

Digital Training Offered to Local Students

- WHO: Local junior high and high school students
- WHEN: Session 1, Monday, July 31 - Thursday, Aug. 3, 10 a.m. - noon
Session 2, Monday, August 7 - Thursday, August 10, 10 a.m. - noon
- WHERE: California State University Channel Islands campus, Bell Tower Room 1352
- WHAT: At the above place and time, the University will host the Teen Summer Workshops, two four-day sessions on digital workshops for local junior high and high school students, free and open to the public and sponsored by the CSUCI Library and the Oxnard Public Library. Working closely with CSUCI Library media staff, participants will learn to design and produce their own Web sites, posters and movie-clip previews of a popular Hollywood creature film. Emphasis will be on learning the latest techniques in digital media, including digital photography, video editing, and Web site design.
- Session 1 has been filled but students may still register for Session 2. Contact Judy Swanson, CSUCI head of Digital Services, at 805-437-8924, or Kristina Wroten, librarian, Oxnard Public Library, at 805-385-7510.
