IN MEMORY OF

NEVA DUNCAN

"That they may have

Eyes to see

Ears to hear

Minds to understand

And hearts to appreciate."

(Neva's motto through her many years of service for the Las Lomitas School District. Menlo Park and ~~At~~herton, California)

"He has achieved success,
Who has lived well, laughed often and loved much
Who has gained the respect of intelligent men
And the love of little children;
Who has seen the best in others and given the best he had,
Who never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty,
Whose life was an inspiration,
Whose memory a benediction."

Read by Verse Speaking Choir at Dedication Service for Neva Duncan Memorial Court at La Entrada School, Menlo Park, California, May 6, 1965. Dedication of amphitheatre, garden plot and bronze plaque.

Neva Duncan,

A woman who, when asked to serve, served willingly --

A woman who volunteered and committed herself far beyond that which was expected --

(girls) A woman whose energy and enthusiasm were immense, and who directed them for the good of many --

(boys) A woman who strove to bring much beauty to every situation, and to all with whom she worked ---

(girls) A woman who agreed with the poet Keats, that "beauty is truth, truth beauty" --

(boys) A woman who, though she had no children of her own, aimed her life toward helping children --toward their understanding and appreciation, of all that is worthwhile --

(boys) A woman whose memory is sincerely cherished by those who knew her --- remembering her special talents for living --

An altogether beautiful life was Neva Duncan's!

(FROM THE GREAT TRANSGRESSION by Scruggs -- two voices only)

There is no greater evil than this deed:

To shut forever from the mind and heart

The beauty of the world

ANONYMOUS

Look not for beauty nor whiteness of skin,

But look for the heart that is loyal within.

Beauty may fade and skin grow old,

But the heart that is loyal will never grow cold.
