

Dear Patricia:

I forgot to include in my other note the statement that I will leave the key to my Apt. in an envelope in my mail box. You may, therefore, get in the Apt. any time you wish, to get any of your own things - (mail, etc.) - or anything that is mine that you'd like to borrow - use, or consume

Just help yourself according to your needs or wishes.

Just put the key in the envelopes & drop back in my mail box where I can find it when I return from Freshman Camp - late Sunday evening.

Love — Carl.
