Applications should be submitted to the Professor of Aerospace Studies during the fall semester one year prior to anticipated enrollment in AFROTC. Detailed information concerning AFROTC can be obtained by calling the Department of Aerospace Studies (294-2593) or by visiting the Air Science Wing of the Men's Gym, Room 158.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS

A number of graduate assistantships and teaching assistantships are available to students who are enrolled in the master's degree program and whose previous records show outstanding achievement in academic work, outstanding subject matter competence in the major field, and the special qualities necessary to the duties assigned. A beginning graduate assistant may receive a stipend of up to $5,140 for twenty hours per week of work during the academic year. Some assistantships may be for reduced time and carry prorated stipends. For information write to the Dean, Division of Graduate Studies and Research or your department chairman, specifying field of graduate study and any special abilities that might justify assignment as a graduate assistant.

RESIDENT ADVISORS

The university employs a number of students as advisors in its residence hall program. These positions are available to students whose interest and background indicate competence in this type of work. The stipends vary, depending upon the work assignment. Generally they cover the cost of residence hall room and board. Applications and further information are available at the beginning of the spring semester from the Director of Housing.

PELL

The Pell Grant Program, formerly known as Basic Educational Opportunity Grant Program (Basic Grants), is a program of student financial aid which was authorized by Title IV, Part A, of the Education Amendments of 1972. This program provides grants for all eligible students to assist them in meeting educational costs. Program regulations change from year to year. Check with the Financial Aids Office for the regulations now in effect. Students may apply by filling out the Student Aid Application for California or the Application for Federal Student Aid. Forms are available at high schools, community colleges and CSUF Financial Aids Office.

BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS (BIA) GRANTS

If you are at least one-fourth American Indian, Eskimo, or Aleut, as recognized by a tribal group served by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, you may apply for a BIA grant. The amount is based on financial need and availability of funds from your area agency. You must first submit an application for financial aid and supportive documents by the deadlines. Obtain an application from your area agency, then make an appointment with a Financial Aids counselor to complete the BIA application.

CALIFORNIA STATE EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY GRANT PROGRAM (State EOP)
