CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FRESNO ASSOCIATION, INC.

The California State University, Fresno Association, Inc. is a non-profit corporation chartered by the State of California to operate the campus bookstore, the campus food services, the college union, and to otherwise promote and assist the educational services of the university. The Board of Directors, composed of faculty, administrators, laymen and students, exerts budgetary control and determines management policies.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FRESNO

All students enrolled at CSUF are members of the Associated Students of California State University, Fresno. It is a non-profit association chartered by the Trustees of the California State University and Colleges to operate student government and other association financed activities. The membership fee, paid at the time of registration, is $10 per semester for all registered students. A non-transferable membership card is issued which permits participation in association activities, elections and admission to all association programs either without charge or at a reduced fee. Association fees support athletic activities; publications; child care center; music, drama and cultural programs; forensics, and student government activities. The Student Senate, composed of students, exerts budgetary control and determines management policy for all association operations, services and activities involving expenditure of association funds.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Membership in the Associated Students entitles the holder to copies of all publications financed by the association. The Daily Collegian is the official news publication. The university literary magazine, Backwash, is available to students at a nominal charge. These publications are under the general control of the Student Senate.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association seeks to advance the welfare of the university, to promote common interests of its students and alumni, and to serve as a liaison with the university, alumni, and the community. The self-directed group sponsors numerous activities during the year, provides scholarship assistance to students, and supports the development of the university. Membership is open to graduates and to any student who has attended one or more semesters at CSU, Fresno. Annual dues are $10; life memberships are $150.

The University Alumni Trust Council is a charitable organization which receives contributions from alumni and friends of the college. Funds received by the Trust Council are used to support scholarships and programs of the Association, and to promote the welfare of the university.
