

Abland Dad

Dear Aeng -

Dad was very glad to receive your letter and much pleased at the same time to receive one from Mrs Aiken. I think she is very kind to want you to stay longer. if you want to stay and she really wants you to - you may stay another week if so convenient and you want to. I am very thankful she writes so favorably of you. we miss you very much - Tomorrow we expect Emma to return at nine in the evening she might be here about half past eight or nine o'clock is she is not killed - your Grandma is very weak and not able to go down stairs. Emma and Pam's rooms have been cleared and watercolored in a sort of buff color. They look very nicely. There were only about thirty present at 9,30 when I School opened this morning they straggled in until about an hundred were there when it closed.

Sam would not go. The organist played the piano. Mrs Hoyt is away.
If Mr Charles Cicken says his Ma will allow friecrackers, I will send you up some. If not. I will send you some clean shirts and candy. It is cold and foggy here. The cats are well. Sam has not returned. Sam is feeling to go away I don't know wheather his father will be able to take him away for the 4th or not. Will write you Sam will try to see Mr Cicken in San Francisco. Tomorrow and ask him about the friecrackers. We all send you our loving remembrances Your loving Mamma.
