Golden Bear Due To Arrive At S. F. Pier This Morning

The Golden Bear, training ship of the California Maritime Academy here, will end an 18,000 mile trip to the Mediterranean as California's Mercy Ship when it docks in San Francisco today. The vessel which carried food and clothing to undernourished children of France, Italy and Greece will sail through the Golden Gate about 8 a. m. Gov. Earl Warren will board the Golden Bear at quarantine to extend the state's official greeting and to welcome his son, Earl Jr., who made the voyage as a cadet.

Other civil and military officials will greet the mercy ship when she docks at Pier Seven an hour later.

Arrival of the Golden Bear will herald observance of National Maritime Day Saturday when the ship will be open for public inspection at the San Francisco pier.

A delegation of some 500 Vallejo Boy Scouts will join the crew of the CMA training ship on its final lap of the voyage back to Morrow Cove Sunday.

Scouts and their leaders will be special guests of the Golden Bear for the cruise from San Francisco to Vallejo, leaving the Bay City at 1 p. m. Sunday.

Hundreds of Vallejoans who donated to the relief cargo of the vessel are expected to be on hand for its return to welcome the crew of the famed California "friend ship." The ship is to dock at Morrow Cove about 5 p.m. Sunday.

Leading the "welcome home" ceremonies in San Francisco and Vallejo will be Commo. Russell M. Ihrig, USN (ret.), superintendent of the academy, who arranged for the Golden Bear to carry relief supplies to Europe for its annual training cruise.
