Dear Jane:

I thought the voters had goofed. Enclosed is the front page of the Daily News that I picked up from the driveway this morning.

The more I think of it, the more I am impressed with your having defeated a man with a name like Kenneth N. Tinklepaugh. His name stuck so far over on the ballot it was like he had been given a head start on everybody else. Moreover, although one can imagine the voter who can't remember a name like Johnson until he gets to the polls, try to imagine a voter who could forget a name like Kenneth N. Tinklepaugh.

Yours truly,

Ben F. Ruffner
