Jane Toimach

Oxnard, CA 93030

Dear Jane,

In these days following the election, when the pundits are second-guessing strategies and pollsters are assessing the dimensions of this Republican tidal wave, I remain focused on just one thing: Without you and your generosity, this effort would not have been possible.

Thanks to you, I was able to say things that needed to be said about California and its future, and to put forward a plan and a strategy for doing the things that need to get done. I spoke about California's hope and promise -- and even if voters were in a sour mood, it's a message I still believe. It is, in fact, the reason I ran for Governor.

I will never forget all you did to help me and I hope to have the chance to thank you in person soon.

Sincerely,

KATHLEEN BROWN
