuanto se presentan tensiones violentas en la sociedad. Porque la verdad de esa sociedad es levemente sajona, en cuanto es tumultosamente italiana, mexicana, negra, portorriqueña, judía, sirio-libanesa, etc. Además de productor, no ya de películas, sino de realidades del Oeste. La fórmula sajona londinense apunta levemente en Washington y la Casa Blanca, el Capitolio, el Pentágono o en la cultura de Boston, pero en el país hay además un Norte y Sur, y hay Dallas, y hay Memphis, y hay Los Angeles, en donde en este momento se están matando, como sucede en Francia y en Italia, y en Estocolmo. La moderación sajona en Estados Unidos es como la industria, una elaboración de vanguardismo colocado de modo tambaleante e insegura sobre una edad media social.

Los Partidos Políticos pueden o no ser apetecibles. Sin embargo, en México, nos traemos una borrachera de partidismos y nos queda la cruda de que aún somos y vivimos en un sistema Monárquico. El partido, aquí, en el Escenario Mexicano, las únicas que no tienen partido son las mujeres feas y todo el mundo piensa ahora en su "partido" porque singularmente se ha venido llevando una campaña de creación de "partidos", como última defensa a lo indefendible; es decir, crear pequeños "partiditos" a quienes se puede delegar la ultrajante misión de engañar al pueblo hambriento de participación ciudadana.

La existencia de un solo partido (PRI) que tenga a su disposición las plumas de escritores venales, puerta abierta a los caudales de la nación y accesibilidad a las armas, hace del sistema de "partiditos" políticos un verdadero teatro en el que se dan maronas y se lanzan carcajadas.

Habiendo sentado las bases para la polémica de la actual situación política de México, en el próximo artículo analizaremos los puntos que siguen:

- (1) Posibilidades del voto popular en las elecciones.
- (2) Alternativa de la Revolución Armada en forma de guerrillas urbanas.

San Jose, Calif. 95110

Estimado Senor Garcia;

Some time ago the President's Inter-agency Committee on Mexican-American Affairs expressed a concern that many Mexican-Americans were not getting the benefits due them under the Social Security Program. They felt that the lack of effective communications between older Mexican-Americans and the Federal Government was the major cause of this problem. The committee proposed that the Social Security Administration undertake a survey to determine the extent to which we are in fact reaching the members of the Mexican-American community.

The San Jose District Office of the Social Security Administration has been selected as one of the survey offices. To conduct our survey, we have recruited through the State of California Youth Opportunity Center and are now training ten young Spanish-speaking Mexican-Americans.

In the very near future, these survey aides will be canvassing the major Mexican-American neighborhoods and completing questionnaires designed to locate individuals who are qualified for Social Security benefits, but who have not previously claimed them and been disallowed, but who are now eligible due to recent changes in the Social Security Act.

Though our survey aides will be working in Mexican-American neighborhoods, they will not restrict their survey to just Mexican-Americans, but will visit all residences in the neighborhood. They will all be carrying letters of identification. Although our survey aides have had some training in Social Security, they are by no means experts and should they get questions outside their competence they will be referred to our district office for an answer.

The project is expected to last eight to ten weeks and it is hoped that the majority of the Mexican-American community can be reached during this period. It is also hoped that this survey may bridge any communications gap existing between the San Jose Social Security Office and the older Mexican-Americans.

In the ten year period from 1958 to 1967 young driver participation in fatal accidents increased more than 20%. In 1950, 27.1% of all the drivers involved in fatal accidents were under 25 years of age. The figure increased to 32.8% in 1967. Considering that the number of licensed drivers under 25 has never exceeded 20% of the total of all licensed drivers, the record of young drivers looks particularly bad. To make their record look worse, young drivers have consistently been involved in a higher percentage of fatal accidents than nonfatal accidents.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Our best wishes for a Happy Birthday to our good friend none other than that popular Hank Coca, proprietor of Furniture Discount House. "Felicidades". Mrs. Feliz Alonzo also celebrated her birthday July 20. I asked her age and she answered, "I'm sweet sixteen".

On July 21, Mrs. Magdalena Ulloa celebrated her day. All her family was present to wish her the best. Our best wishes to her.

The popular singer and Radio Announcer, Carlos Castaneda, also celebrated his birthday in July. Carlos' voice is well known all over. I'd like to wish him the best and may he have more and more success.

And last but not least to my sister in law, Becky Mora who celebrated her birthday July 14. Becky celebrated hers with close friends and relatives. Oops, I almost forgot but, Enrique Flores popular disc jockey of KOFY celebrated his birthday, but guess where?? In Mexico City, Acapulco, Etc. Wow! what a way to spend a birthday. We all miss him and wish him a lot of luck.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S WHAT!

An ex-popular girl was showing low class, by criticizing some now popular girls. The song "No señor no me casare".

I wish a certain guy would wake up and realize his term is up. He used be 'god's gift to women, but not anymore. Remember sweetie, that song "El Malquerido". There is a couple who has been seen painting the town. They finally made it, they had a crush on each other since they were small. Now, both divorced. All I can think is of that song "Un Viejo Amor".

El Guerro is in circulation again. Nice to see him again, his personality tops many. To him I'd like to say "No le Digas a Nadien".

A girl from Texas is ashamed of people from Mexico. Wow, is there a difference in the race?? Maybe the way of thinking. Huh? To her I'd like to dedicate "Que Se Te Quite Ese Orgullo".

Edgar Bravo (KOFY Radio) and his cute wife Terri were wearing identical leather outfits. Man, they looked tough. I'd also like to congratulate Edgar for his program de Titi y Tata. Edgar is taking Enrique Flores' place while Enrique is in Mexico. Jaime Laurel is also helping Edgar, I'd like to say they both have nice programs, keep it up boys. Gloria and Sandra Katib, and yours truly were guests of El Famoso Piporro, y Los tres Ases. From all of the girls, thanks to Piporro. Gloria is a very close friend of Piporro. "Se mandó".

Correction to last column: The Combo at Arturo's is not La Santanera, but "LA SONORA MIGUEL" de Miguel Hermosillo y Miguel Olachea. In three weeks they are introducing a new recording. They will also appear in Hank Coca's T.V. show in a couple of weeks, be on the look-out.

The photo of "Las Coronelas", in the last column was taken at the Milpitas Parade, from all the Coronelas, they'd like to say thank you for the special award. Also, many thanks for all the compliments on this group for the girls that attended the San Felipe Dance, Biggest compliment, was "Que Lindas Coronelas".

A going away party was given to Laura Ulloa who competed with 367 students for a chance to go to school for six weeks in Berlin, Germany. From California only two boys and two girls qualified. Laura misspelled only three words out of 387 (German Spelling). She attends Delmas High School, she plays in the school band, also takes French. Congratulations to her and her family. Her

Invitación a la Colonia Mexicana

La COMISION HONORIFICA MEXICANA, Incorporada de San José, California por medio de la presente invita a todas las organizaciones Mexicanas y a la Colonia Mexicana y México-Americana que tomen parte activa en la gran celebración del 158^{avo} Aniversario de la Independencia de México.

La COMISION HONORIFICA MEXICANA, Incorporada de San José, ha estado haciendo los preparativos necesarios para que este año se celebren dignamente y con mayor lucidez las fiestas. La C.H.M. necesita la completa cooperación de cada Mexicano. Organizaciones y personas que deseen tomar parte con dicha celebración, sea en el gran desfile con un carro alegórico o en el programa musical de la "Semana Mexicana", tengan la bondad de comunicarse con el Sr. Don Amado García, Presidente de la C.H.M. en el número 809 Locust Street, San José, California o al teléfono: 295-8654.

Este año el Mayor Ronald James, alcalde de San José ha proclamado la "Semana MEXICANA" del 8 de Septiembre hasta e incluyendo el 15 de Septiembre de 1968.

La ciudad de San José ha estado cooperando completamente con la C.H.M. y es por esto que deseamos darles las gracias de antemano y esperamos que toda la Colonia Mexicana disfrute estas fiestas y honre a México aquí en esta ciudad de San José, California.

El magno desfile se hará en cinco divisiones, dirigido por el amigo y colaborador de la C.H.M. el distinguido Sr. Paul Baracker.

La conmemoración del "Grito de Independencia" se llevará a cabo la noche del sábado - 14 de Septiembre en el Parque "City Plaza", calles Market y San Antonio; y para cerrar con broche de oro la "Semana Mexicana" el Domingo 15 de Septiembre habrá el desfile y el programa literario musical en el Auditorio Cívico de San José donde se coronará a su Majestad la Reina del 15 de Septiembre de 1968. Por la noche habrá un baile en honor a su Majestad. HAGA PATRIA y únase a la C.H.M. para orgullo de todo Mexicano.

CHRIS HENRY

(Frank E.) is on a two week vacation. His god-child Corina Torres, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Torres is spending a week with him and the family, I bet Barbara is going crazy.

I must close now, Hillard will be our next gossip. And he does a better job than I do. No offense Hillard. Just being friendly.

Chris

Hello Again!

I do hope everyone had a good time over the 4th of July weekend. Ron (the other half), girls and I went camping to Clipper Mill, with his boss J. J. Damron and family. Ron tried his luck at water skiing. His first try up, he went head first in the water. But the second time he got up, even though he was a little wobbly, he did very good. Next day his legs were sore. Talk about sore legs! Have you ever tried walking up the stairs to Plateau 7? Well we did Mr. and Mrs. Frank Espinoza baptised our precious little daughter Andrea Nadine, July 13, 1968, and we decided to go out for dinner. Beverly (Babe) has this thing about elevators, so we walked up. The dinner was excellent. Then after dinner we were so full, we walked all the way down. Babe it was fun, and a day I'll never forget.

Last weekend the Club had their get-together at Al and Gloria Rodriguez' home. It was good to see everybody. Hillard where were you that night? We were expecting you.

The next day after the baseball game we had a barbecue over at Joe and Juanita Padilla's place. Louie and Ruth Cedillo it was great seeing you again. Come more often, O. K.?

I understand Club Riviera lost their game last Sunday to Los Torres by forfeit. The score 10 to 0, in favor of Club Riviera. For shame. But next year boys, it will be our turn.

Mary Ann Hough went to Reno for the weekend. Did you have any luck, Mary?

Delores Payer went to L.A. to attend her brother's wedding. June Bug

SUPPORT YOUR BROTHER THE FARM WORKER

Farm workers should be paid the same as factory workers to compete with inflation. Ads in the papers and radio advertising for farm labor;

- (1) should be advertised at $1.40 minimum.
- (2) should not advertise free transportation without acknowledgement of the strike areas.
- (3) should not advertise false promises. Farm workers are not covered by;
 - (1) Unemployment Insurance.
 - (2) covered only partially by Social Security.
 - (3) minimum wage.
 - (4) sick leave.
 - (5) rest periods.
 - (6) collective bargaining rights.

The mass media be pushed into publicizing to the American Public the plight of the farm worker.

- (1) Send a petition to Congressman B. F. Sisk (D) of Fresno, 2242 Rayburn Building, Washington, D. C.

PETITION: Approval of the HR 4769 Bill which should cover all farm workers by National Labor Relations Act.

- (2) Letter of protest and/or advice sent to the President of Mexico to convince him of the harm done by strike breakers who come and work in the strike areas. This causes damage to labor unions and all farm workers.

- (3) To prohibit any green card workers from Mexico or any other scabs to break the strike lines and prohibit him from working in any areas where there are strikes.

- (4) More public housing be provided in farm areas, better schools and medical facilities be provided for farm workers. (5) Letters be sent to Governor Reagan deploring lack of interest in education, housing conditions, sanitation laws, child labor laws and medical care for farm workers.

Let your grocer know that you won't be buying any grapes until the grape growers sign contracts with Cesar Chavez's United Farm Workers Committee. Your grocer will appreciate it and he won't get stuck with rotten grapes.

El Cónsul Honorario de México en San José, Don Ernesto E. Cota, ha renunciado al puesto de Cónsul con fecha primero de Julio de 1968. Por mas de ocho años el Sr. Cota estuvo al frente del Consulado de México en San José. Comenzó su carrera consular en 1917 y por 51 años representó a México en diferentes lugares de la Unión Americana; su primer cargo fué en Los Angeles, Cal. como Auxiliar del Servicio Consular, posteriormente sirvió como Vicecónsul en San Francisco, Cal. Laredo, Tex. St. Louis, Missouri. Chicago, Illis. New York. Phoenix, Arizona. San Antonio Tex. Brownville, Tex. y finalmente como Cónsul Adscrito en San Francisco, de donde fué nombrado Cónsul Honorario de México en San José, el primero de Marzo de 1960, hasta el primero de Julio de 1968 que presentó su renuncia para dedicarse a sus negocios particulares y al cuidado de su Sra. esposa, la estimable señora Cota ha venido padeciendo ultimamente del corazón.

DON
E. COTA

A pesar de este contratiempo familiar, el Sr. Cota seguirá atendiendo sus asuntos particulares en su domicilio localizado en el 1153 de Culligan Blvd. en

San José, California, Zona Postal 95120 su teléfono es 264-2564.

Durante los ocho años que estuvo a su cargo el Consulado Honorario hizo una labor de acercamiento entre mexicanos, contando con la decidida colaboración de las autoridades del Condado de Santa Clara y especialmente de San José. Puso todo su esfuerzo en fomentar el patriotismo entre los mexicanos, función principalísima de los representantes consulares de México en el extranjero, así como la protección de los intereses de los mexicanos. Su actuación fue patriótica y desinteresada; representando a México con dignidad y sirviendo a los mexicanos con lealtad. Con sus maneras suaves y su apego al protocolo hizo muchas amistades en los lugares en que representó a México.

Esperamos que el sucesor del Sr. Cota en el Consulado Honorario sea una persona con el gran sentimiento patriótico y la moderación que usó el Sr. Cota para limar las asperezas que surgen en ese tipo de actividades.

Afortunadamente Don Ernesto no abandona San José y en esta forma siempre tendremos oportunidad de consultarlo como amigo, en nuestros problemas relacionados con su gran experiencia Consular. Después de 51 años al servicio de México, Don Ernesto renunció al Consulado Honorario, pero tenemos la seguridad que conservará intacto su cariño por México y su gran deseo de servir a los Mexicanos alejados de la Patria.

Mexicanos como Don Ernesto E. Cora, honran a México en cualquier lugar en que se encuentren y en cualquier puesto que desempeñen.

En el Consulado o fuera del Consulado, Don Ernesto es un gladiador en la lucha por el enaltecimiento de México y la dignificación del Mexicano Diremos a la usanza de la antigua Roma "Gladiador, yo te saludo"
