PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Congratulations graduates!

On behalf of the faculty and staff at California State University, East Bay, we are delighted to celebrate your accomplishments with you as you receive your hard earned degree. Each one of you has a unique story, unique experience and unique challenges.

You are resilient and you have persevered. And here you are. You made it to the finish line. You have our respect and admiration.

Cal State East Bay's Latin motto—"Per Aspera Ad Astra"—translates to "through adversity to the stars," a phrase that certainly describes your path and that of many graduates before you. As you enter this next phase of life, keep the Pioneer spirit with you. I know you will be successful in whatever career path you have chosen—whether in your community, the region, the state or the world. Given who you are and what you learned here, I know you will also strive to make where you live and work more civil, just and equitable. You join well over 160,000 Cal State East Bay alumni who are working to shape a better future for us all. Please stay involved and keep in touch.

More than anything, hold onto the excitement, passion and commitment you feel today. Let that excitement fuel your career as you move forward in your life.

My warmest congratulations and best wishes to you and your loved ones.

All the best,

Cathy Sandeen
President

CHANCELLOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Class of 2025:

As we celebrate your accomplishments today, I hope you'll take a moment to consider how much you've changed since you first set foot on campus. In your time at the California State University, you have transformed yourself from someone with big dreams on a quest for knowledge into a person empowered to make limitless contributions to our world.

This transformation was inspired, supported and admired by your family, friends, colleagues and loved ones, who have cheered you on through your academic journey. It was spurred by your faculty, who have helped you develop a critical eye and a creative mind. And it was reinforced by the work of your counselors, advisors, librarians, tutors and coaches, who fostered an encouraging environment for you to persist, thrive and succeed.

You have filled all of us with pride.

You are now part of a vibrant network of well over four million CSU alumni who are powering California, the nation and the world. Together, you will solve our greatest challenges, educate the next generation, fight for democracy and a more just society, and enrich our workforce and communities with your talents.

As you continue on your exciting path forward, please stay connected to your alma mater and to the CSU. I hope you will use your connections – both to your campus and to other CSU alumni – to open new doors of possibility and to make a meaningful impact in your chosen field. I also encourage you to reach back often to support those who aspire to follow in your footsteps.

Today's event is called "commencement" for a reason. It is not an end, but rather the beginning of your next great pursuit. May your hard work and sacrifices lead to happiness, prosperity and deep fulfillment, both in your life and in the lives of those around you.

Congratulations, California State University Class of 2025. We can't wait to see all that you will accomplish.

Sincerely,

Mildred García, Ed.D.
Chancellor

65TH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

WELCOME

Welcome to the 65th Commencement of California State University, East Bay. To make your day more enjoyable, please note the following:

Campus

Gifts and memorabilia may be purchased at the Pioneer Bookstore or at the bookstore tables at the top of the Amphitheater along the walkway near the Theatre courtyard.

Restroom facilities and water fountains are accessible in all campus buildings (have ticket for re-entry), and are open for your convenience. Portable restrooms and additional complimentary water stations are located outside the campus buildings.

Photography

All graduates will be photographed during the graduation ceremonies. Graduates will receive information on where to purchase photos 3-5 weeks post Commencement via email. Please note: photography is provided by a private vendor as a service to the graduates; the University assumes no responsibility for the quality of pictures.

For your safety

In the event of an emergency, please notify university personnel as soon as possible. University Police officers can be found at the ceremony sites and parking areas. The university has an ambulance unit standing by.

In the event of a natural disaster such as an earthquake, please remain calm. University officials will advise attendees of emergency procedures as quickly as possible. If you need assistance, call 911 from any campus telephone to contact University Police. Campus emergency “blue” phones are located in the parking lots for your convenience. These phones connect directly to University Police and no dialing is required.

HONORS AND CREDENTIAL PROGRAM INFORMATION

Honors

Honors at graduation are awarded to undergraduate and second baccalaureate students who have maintained consistently high scholarship through their academic careers:

* CUM LAUDE: 3.65 - 3.74 GPA, means “with honors.”

 MAGNA CUM LAUDE: 3.75 - 3.84 GPA, means “with high honors.”

 SUMMA CUM LAUDE: 3.85 - 4.00 GPA, means “with highest honors.”

Graduates who have achieved the above designations were awarded the University Honors medallion at a separate ceremony April 19. The medallion depicts the seal of California State University, East Bay. Our honors graduates wear their medallions today in recognition of their commitment to academic excellence.

Honors notations for spring and summer graduates are based upon student records at the end of the fall semester. Official designations are dependent upon the complete student record.

University Honors Program Graduates

Students graduating from the Honors Program have maintained at least a 3.6 GPA, taken at least four honors-designated courses, and completed a senior honors seminar.

Bachelor's Plus Early Pathway

+ The Bachelor's Plus Early Pathway combines two programs on the Hayward campus designed for future elementary school teachers: the Liberal Studies B.A. major (Credential Track) and the Multiple Subject Credential Program. Students who complete this program are granted a B.A. degree in Liberal Studies and a Preliminary Multiple Subject teaching credential.

Doctor of Education Degree (Ed.D.) in Educational Leadership

California State University, East Bay offers a program of study for the Doctor of Education degree (Ed.D.) in Educational Leadership. Housed in the Department of Educational Leadership, this program develops critical and courageous scholar-practitioner leaders who address complex educational challenges with an awareness of and sensitivity to the intricate ways that power and injustice manifest in our schools and organizations. Graduates emerge as scholar-practitioners, equipped with the tools to transform the world of education into socially just, inclusive, equitable, and effective environments. This is the thirteenth graduating class from the Cal State East Bay Ed.D. program.

MISSION STATEMENT

Cal State East Bay serves and values a student body with diverse lived experiences. Through innovative teaching, experiential learning, research, campus life and community engagement, our students, faculty and staff use their knowledge and experience to build and contribute to an equitable, inclusive and environmentally sustainable world

Cal State East Bay’s vision, mission and values, and five campus priorities are part of the Future Directions Strategic Planning Initiative. All campus departments have specific actionable goals to align with campus priorities.

Our priorities are:

- Student Success
- Equity, Inclusion and Anti-Racism
- Research and Innovation
- Organizational Excellence, Financial Sustainability and Growth
- Outreach and Engagement

Think by the Bay is a two-year inclusive college program for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Founded in 2023 by faculty members Dr. Talya Kemper (Teacher Education), Dr. Sarah Taylor (Social Work), and Dr. Sara McDaniel (Educational Psychology), students in the Think by the Bay program enroll in a wide variety of courses across CSUEB. In addition, Think by the Bay students receive employment training and on-campus job experiences and participate in college activities that align with their interests, passions, and goals for the future. We are thrilled to celebrate the hard work and determination over the past two years of our first cohort of Think by the Bay graduates: Quincy Estevez, Mike Moore, and Darren Ng. These trailblazers have added tremendously to our campus culture and have taught us invaluable lessons about the power of inclusivity in higher education. Additionally, we extend our gratitude to the many supporters of this program across campus, without whom this program would not be possible.

COLLEGE OF LETTERS, ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
2025 HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

sheila has been a champion in the fight to end hunger and its root causes, via her work passionately advocating for racial and economic justice—which includes her mission to expand pipelines to success for the underserved. Her professional background includes nearly 20 years in financial services and affordable housing, at Citibank and Fannie Mae, respectively. She began working at the Alameda County Community Food Bank in 2010 and rose from Volunteer Coordinator to the Manager of Equity & Inclusion, and then to her current role as the Director of Equity, Access, & Belonging. Through the Alameda County Community Food Bank, sheila has “worked to align strategy and objectives essential for the success of equity and inclusion initiatives across the Food Bank and with community partners—with special emphasis on cultivating community, building trust, and improving working relationships. Convening conversations where participants develop a shared vision for change, including a common language, vocabulary, definitions, and understanding of issues and a collaborative approach to solving them.”

sheila has done extensive community outreach to not only bring attention to the dire need to eradicate food insecurity, but she also educates and builds strong partnerships to make systemic change. In fact, sheila has had a longstanding partnership with Cal State East Bay. She collaborated with the Center for Community Engagement and the Office of University Diversity to deliver presentations on food insecurity for our campus community. She continues to be actively engaged with Cal State East Bay and many other organizations.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The academic regalia worn at commencement continues a tradition that began in 12th century western universities, when robes and hoods were the standard garments of the day. This tradition was revived in the United States during the 17th century by students who felt the robes not only added dignity to the commencement ceremony, but also provided uniform dress for rich and poor graduates alike. All candidates for degrees wear plain black gowns and black mortarboards. For the faculty, the type of gown and color of the hood designates the field in which the individual received his or her highest degree. In some cases the color of the gown also indicates the institution from which that degree was granted. Bachelor's and master's gowns have pointed sleeves. Doctoral gowns have rounded, open sleeves. There are no trimmings on the gown for bachelor's and master's degree recipients. Doctoral gowns are trimmed down the front with black velvet and have three velvet bars across the sleeve. In some cases, the gown is trimmed in a color designating the field of study rather than in black. Hoods are worn around the neck and over the gown. Cal State East Bay hoods are lined with the university's colors: red, white and black. The outside of the hood is trimmed in a color representing the discipline in which the graduate earned the degree. The doctoral cap is worn with a gold tassel. Exceptions to the mortarboard may be present.
