

were provided for both the issei and nisei groups at the Center. The office secretary for the pastors was Yieko Dakuzaku and John Tamura was the office assistant.

The first Protestant Sunday school meeting was held on May 24, 1942 with about 150 pupils and increased during the Center occupation until it stood nearly 400.

The instructors in the Sunday school program were; Mr. Sugimoto, Fumi Mikami, Mary Mochizuki, Mrs. Kasai, Mrs. Kobayashi, Julia Dakuzaku, Tsuyu Abo, Sumi Sakata, Shige Matsuyama, Fujiye Tahara, June Masuda, Matsu Maowaki, Ioro Asaki, Shizu Dakuzaku, Mitsue Sayegusa, Ernest Takeda, Mr. Koda, Harvey Aki, Seichi Mikami, Mrs. Okamoto, Mrs. A. Tsukamoto, Ted Ono and Beatrice Tamura, ^{the chairman}

For the Christian Youth Fellowship ^{program}, Seichi Mikami was ^{the chairman} and Grace Mano the secretary. The Christian choir was organized and conducted by Mary Kasai and participated in many of the services. Numerous ^{caucasian} churches in the Fresno area provided up to date Sunday school material, the Christian Businessmens Association of Fresno donated a piano and pastors of the Fresno churches were guest preachers on numerous occasions.

Participation in Religious activities played a vibrant, stabilizing and active part in the community life at Fresno Assembly Center.

