Business:

1. Report from Academic Advising Subcommittee (TC 10:30)

Jamie Zamjahn, Vanessa Bascherini

Overview and presentation of Advising/Advising Matrix Model (materials attached)

Discussion about advising needs on campus. Differentiating general academic and major advising. Providing advisors who can support additional needs. Allowing academic advising to focus on major. Hope to move plan forward to SAC for review. Hope to move it forward for approval so that it can be in place for Fall 2019

- Ron Lopez: Discussion of experience as an advisor.
- Karen Moranski: Discussion of strategies including advising holds as a way to encourage students to start the process. Other tools include LOBO Connect campaigns.
- EAB Student Success navigation- Phase two implementation includes expanding beyond student advising.
- Hilary Smith: What is a campaign? Allows to target group of students, set goals for the group, do outreach in a variety of ways. Allows granular analysis of what methods work.
- David Horowitz: Question about graduating seniors and plans to improve AAR reports as a resource.
- Jamie: SA looking at different tools to help ensure students are prepared for graduation.
- Discussion of how Lobo Connect works. Currently only undergrad but will be rolled out to grads in next phase.

(Out 11:20)

2. SAC Charge Review Structure and Functions Update

Breana Archie: Breana brought charge revision to Structure and Functions.

- They agree that charge needs to be updated and cleaned up.
- Charge is not yet ready.
- Need clarification as to academic vs. programmatic focus of charge.
- Laura Watt would like to come to discuss updating the charge.

Ron Lopez:

Historically focused on policy broadly.

Need consistency with other committees

Other Business

Maggie: Motion to support advising proposal. Need time to read. Friendly amendment - look at advising proposal and consider at next meeting. Seconded Sandy Ayala. Agreed by acclamation.

Meeting adjourned 11:30
