Camarillo Council candidates to visit LV Sept. 15

Leisure Village residents can assess the candidates for Camarillo's City Council when the contenders participate in a pre-election forum on Monday, Sept. 15, at 6:30 p.m. in the AR. The event, sponsored by LV's Current

BE AN INFORMED VOTER

Issues Forum, will feature time for the candidates to present their credentials and platforms followed by questions from the audience. The moderator will be Don Marquardt.

Three of the five council seats are open in the November election. Incumbents Jan McDonald, Michael Morgan and Charlotte Craven are running again. The five challengers for those seats are Daniel LaBrado, Jose Herrera Espinoza, Roy Villa, Matthew Lorimer, and Chris Valenzano.

LVTV will tape Candidates' Night and broadcast it several times before Election Day Nov. 4.

Saving the Peggy Ann

Woodshop member helps LV resident restore precious model sternwheeler

By Patty Ecker

The boat — a model sternwheeler to be precise — is 64 years old and precious.

"My grandfather made it for me when I was born," explains Villager Peggy O'Reilly. "I've moved at least a dozen times in my life, and it always goes with me."

So, when Peggy moved into Leisure Village six years ago, the boat — named the Peggy Ann — dry-docked in her house as usual. But it was showing its age — the rigging was frayed, the wiring tattered, the paint chipped. She knew it was a long shot, but Peggy took her family treasure to the LV Woodshop.

"Any chance someone could save this?" she asked. It was 2009.

"The boat was disintegrating, but I could see what it meant to her," recalls Ted Lansing, longtime Woodshop member. "I took a close look at 50 handmade pulleys the size of peas, rigging made of hemp, a disintegrating 110-volt electrical system for the paddlewheel and tiny lights."

Blind golfer tees up in Village

By Rob Sollett

Don Kanallakan is legally blind and has a seeing eye dog named Trooper. Surprisingly, Don is a golfer with many years of membership in the Leisure Village Men's Golf Association (LVMGA).

No, Trooper is not his caddie in the traditional sense, but he does keep Don from colliding with trees, low-hanging branches and the occasional wayward hand-pulled golf cart. He is a great dog who doesn't chase and chew golf balls as my dog, Lucy did.

Fourteen years ago, Wet Macular Degeneration robbed Don of his sight in his right eye but left him with 10 percent vision in his other eye.

"I can see contrast and movement but no perception of depth," admits Don.

He accurately counts his yardage

The 2014-2015 Bowling League season kicks off today, but it's not too late to join the league. There are 13 teams this year, and a 14th would be more than welcome. Info: See Page 18.

Volunteers are too often overlooked and now the LVTV program "Viva the Village" is changing that. See how on Page 3.

You need more than a Power of Attorney to avoid probate if the co-owner of a home you want to sell is deceased. See Realtors Corner, Page 8.

The Village's annual Pet Parade took place Aug. 23. For some, it was a real howl; for others, it was a purrfectly good time. See Pages 16-17.

'Viva the Village' adds Volunteer of the Month to program

By Patty Ecker

It didn't take John Baillie long after he moved to the Village to realize how valuable volunteers were to the vibrancy of his new home.

"I was amazed at how people were involved in Village life, contributing their time and talents so generously," he recalls.

So, after the moving boxes were emptied, the former radio talk show host walked into the studio of LVTV and volunteered.

That was two years and hours of new television programming ago.

Now, John, the host and co-producer of "Viva the Village," is using our hometown station to encourage other Villagers to share their energy and skills.

John Baillie interviews Mary Jane Porter, the first Volunteer of the Month to be profiled on "Viva the Village."

Each month, LVTV will highlight a Volunteer of the Month.

"We will honor that person whose dedication to Village people and activities makes a real difference," he said.

The first honoree is Mary Jane Porter, who has built Your Neighbors Care Group into a vital center for health information, brought dozens of providers to residents via the health fair and annual flu-shot events, and who also volunteers with the Travel Club and Players Guild.

The Volunteer of the Month will be featured on "Viva the Village" in a one-on-one interview with John Baillie; Mary Jane will star in September.

And that's what John and co-producer Bob O'Connor want: to bring special attention to a deserving Village volunteer in order to honor him or her and to send an important message to all residents.

"We want to increase awareness of how valuable volunteers are," John says.

His personal experience with volunteering helps drive the new LVTV program. For 12 years, John has gone to Los Robles Hospital every Sunday morning. He remembers not being confident about his abilities in the beginning.

"I was wrong. I learned quickly that everyone has a gift to share," he explains.

Which brings him back to LVTV's spotlight on volunteers. John and Bob welcome nominations.

"When we see what one person can contribute, what fun it can be, we learn that when volunteers give of themselves, they get 10 times more back," John says, hopeful that new attention to those who give will inspire others to do the same.

Shop Ahoy needs you

Shop Ahoy is a shopping and delivery service for homebound seniors and disabled adults. It also serves those people who no longer drive, have difficulty maneuvering through Vons or are unable to carry heavy items.

Shop Ahoy is a volunteer-based nonprofit organization servicing Ventura County. A volunteer will call the customer on Sunday or Monday of each week to take their grocery order. Another volunteer shops on Tuesdays at the local Vons, and the order is delivered and paid for, along with a small contribution to help the system stay in operation.

Shop Ahoy is also in need of volunteers — people who have a sharp eye and would be willing to check orders shopped. This would be at Vons on Mission Oaks on Tuesdays at 8:30 or 9 a.m. for about one hour.

If you are in need of Shop Ahoy's services or are interested in volunteering, call Barbara Yago, Village 34, at 388-0419.

REALTORS CORNER

Living Trust a consideration for Leisure Village homeowners

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate

Most homeowners in Leisure Village have a Living Trust, and when they go to sell the property, even if one of the owners is deceased, the Trust clearly states who has the right to sell the property.

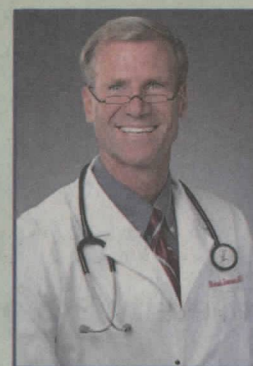

Please keep in mind that a Power of Attorney does not give the power to sell a home, as a Power of Attorney can only be effective for a person. A Trust is not a person; therefore, the Power of Attorney can only sell a home if the Trust states that the Power of Attorney can take this action.

I am currently working with a seller who refinanced his home in 2003. The lender required that the owner take the property out of the Trust with the intention of recording the house back into the Trust once the refinance was completed. In the meantime, the wife died, and the owner has decided to sell the house. Once the escrow was opened, while doing the title search, the title company reported that the house is not in the Trust and there is no other vesting. The owner has had to hire an attorney.

In this particular homeowner's case, this will have to go to probate. There's no way of knowing how long this will take, or if the buyer will be willing to wait until this all gets resolved.

Congressional candidates will square off at LV on Oct. 10

The hotly contested race for the 26th Congressional District seat is coming to Leisure Village. Incumbent Julia Brownley and challenger Jeff Gorell will face off on Friday, Oct. 10, at 7 p.m. in the AR. Less than a month before the November election, the two candidates will present their respective positions and then answer questions from the audience. The event was organized by LV's Current Issues Forum; it will be moderated by Jay Balter.

Brownley, a Democrat, is the incumbent, first elected to Congress in 2013. She is the ranking member of the House Veterans Affairs Subcommittee on Health. Prior to going to Washington, Brownley served in the California Assembly from 2006 to 2012.

Republican Jeff Gorell currently serves in the California Assembly; he was first elected in 2010 and currently serves as the vice chair of the Budget Committee. He is a commander in the Naval Reserve following two tours in Afghanistan. Gorell also teaches public policy at Cal Lutheran University.

Model ship proves irresistible

He says Peggy's grandfather did "an exquisite job," and Ted set out to bring it back to life.

It must be said that woodshop regular Ted Lansing also has been the LV Treasurer and Board Member for six of the past seven years. He's active in the Camarillo Emergency Radio Association and leads a monthly class in the Village called LV 101. However, the Peggy Ann grabbed him.

"I was in the Navy for nearly eight years. I've always loved boats," he explains. "Plus, I wanted to meet the challenge of excellence that Peggy's grandfather set."

Her grandfather was "in the Coast Guard and loved to sail as a young man," says Peggy.

She didn't want to lose her precious boat. Before she moved to Leisure Village, she asked others for repair.

"No one else would fix it," she recalls.

She expected that the Woodshop was another long shot.

Peggy O'Reilly didn't know Ted Lansing. After a couple of months of working on it in the Woodshop, he moved the Peggy Ann to his garage. He "pawed through the Internet for two years," looking for compatible components. He carefully changed the dangerous 110-volt electrical — it was a sewing machine motor — to a safer 12-volt. He found hemp at Michael's art store and recreated the rigging. He matched old paint at Home Depot.

In all, Ted estimates he spent 200 hours rebuilding the Peggy Ann. He admits his wife grumbled occasionally about the time and the space he and it occupied in their garage.

In late July 2014, Peggy O'Reilly heard a knock at the door.

"Your boat's done!" said Ted.

"It brought tears to my eyes," says Peggy. "His dedication, the kind of work he did! There's no way to thank him for what he did."

Peggy describes her move to Leisure Village six years ago as "the best decision I ever made in my life." And that was before the re-creation of the Peggy Ann.

"This is not about me or even the boat," she says. "It's about Ted and people like him in the Village."

Did you know that ...

Mariana Senko, V. 7, moved to Leisure Village because of a piece of luggage? To learn the reason, you'll have to ask Mariana.

Lee Edwards, V. 31, worked for Holly Tex Carpet Mills that installed all the carpets for the new development, Leisure Village? Her boss told her she should move there as she was the right yenta for Leisure Village.

Arlene Liss, V. 5, as a newlywed, made a spaghetti recipe that called for a clove of garlic? Not knowing the difference, she used a whole bulb of garlic. Guess what? They ate the whole thing!

Jo Toboco, V. 30, was a Pan-Am stewardess who did publicity photos in Hawaii with Burt Lancaster for the film "From Here to Eternity?"

Isabel Blau, V. 5, played cello from the seventh through the 12th grades, including a concert with her senior orchestra?

Marilyn Foraker, V. 30, performed adult roles in Childrens Theater in Orange County for nine years?

Don Seidler, V. 38, came to Leisure Village after being a pilot, a pharmaceutical rep, a retired educator after 38 years, and a flooring contractor for 47 years?

with his footsteps. He uses a golf club placed on the ground by a fellow player as an alignment aid for his tee and fairway shots. For putting, he is guided by a fellow player for proper alignment.

"I began to lose my sight in 2000," recalls Don. "At first I stopped all activity until I got Kojak, my first seeing-eye dog. He got me off the couch."

Don soon returned to golf and practiced his swing by going to a range in Simi Valley where he hit a bucket of golf balls almost every day.

Now he plays at the LV Course on Tournament Tuesday as well as meeting fellow retired firefighters at local golf courses other days.

LVMGA members Mike McClary, who played with Don on a recent Tuesday, said: "He's twice the golfer I am."

Joe Miller reflects: "It's amazing how he plays. He's got the neatest dog, too."

This reporter recently walked several holes on the back nine with Don. I observed dedicated cooperation from golfers within the group, which resulted in two pars and one birdie. He skillfully hit the ball onto the green in one stroke for three consecutive holes. (For you non-golfers: This is damn good.)

At the completion of the nine-hole competition,

Don won the Low Net Award for the July 29 Tuesday Tournament. (Yep, he also wins money.) Don Kanallakan is a truly remarkable golfer with amazing skill.

Not to mention a couple of bucks richer.

Woodshop

By Chuck Russell

The Woodshop committee oversees the shop maintenance, assures residents with woodworking experience know-how to use the equipment safely and, with occasional help from a few members, volunteers expertise and time to repair items for residents and do projects for the Village.

Usually, the requests are for the repair of broken chairs or other family treasures, as has been illustrated in past issues of ILV. Occasionally the requests are for a custom item, as illustrated in the story about the mat display frame shown in the last issue of ILV. Or, as illustrated in the story of the Peggy Ann in this issue, the projects can be quite unique and complex.

Leisure Village residents are welcome to bring items for repair or ideas for items to make to the Woodshop in the Recreation Center Tuesday and Wednesday mornings between 10 a.m. and noon. There is no guarantee that all damaged items can be fixed, only that the volunteers will try to restore them to the best of their ability. There is no charge for this service, but donations are accepted for materials and supplies.

For more information, contact Chuck Russell at 805-383-3043.

Saturday Nite Dance Party

By Andrea I. Moran

Hi, neighbors! The AR is finished with new carpeting and wall décor. We still have plenty of room for dancing and an all-around good time. You are missing a great evening of music and fun if you're not attending.

*Here's the schedule for this month: Sept. 6, Rhythm Kings; Sept. 13, Ed Lafata; Sept. 20, Tropic Starr (Hawaiian Nite); and Sept. 27, Dick Parent.

We thank all of the regulars and guests who make this dance one of the best activities at LV. Fresh popcorn and punch are provided for a $7 per person admission. It's from 7:30 to 10 p.m. every Saturday Nite in the AR.

Keep smiling; the feet will be happy too.

Men's Golf

Greetings, chasers of the white sphere.

Dave Stillman achieved his initial LV hole-in-one on No. 17 during the July 15 Tuesday Tourney. Way to go, Dave!

Ray Nakata scored his ace on No. 13 during the Aug. 5 Tournament — his third of the year, a hat trick!

The Harvest Picnic and Mixed Tournament is a happening not to be missed. So get your tickets and polish up your clubs for the event. Check the bulletin board for exact dates and times.

Well, we're kinda short this month — oh, sorry Carl.

Showtyme

By Jennifer Stein

Showtyme presents "American Blue Grass Music," produced by Paul Schifanelli. The Ventucky String Band will be performing on Friday, Sept. 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the AR.

Like a jukebox of old 78 records, The Ventucky String Band is reminiscent of a time when Texas swing still dominated the AM radio airwaves and bluegrass music was as novel as the arrival of television. This highly skilled multi-instrumental group blends their musical experience, all seamlessly woven together with original songwriting that draws inspiration from American roots music. Members of the band have played professionally for over 30 years, with individual appearances at the Grand Ole Opry.

Doors open at 6:45 p.m. For members, there's no charge. For non-members, there's a $3 minimum donation. Please bring your 2014 membership card.

Thank you for your continued support of Showtyme.

The next Big Show will be Sunday, Oct. 19, at 2 p.m., when Showtyme and producer Diane Carroll bring "The Mighty Cash Cats," an internationally renowned group that conveys the musical spirit of Johnny Cash, to the Leisure Village stage. Tickets will be on sale at the Box Office in the AR Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9 to 11 a.m., Sept. 9, 10 and 11. For Showtyme members it's $10, for non-members it's $13. Purchase your reserved seats now. See you there!

We thank the new volunteers who answered our appeal at the last meeting. As was said at the August meeting, our club can't endure with the same people doing all the work over many years. After awhile we all get tired, and the longer we are at it, the more life works on us. Thank you again. Hopefully there are others who will come forward. People often say, "I'm not from New York so I didn't think I could join." While there are New Yorkers who don't know there is much of the U.S. west of the Hudson River, if you know that New York City is east of the Hudson River, you qualify to join the New York Club — and we welcome you.

Even though we are still waiting for the "Big One" here in Southern California, this ham radio system has proven itself during the weather disasters in the Midwest and East Coast.

VILLAGE HAPPENINGS

44 dogs (and 2 cats) strut their stuff at Pet Parade

We can't resist the cliché: The Village went to the dogs (mostly) on Aug. 23. Nearly 200 people strolled, cheered, laughed and applauded as 44 dogs and two cats showed off their best competitive styles for the 2014 Pet Parade and Dog Show.

The event — held every two years — is sponsored by LV's Pet Club as a way to honor and enjoy the furry and fuzzy best friends.

It seemed to be as much fun for the pets as it was for their human pals. Almost no barking or growling was heard; lots of petting and snuggles from friends and strangers were tolerated. And all eyes and paws were pointed in the direction of the centerpiece of the event: the competition for 14 prizes including Best in Show and the People's Choice Awards.

The three judges took voluminous notes and whispered together as the 46 registered entrants paraded past them. Narrated by Villager John Mayer, the contest was looking for excellence in behavior, personality, and, in some cases, costume. The judges, dog trainer and Villager Rick Spindel, Dr. Beatrice Battier, DVM, and Deena Case-Pall, Ph.D., evaluated as residents and their pets walked by — twice. While every owner probably went home from the show certain that his or her pet was the Best in the World, three Village owners officially came out on the very top. The judges awarded the Best of Show to Willie, a 16-year-old cat owned by Marianne McInerney; Best Dog Blue Ribbon to Jessie, a 10-year-old Sheltie owned by Debbie and Richard Woodard; and the People's Choice Award went to Kenzie, a 5-year-old Wheaton Scottie owned by Janet and Alan Kaplan.

It's likely that every pet owner has a story that can tug at your heart. Nearly all the entrants were rescues — pets in shelters available for adoption. Dennis Potter rescued his greyhound Penny from a dog-racing track in Colorado after it was decided she was too old to run anymore. Chihuahuas Roxy and Chico, rescued separately by neighbors Stacy Matter and Maria LaMair, are now best friends who walk together every day and were dressed in matching garb for the Pet Parade.

Pet Club President Barbara Krohta, who estimates at least 350 pets live in Leisure Village, gave special thanks to Mary Ann Robnet who chaired the Parade and to everyone — two- or four-legged — who contributed to the event that is the Pet Club's major fundraiser of the year.

September will be an original musical play featuring great familiar songs from legendary composers. "All About Broadway" is a story-driven production with songs from Rodgers & Hammerstein, Irving Berlin, Lerner & Loewe and others. And it will star some performers who are not known for their musical talents (you'll be surprised!) and one who will be returning to the stage after retiring a few years ago. So get ready, mark the date, Thursday, Sept. 18, 7:30 p.m. in the AR. And we don't need to remind you of the refreshments following the show, even though we just did.

Loney will host our third annual "Fashion Show (Thrift Store Style)". All the men and women models will be wearing great outfits costing $20 or less purchased from a local Thrift Store. Our emcee will provide details on each outfit while the models walk the runway through the audience. This is a very popular event so purchase your tickets early for $7 per person from the Box Office in the Rec Center Lobby on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings from 9 to 11 a.m. or by calling Sharon Loney.

We hope everyone will come to enjoy the fashions and join their friends for cake and champagne following the show. Wine, soda, coffee, tea and water will be available and, as always, you may BYOB. You won't want to miss this very entertaining show, so come join in all the fun!

If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to call Sharon Loney at 419-4853.

Pet Club

By Barbara Krohta

At our August social, members made new friends, shared pet pictures and munched on wraps, fruit, cheese and homemade cookies. We enjoyed a video of a dog club drill team with exceptionally well-behaved dogs (and owners).

Keep those coyote sighting reports coming in to LVPetClub@gmail.com. We're hearing about coyotes at all times of the day now, even sleeping off lunch next to a patio wall at noon with a small dog barking on the other side!

Terry Connor, one of our members, said, "If I were a coyote living in Leisure Village and died and went to heaven, I would ask God if I could please go back and spend six more months in Leisure Village." Spokespersons from the Division of Fish & Wildlife will be at our October meeting to help us co-exist with them.

The Sept. 8 meeting will feature Dr. Kendra Decile of The Cat Doctor, a full-service cat hospital. Dr. Decile specializes in geriatric cats.

All Villagers are welcome to enjoy the speakers and refreshments!

The Mirror

I look in the mirror
And what do I see?
A strange looking person
That cannot be me.

For I am much younger
And not nearly so fat
As that face in the mirror
I am looking at.

Oh, where are the mirrors
That I used to know
Like the ones which were Made 30 years ago?

Now all things have changed
And I'm sure you'll agree
Mirrors are not as good
As they used to be.

Springtime

By Anne Prowizor, V. 31

The sun is warm, the breezes mild,
My world is like a newborn child.
Springtime has come around again
As if by magical legerdemain.

Unlike Winter's somber fare,
Spring's joyous sights are everywhere.
Black crows feast in a nearby field
Cawing with glee at its ample yield.
Birds warble their sweet serenade
And preen or strut as if on parade.
The ducks in ponds swim with their mate,
And loudly quack to celebrate.
Budding flowers, pink cherry trees
Perfume the air, invite the bees.
Forever I would keep the day
Even though it must go away.
Yet Spring and I will never part;
I'll keep it always in my heart.
