Lulu, I hope you can make it. I would like to use this occasion to also honor Gloria Steinem (she supported me in the organization of the Chicana Caucus and my "labor of love" developing what became the National Women's Employment and Education Model as a demonstration for changes needed in AFDC Welfare Policy). I am communicating with the Women's Center at UCLA to see if they will collaborate on this; I will keep you posted - to see if you want to participate.

Great, Lupe. I have marked my calendar and will share with my NWPC sisters in Texas and with my sister Angie. (cc'd on this email, so you will have her email address again.)
 Take care.

Clare, Lulu:

Note Save-the-Date: Hope you are able to honor me with your presence for Grand Opening of my Archives at UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center - March 12, 2007 - my 78th Birthday and commemoration of the 30th anniversary of the National Women's Conference in Houston, Texas - where I had the honor of reading the "Declaration of American Women" along with Jean Stapleton and Coretta King.

Please share this invite with NWPC members who remember me and Angie Flores (I was not able to find her address).
