

LIBRARY

The Library is housed in a building completed in 1965. Its resources include 385,000 catalogued volumes, 180,000 government publications, 26,000 pamphlets, 46,000 maps, 26,000 pictures and prints, and over 3,900 periodicals are received on subscription. Special collections include the Roy J. Woodward Memorial Library of Californiana and the Archives. The Music Library has over 25,000 phonodiscs and tapes. The library building accommodates 1,142 readers. All students have free access to the resources of the Library. Professional librarians are available to assist students in their use of library materials. The Library is open eighty-three hours a week, during hours posted at the entrance to the building.

