

Michelle,

4-15-97

I really enjoyed your presentation. I'm sorry about your mom, I bet you really loved her. If I'm not wrong I think you read us your stories. I enjoyed them all so much some were sad but yet some were real funny. I liked the one of chicharones, specially the part where your mom told you that if you kept on eating them you were gonna get big fat zits with white stuff on the tips. That was funny and gave me a good laugh. I also enjoyed how you express yourself, real slow and gentle.
I wish you could give me the Chicana Falsa book. I liked your Quinceañera it seemed like fun. I like your stories & poems. Good luck in the future and may you have more success with your book and other work.

Sincerely,
Nieves Martinez
