City Council candidates to visit Village

By Marilyn Holthouse

The Current Issues Forum will welcome the three candidates for the Camarillo City Council at 7:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 17, in the AR.

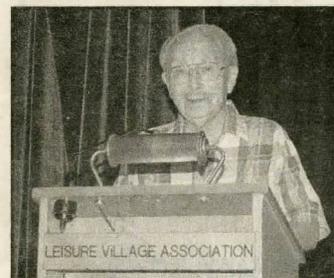

Presenting their qualifications will be David Schlangen, 35, the only challenger in the Nov. 4 election; Kevin Kildee, 51, seeking his fourth four-year term; and Don Waunch, 76, seeking his third.

The two winning candidates will be involved with the proposed maximum security hospital, future developments of the city and Camarillo's safety.

This is the Villagers' opportunity to be an informed voter on Nov. 4.

Milt Mankoff was a well-known Village resident and hosted "What Was My Line?" on LVTN.

A memory of Mankoff

By Joseph Benti

For most of my more than five years in the Village, Milt Mankoff would every now and then kick me in the funny bone, tug at my heart strings and tap my New York-born reservoir of a lasting fondness for the stand-up comic, the guy with the quick joke, the one-liner and that irrepressible twinkle of success that came with our laughs.

Having grown up in Brooklyn, just a subway ride from Broadway's Vaudeville stages, I loved what Milt could do for my soul in just a few minutes — as was true for everyone I know who also knew Milt.

He always had a fresh-baked joke to be delivered in that unique impish, droll

Pumpkin Festival returns

By Jerry Spector

The 4th Annual Pumpkin Festival will be held on Thursday, Oct. 30, in the Assembly Room. The festival is free for all Leisure Village residents. It will start at 11 a.m. and will bring another full day of excitement.

There are some positive changes this year.

The decorated/carved pumpkins will be on display in the Garden Room to make more room for chairs and walking space

Poker-playing Kellett finds LV is a winner

By John Kula

Patrick Kellett is a multi-faceted man. He is a world-class poker player, gambler, poet, dancer and former fighter pilot in the Royal Air Force. His happiest day was when he became a RAF pilot at the age of 19. He learned to fly before he learned to drive a car. He was a family man. He worked as an engineer by trade and had

This time of year, the Village is hopping:

- The annual Art & Craft Show sponsored by the Village Painters will be on Nov. 2 in the AR from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The following clubs have been invited to participate: Camera, Ceramics Plus, Ceramic Mold Decorators, China Painting, Chinese Brush Painting, Lapidary, Wood Shop and, for the first time, the Quilters.

- The annual Holiday Bazaar, put on by the Women's Club Workshop, features handcrafted items in the MPR. Preview day is Monday, Nov. 3, from 3 to 7 p.m., and the big event is the next day, Tuesday, Nov. 4, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

- The Spring Cleaning Sale in the Fall will be Saturday, Oct. 25, in the Pavilion and Picnic areas. Sellers set up at 8 a.m. and will greet buyers at 9 a.m. For details, see Page 3.

- The Yom Kippur Dance scheduled for Sunday, October 12, has been canceled.

Bits from the Board

By Renee Kramer

At the Sept. 2 meeting of the Board of Directors, action was taken by telephone for bids for workers compensation insurance. Tolman & Wiker advised that the budgeted amount was $80,248 and could go up. On motion, the Board approved the bid from Travelers Insurance of $126,666.

After discussion of the charter for the new Purchase Research Committee, the Board approved the original charter. An amendment to the charter to allow 20 committee members was approved, subject to review at a future time.

Motion was made and approved to allow small fruit trees to be planted and maintained by homeowners. This is a rule change to be submitted for a 30-day review.

On motion made and approved, the General Manager will take charge of the money donated by residents in the "kquarters" collection boxes for the planting in front of the Rec Center. The Association will fund the remaining cost of the project.

Bible study group meets Tuesdays

The Spiritual Growth Bible Study Group meets every Tuesday morning from 10 to 11:15 a.m.

We are led by local pastors instructing directly from the Bible. This group is non-denominational and welcomes both men and women. For the location and directions call Carol Cannell at 987-7570 or Mary O'Donnell at 388-0480.

Square dance archive in LV

By Mary Kovach

There's a new addition to our LV library!

When you enter, take a quick turn to the right, and you will come across 34 years of Leisure Village history — 10 volumes of LV Square Dance activities, including photos, clippings, and other memorabilia dating from 1974 to 2008.

During these years, LV Square Dance provided entertainment for scores of LV activities, and photos will show them, plus Halloween costume contests, various picnics, Christmas parties, visitations out of town, guest invitations from the Los Angeles area, performing at Dodger Stadium before a baseball game and giving a performance for President Reagan at the Reagan Library.

Anyone is welcome to come in and view the albums, especially you former square dancers who haven't danced for awhile. Do come in, find a comfortable spot on the sofa and reminisce.

We ask that you do not take the albums outside of the library.

VILLAGE HAPPENINGS

Metrolink aid account set up

The Moorpark Chamber of Commerce has established an account at Wells Fargo Bank in Moorpark for the benefit of the victims of Metrolink Train 111. Those wishing to assist the victims of this terrible tragedy are asked to contribute by making a donation to the "Train Victims Benefit Fund," Acct. #9738485896, at any Wells Fargo Branch, or they may drop off contributions at the Moorpark Chamber of Commerce office.

The Moorpark Chamber of Commerce is committed to helping those in the community and the surrounding areas in their time of need, and invites the public to join them in this endeavor.

Medicare questions answered

By Mitzi Ettinger

It's that time of year again. Dennis Jurcak and his volunteer assistants will be here on Saturday morning, Dec. 6, in the Garden Room at 10 a.m. They will have all the information on any changes in Medicare that occur in mid-November.

They will be able to answer any questions you may have about your coverage and what, if anything, you can do to improve or change what you now have.

Information on Prescription Part D plans will also be available.

Call Mitzi Ettinger at 482-8361 for any other information.

V. 20 block party is Oct. 18

By Don Theall

Oct. 18 will find the Village 20 residents gathering from noon to 3 p.m. for the Third Annual Barbecue. This year's barbecue is dedicated to Ed Colbert, Village 20 block party co-founder.

This year, we will be enjoying the tree-shaded Leisure Village Green picnic area conducive to conversations with neighbors new and old.

Bob Ellis, John Wirtz and John Baker will wear their chef hats and aprons to barbecue hot dogs and hamburgers, accompanied by potluck appetizers, chips, potato salad, fruit salad and desserts.

We're hoping to beat last year's attendance of 80, so purchase your $5 tickets by Oct. 6 by calling 987-8695 or 484-3044.

Spring Cleaning in the Fall sale is set for Oct. 25

By Gertie Dorward

The Spring Cleaning in the Fall sale will be Saturday, Oct. 25, in the Pavilion and Picnic areas. Sellers will set up at 8 a.m., and buyers are welcome at 9 a.m.

The sellers can reserve their tables for $5 starting on Oct. 7 at 8:15 a.m. in the Recreation Office.

On the day of the sale, everyone will be treated to Ernie's free goodies and hot dogs, which are paid for with the $5 table fee.

All monies derived from the sales are kept by the sellers.

Just remember, someone's castoffs are another's treasures. Come and buy something you cannot live without, and also greet all your friends and have a great time. The sale will run until about 1 p.m.

WHAT'S COOKIN' IN THE VILLAGE

Heart-healthy quiche is a delight

By Susan Amerikaner

Last month I was invited to a brunch, and the hostess served up a luscious vegetable quiche, full of heavy cream and Swiss cheese. It was divine, but since my husband and I now strive to eat "heart healthy" food, I decided to adapt the rich recipe so we could enjoy it again.

One of our LV neighbors left some yummy homegrown tomatoes on her fence for passers-by. Thank you to our anonymous donor, as sliced tomato on the side made this a complete meal.

Feel free to make changes to your taste. You can use broccoli instead of spinach, or Swiss instead of cheddar. If you have a bag of fresh spinach on hand, simply spray a pan and sauté the spinach for a few minutes. Drain and use fresh sautéed spinach for an even better taste!

Susan's Light Quiche

- 1 tsp. olive oil
- ½ cup chopped red onion
- 1¼ cup part-skim milk ricotta cheese
- 1 cup lowfat shredded cheddar cheese
- 1 large egg
- 2 large egg whites
- 1 Tbsp. Dijon mustard
- 1 tsp. dried oregano
- ¼ tsp each of salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 10-oz chopped spinach, thawed and well-drained
- 2 tbsp. grated Parmesan cheese

Instructions:

- Preheat oven to 375. Spray bottom of 9-inch pie pan with spray oil.

- Heat oil in small skillet over medium heat. Add onion and sauté until soft, about 3 minutes. Put onion in large bowl. Add ricotta cheese, cheddar, egg, egg whites, oregano, mustard, salt and pepper. Mix well. Spread into pie plate. Top with Parmesan.

- Bake about 35-40 minutes till golden brown. Let stand 10 minutes.

You can make this ahead, refrigerate and reheat. Freeze leftovers for a quick lunch. I reheat slices in the toaster oven at 350 for about 10 minutes.

Why are oleanders dying?

By Joe Foraker

Nearly everyone who resides in Southern California can identify oleander shrubs, which have a rugged ability to survive in drought and intense summer heat.

The oleander displays beautiful clusters of blossoms in white, yellow, pink or red. These shrubs can grow as tall as 20 feet, but those used as screening have been pruned, which makes them more compact and attractive and can provide a handsome background for those who are close to school yards and various agricultural projects.

In Southern California, approximately 10 years ago, some oleanders developed a condition on their leaves that resembled the effects of scorching. At first only a few twigs and leaves were affected, but within one or two years, many of the shrubs were dead. The California agricultural community became concerned and started looking for a solution to save the oleanders. Millions of research dollars have failed to find a remedy that will allow the oleanders' survival.

There are three players involved in the collapse of the oleander: the sap of the oleander, a source of bacteria (xyl-lela fastidiosa), and the insect deliverer (a glassy-winged sharpshooter). The sharpshooter is equipped to pierce the oleander stem to obtain some of the water and nutrients. Unfortunately, the sharpshooter carries the deadly bacteria. A few of these bacteria remain in the oleander and soon multiply by the millions, clogging the transportation of vital nutrients that cause the oleander to die.

Leisure Village's oleander population has been savagely attacked by this disease. Some botanists believe the shrub will join the American Elm and the chestnut tree, which have become extinct over the past 200 years.

Steps are underway to replace our oleanders. In the Village 3 area, more than 880 feet of diseased shrubs were removed and replaced by five different species of plants — West Ringia, Nandina, Viburnum, Iceberg Rose and Phormium. Another project covering more than 1,000 feet will include Villages 42 and 44. The task is huge and will occur over an extended time frame.

The fate of the red oleander is unknown, but so far it seems to be resisting the fate of the other three colors.

style that made him, in my eyes, and I am sure many others, the equal of any of the Myron Cohens, Henny Youngmans, and Carl Ballantines of our youth.

More personally, Milt and I had a kind of running joke about my refusing his ongoing invitations to be a contestant on his LVTV series, "What Was My Line?" Finally, a couple of months ago, I gave in and was on his show — and loved every minute of it, mostly because of the pleasure of watching Milt working the panel and me.

Then, a couple of weeks ago, on a lark and with the intention of being another body in his "live audience," I went to what turned out to be his last show in a wonderful run. Despite misgivings, I took my camera and got what probably is the last shot of Milt Mankoff working, doing his thing, his final wonderful performance.

With him on the panel, which included Jerry Cohen, Jerry Spector and David Halemán, was Pauline Davis, who, after his beloved wife "Lil," was Milt's biggest and most loyal fan, and who, by the way, also created the series (see attached photo).

I am one of the many Villagers who look back happily on having had a chance to play straight man for Milt. He gave us all a chance to appreciate fully who he was and what he did for us by creating genuine joy and laughter in us, irreplaceable and much needed qualities in our time.

Milt Mankoff was that strong, rare ingredient in the glue that is necessary to bind us as a community, helping us to realize that, despite occasional signals to the contrary, we are, we can be, truly, "A Village."

kin Dish and Costume. There will be professional judges for all four contests. This will make the judging more interesting and more accurate.

The pumpkin dishes will be judged by professional culinary chiefs from well-known restaurants. The Best Overall Pumpkin prize will be judged from other professionals who live outside the Village, and the prize will be worth $500. The chili and costume contests will also be judged by outside professionals.

There will be many great prizes again this year for those winning participants. It is easy, and I challenge all Leisure Village to participate in one or all four contests.

Please contact one of the following chair people for an entry form:

Pumpkin Carving/Decorating

Clarice Shapiro, 987-5825, V. 31205.

Barbara Oliver, 484-7527, V. 5132.

Chili Contest

What you need to know about reverse mortgages

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate

A reverse mortgage is a unique loan that enables older homeowners, those 62 and older, to convert part of the equity in their home into tax-free income without having to sell the home, give up title or take on a new monthly mortgage payment.

Instead of making monthly payments to a lender, the lender makes payments to you. The payment can be used for anything — daily living expenses, home repairs and improvements, medical bills, prescription drugs or long-term healthcare, pay off of existing debts, education, travel — anything you choose.

That's right, you get to enjoy living in your home for the rest of your life with no monthly payments as long as you do not transfer the title of your home, it remains as your primary residence, you do not leave (vacate) your home for more than 12 consecutive months, property tax and hazard insurance is paid and stays current, and you honor the terms of the agreement. The amount of cash you will receive depends on your age, type of loan you choose, value of your home, current interest rates and sometimes the location of your home.

For more information or a referral, check with your Realtor or bank.

DID YOU KNOW THAT?

Josette Dietrich, V. 6, climbed Mount Whitney at age 42, walked 126 miles from the Irish Sea to the North Sea at age 70, and now walks in Leisure Village with her stick?

Harold Michael, V. 6, met Kathryn Howler, living in New Mexico, in 1994 on a bus trip through Russia? They married one year later in Las Vegas.

Harold & Yetta Brodsky, V. 44, owned a carpet store in Canada? When they moved to California, one of their employees followed them. To this day, they remain friends with Howie Mandel.

Libby Kamens, V. 17, was winning mommy on the Pinky Lee Show in the 1950s? She won many prizes, including a Dalmatian puppy that she really didn't want.

Ed Pollaine, V. 18, just had a second Bar Mitzvah? He is now 84 years old.

Lillian Mankoff, V. 17, was a licensed social worker with the Department of Adoption in Los Angeles?

Hannah Bornfriend, V. 9, graduated from New York University with a marketing finance degree? She ended up teaching, thankfully, because she can't even keep her checkbook balanced.

Selma Weiss, V. 42, is the third of five generations to work in the U.S. Post Office?

Madeline Schoen, V. 13, was raised in Mexico City? Olé!

Ann Rossine, V. 1, came from Sioux City, Iowa, and went to work for the William Morris Agency and saw all the movie stars she used to read about?

Ruth Stern, V. 38, was a yoga expert when she was young and nimble?

Phil Kamens, V. 17, was vice president and general manager, operating six Westward Ho Super Markets for 37 years?

Bert Stone, V. 33, built mini malls and the No. 6 Taco Bell? He negotiated the lease with owner Glenn Bell, and that's where the name Taco Bell originated.

Marty Hasen, V. 17, owned and operated his own video duplication company? Some of his clients were Elton John, Kevin Costner, Jamie Lee Curtis, and Robert Downey Jr. He also made a copy for the Hearst family of the Hearst Castle building footage.

Betty Eisenberg, V. 20, in 1995 won a Pontiac at the West Covina Plaza? She drove it for 13 years.

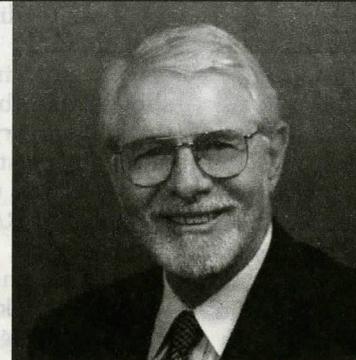

Frances Yasney, V. 17, was a professional swing dancer, and appeared in movies called "Soundies?"

Irv Goodnick, V. 35, attended a Friar's Club Roast for Red Buttons in 1978?

the great fortune to travel all over the world.

Patrick was born 84 years ago in Yorkshire, England. He came to America in 1961. He lived in Santa Barbara for 35 years and came to Leisure Village 16 years ago.

He loves to gamble and "lives for poker." He loves to go to Las Vegas and the track. At the Players Club in Ventura, he is known as the Silver Fox — both for his silver hair and skill in gambling. Recently, he won the big poker tournament in Reno. It qualified him for the World Poker Championship Tournament. Though he did not win the championship, he walked away highly respected.

He loves his family. A major tragedy was the loss of his 30-year-old daughter, Catherine. She died in a car accident. He is blessed to have his other daughter, Ann, in his life. In December, he plans to take his grandchildren and great-grandchildren on a cruise to the Mexican Riviera.

Writing poetry is a special interest of his. After hearing several of his poems, I realized he has a real flair for expressing his thoughts about life this way.

Patrick is outgoing and loves to socialize. He met Shirley Francis on the dance floor. They have become the best of friends ever since. They can be seen dancing every Saturday night at the Leisure Village Saturday Night Dance Party.

We had a wonderful afternoon discussing old times. The memories seemed to light him up. As I was leaving, he ran after me to show me one more thing. It was a treasured possession, the diary he kept in 1944. For the fun of it, he said he would look up what he was doing on this day. A smile broke out on his face.

"I can't believe it," he exclaimed.

The entry in his diary showed that this day was the anniversary of one of the happiest days of his life. It was the day he received his RAF Pilot License.

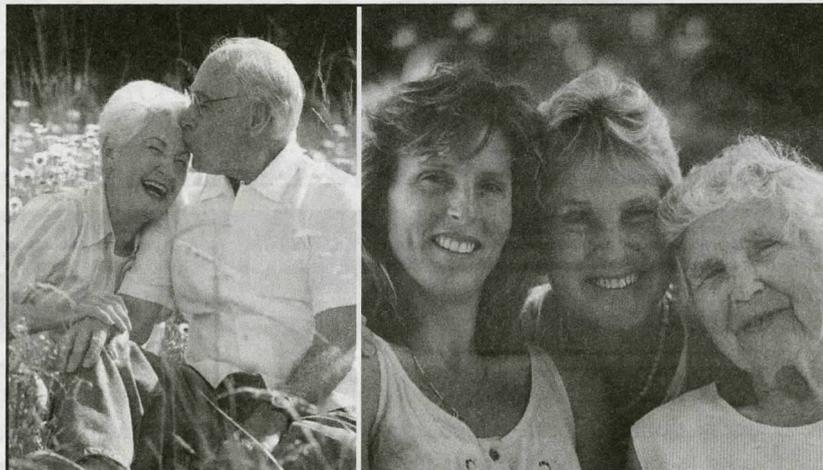

On a side note, after leaving Patrick, I realized what a privilege it is to share the story of our lives with each other. We are all on a journey of sorts. To step back and share the highlights, the challenges we faced and the courage to face each day amidst our sorrows says a lot for the human spirit. Our stories shape us and, as time goes, it serves as a reminder of what has been really important.

Shop Ahoy helps

By Barbara Yago

Do you find it difficult to leave home to shop for groceries due to physical limitations? If so, Shop Ahoy is for you.

Shop Ahoy is a nonprofit, volunteer-based grocery shopping and delivery service for homebound adults. A volunteer will call the customer on Sunday or Monday of each week to take their grocery order. Another volunteer shops on Tuesdays at our local Vons, and the order is delivered and paid for, along with a small contribution to help the system stay in operation. If you are in need of our service or are interested in volunteering, please call me at 388-0419.

Players Guild

By Al Schwartz

Players Guild has lost one of our most beloved members. We are all saddened by the passing away of one of the founders and mainstays of our group, Milt Mankoff.

Milt produced, directed, appeared in and contributed to many of our productions. He will be sorely missed not only by Players Guild, but also by the entire Village. We send our condolences to the Mankoff family.

We will miss you, Milt.

It is difficult to go on with the next item, but I must. The contest identifying the cast of our Sept. 18 show ("Those Were The Days") from their baby pictures was quite successful.

The first-place prize of a Trader Joe's $25 gift card went to Fran Grayson.

Second place was a tie between Diane Fleisher and Kathy Wirtz, both receiving $10 gift certificates from Longs Drug Store.

Third place was also a tie between Carol Botta and Walter Maich, with both receiving free membership in the Guild through Dec. 31, 2009.

Thank you to all who participated.

Our upcoming show is called "Leisure Village Got Talent." It is being produced and directed by that great team of Elise Perlmutter and Debra Guill. They have many successful shows to their credit. There will be diverse groups of singers, folk and line dancers and humorists, with Gene Valentino as the emcee.

The show time is 7:30 p.m. Oct. 16 in the AR. Don't miss this production. Our last presentation on Sept. 18 was outstanding. People are still talking about it.

As always, refreshments and socializing will be available.

We will miss you, Milt!

Woodshop

By Chuck Russell

The Woodshop Committee volunteers helped with the recent improvements to the AR, saving the Leisure Village Association money, and continue offering repair service to LV residents between 10 a.m. and noon Tuesday and Wednesday mornings. They consider every project an enjoyable way to help neighbors and do not charge for their services. Donations are accepted, and the funds buy materials and supplies for residents' projects.

The woodshop is getting some needed improvements and reorganization. Key holders are encouraged to stop in and take a look. The woodshop is one of the many great recreation facilities in LV and is available to residents with woodworking experience. Contact Sid Alweiss, Woodshop Committee Chairman, at 482-5341 with questions.

alternating between afternoon and evening meetings. Due to the religious holiday in October, we will meet on the second Friday of the month, Oct. 10, from 1 to 3 p.m.

Wow, what a hit — The Foy/Fay Duo and The Seoulful Quartet in Concert! The concert was followed by an ice cream social. Some 350 tickets were given away. I was in the room as some of the musicians arrived, and they were in awe of the size of our auditorium and the sea of chairs that were set up in such an orderly fashion. I don't think they were expecting such a wonderfully large and receptive crowd. We owe Stan Vansant a great big "atta boy" for bringing such a wonderfully talented group to the Village.

The LV Musicians board thanks all of you for your participation. It is the audience that makes a performance a success.

Approximately 250 members of the audience stayed for the ice cream social that followed the concert. I want to thank all of our guests for their patience. It took almost 30 minutes to serve everyone, but it seems to have been worth the wait. We had a lot of positive feedback, folks enjoyed the selection of toppings and appreciated that there were sugar-free options. It was fun to watch folks standing and sitting, enjoying their ice cream prepared their way, talking about the concert and just visiting with each other. It was a very pleasant way to spend a Sunday afternoon. I can't help but wonder how many folks went out to dinner after "eating dessert first."

The LV Musicians Board would like to thank Susan, Shelly and Jennifer of the Recreation Office for helping us by coordinating the distribution of the tickets. Marcel and Ray did their typical outstanding job in setting up the room just the way we wanted. Thank you. We're going to make one great big thank you to everyone — you know who you are — who volunteered to help with preparing for this event and remained behind to clean up when the event was over. It takes both the LV staff and LV resident volunteers to make an event a successful event. Thank you,

Sing-a-long Group

By Anita Lind

The Sing-A-Long Group meets on the second and last Monday of each month in the AR from 7 to 9 p.m.

We have added a new component to our Sing-A-Long, "The Solo Performance." Our first performers were Ann Steigerwald singing "Bill Bailey," and Susie Smith singing "The Glory of Love," both receiving thunderous applause. What a lot of fun! Thank you both for getting us started. We all hope to hear from you again.

Here's how "The Solo Performance" works. Select a song from one of our sing-a-long books. Meet with Stan or Irene during the 7 to 7:30 p.m. pre-sing-along recital. Stan or Irene will assist the singer in selecting a key, and you will be assigned a date for your solo performance. There will be no more than two "Solo Performances" each time we meet. The singer will sing the song one time through while the audience is silent, then the second time around, the audience will join the singer. Please don't be shy, sign up for the "Solo Performance."

Join us for Sing-A-Long in the AR, Mondays, Oct. 13 and 27, from 7 to 9 p.m.

Women's Club

By Eldora Barton

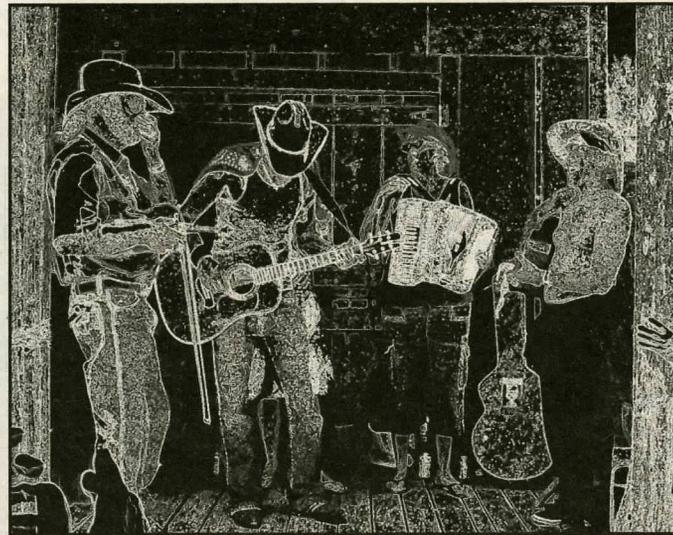

There are quite a few happenings for the Women's Club to look forward to in November during the first week. So even though it is now October, start thinking about next month.

The Workshop will be having their annual Holiday Bazaar on Tuesday, Nov. 4, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., with a preview sale the prior day, Nov. 3, with hours to accommodate those who cannot make the usual midday sale. Come by the MPR from 3 to 7 p.m. on Monday to do some holiday shopping. You will have choices of holiday decorations, kitchen goodies, baby clothes, dolls, afghans, jewelry and crafts of all kinds. There's so much to see.

You will also have a pre-preview on Sunday, Nov. 2, again in the MPR, where the Women's Club will have a table with Workshop items for sale, as will several other clubs. This is during the time that the Village Painters and other artists will be delighting the Village at the Annual Art Show in the AR.

And then, on Thursday, Nov. 6, our General Meeting in the AR will be at 1:30 p.m. with entertainment by Beverly Wright, singer international. She sings all styles and will delight you. And, of course, there will be refreshments and social time. There will be a $2 charge for guests.

Dues for 2009 will be accepted starting October, so for those not now a member, get a jump start on the new year with three extra months for annual dues of $5. Come and join all the November activities.

L.V. Mens Golf Association

By Mannie Abbate

The monthly meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month in the MPR at 2 p.m. The pre-meeting refreshments are served at 1:30 p.m. Come early, have coffee, cookies, wine or punch and chat with the members. Get 50/50 tickets for monthly drawing at end of the meeting.

Every Tuesday morning we have a tournament in the Village. Every Tuesday at 7:30 a.m., before the scheduled tournament, coffee and juice are provided, followed by soft drinks and beer at the 1st Tee when we finish playing. On meeting days we have coffee, juice and buns at 7:30 a.m. and either a putting contest or a chipping contest with prize money for the winners. All you have to do is show up, even if you don't play in the tournament. You can bring a potential member and play with him if you make arrangements a week in advance with Don Hamilton to arrange the schedule.

The Club Championship for our home course will be held on Tuesdays, Oct. 7 and 14. This tournament consists of 36 holes at net play and will be played concurrently with the regular Tuesday tournaments. The Niners will play 18 holes over the two days. Players will compete in the flight appropriate with their current handicap. Flights will be determined after the Oct. 7 game is played.

To participate in the Club Championship, you must have played in at least 12 weekly tournaments during 12 months preceding Oct. 7, 2008. The champion will be the member with the Low Gross Total "Over The Field." Sign up by paying $2 on Oct. 7 along with the regular $1 Tuesday tournament fee.

We play regulation golf at Elkins Ranch Golf Course on Thursday, Oct. 16. The fee will be $41, including the cart.

We will play at Cam Springs on Thursday, Nov. 6. The greens fee will be $24, including the cart.

The Ladies will also be playing at the regulation tournaments with us in their own tournaments behind our group when we play on Thursdays. They won't play on our Wednesday tournaments because that is their weekly tournament day on the LV course. This will allow them to play their own tournament at a regulation course. They will keep their own records and information. Vivian Hurst will be the Tournament Chair for them, and she will take care of their results.

Watch the signs and LVTV (Channel 25 or 861) for further announcements.

Many men play on our home course but do not belong to the LVMGA. Do a little recruiting to get new members.

Outdoor Chess

By Ivan Bjel

It is with great sadness that we report the passing of one of our key members, Dr. Ed Colbert. Ed spearheaded the establishment of Leisure Village Chess Club and, with the help of Ernie Ohmsted and financial help from Inside Leisure Village newspaper, a beautiful outdoor chess board and set were added to the list of recreational activities available for our community.

Ed wrote the club's monthly report for ILV newspaper and was a tireless promoter of chess activities. His enthusiasm, ideas and the ability to get things done was an inspiration to all of us. He will Please see CLUBS on 20

Some of you may have seen on Channel 25 our new video, "Why Play Chess?" This video explains some of the mental health benefits of playing chess and is played around 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. We plan to repeat the video in the near future in the same time slot.

In October, we are planning to launch a series of chess lessons for the beginners, narrated by Jack Cashman, a well-known Ventura County chess teacher. They will be played Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. Hope you will be watching and, more importantly, that you come and join us playing chess every Friday at 10 a.m. in the Annex or at the Outdoor Chess Court!

Camera Club

By Jerry Cohen

September's competition featured Photo-Journalism as the Assigned category. The first-place winner was Don Treadwell, followed in second place by Florence Gillman, and Frank DeSimone was in third place. The Honorable Mentions were by Judy Spector and Marlene Votion.

In the Open category, first place was won by Frank DeSimone, with Jerry Spector capturing second place and Bill Robinson earning third place. Honorable Mentions were by Florence Gillman and Don Treadwell.

In the Creative division, the first-place honor went to Kenney Nelson, with Jerry Spector in second place and Bill Robinson taking third place. Honorable Mentions were by Marlene Votion and Vic Fledge.

The judging was by professional Dan Holmes.

Everyone is invited to the exciting competitions the first Wednesday of each month and program nights on the third Wednesday of each month.

The club's second annual auction will be Oct. 15. Join us for this great fun night!

Meetings start at 7 p.m. in the MPR, with refreshments following. Y'all come!

L.V. Bowling League

By Marty Simons

The 2008-09 season is under way with a total of 17 teams. Because of the odd number, one team will have a "bye" each week.

However, in order to garner points, they still must bowl and knock down enough pins to match their total average score, including handicap.

The first week saw Bert Stone and Jim Dalton bowl a 200 game, and the side pots were won by Stan Reshes, Jim Dalton, Ruthy Levine and Vivian Hurst.

Week 2 saw 200 games from Ray Cass and Jim Dalton, with side pots going to Ray Cass and Betty Dean.

There are some credits missing because your correspondent was on vacation, and the list of accomplishments is not complete. I apologize to those not mentioned. We've been keeping our substitutes busy, so if you are interested in becoming so much from them.

We have started a new session after the regular meeting for those who wish to be critiqued. Frank Seiden is the leader, and someone besides the writer reads the piece and all other members give their opinions if they wish. It is not a class, just some suggestions for improvement. It was slow at first, but it is catching on.

Once again, we welcome anyone who is interested in writing or who just appreciates listening. Join us, won't you? We are a relaxed, happy group and enjoy all writings, large or small, funny or nostalgic. Everyone has had experiences in their life that deserve to be remembered, and those are sometimes the best ones to start putting on paper.

Try it, you might like it.

The Mavericks

By Margo Secia

The Mavericks had our always popular "Cash In The Attic" night in September. It was so much fun getting together and bidding on all the treasures brought in by our members, which will help fund our Winter Ball in January. Thanks for bringing all the wonderful desserts, which were enjoyed by everyone.

Please mark your calendars for our "DJ Country Western Record Hop" on Friday, Oct. 24, at 7 p.m. in the AR. This is a "Members Only" party, with the cost of $5 per person being collected at the door. We are asking all members to BYOB and to bring hors d'oeuvres ready-to-serve for at least five people. We hope all members will come and join in the fun.

Membership dues are still being collected for May 2008 to May 2009 and are $5 per person. Your dues can be collected by any board member or sent to Naomi Sklar at 6308 Village 6. If you have any questions regarding membership dues, please call Naomi at 388-5999.

If you need any further information or have any questions, please call President John Wirtz at 384-8508.

Racquet Club

By Anne Wolfson

The Racquet Club meets the second Wednesday of the Month in the Multi-Purpose Room. We are a very active group of tennis, paddle tennis and table tennis players and welcome all Villagers to join us!

Our speaker for the September meeting was Patti Jaeger, who is the head nutrition consultant for Ventura County. She is a registered dietitian and was very helpful describing the foods we need to stay healthy. For vitamin D, the sunshine vitamin, we should expose our face, arms and legs to sunshine at least two times a week for 15 minutes. For fiber, make sure bread says "100 percent whole wheat," not whole grain. Follow these rules and others, and we should all lead healthy lives!

There will be no meeting in October due to a change in schedule, but we will have a guest speaker Nov. 10 from the Camarillo Health Club, so watch the announcement of Channel 25 and in your paper. See you in November!

Saturday Night Dance

There is a new original dance, which was seen in the AR on Country/Western Night, called "The Miller Mash." It got the crowd on its feet, and it dances to four-beat music and seems to be gaining popularity. Just watch for Joe Miller out there

International Folk Dancing

By Raye Gabriel

Dancing to folk music from all over the world makes for a fun aerobic experience without anything strenuous. Join us Mondays in the AR with Valerie. She starts beginners at 12:30 p.m., and we dance to 2:30 p.m.

You'll be delighted with the ethnic music and the way Val makes you feel. Do try it. You will surely like it. We welcome your efforts.

Country Line Dance

By Ida Kubica

Country Line Dance Workshop meets on Tuesdays from 3 to 4:30 p.m. in the AR. At 2:45 p.m., there is a warm-up session with Betty Dean or Rhoda Smithkin. They review the dance steps and run through a dance we will be dancing that afternoon.

We have been enjoying dancing on the new padded dance floor. It helps take the stress off the body, so therefore, there's less fatigue. So people, stay on the floor till the dance is over, don't leave at break time. Enjoy the full benefits of the dance last month! Kudos to our president, Anne Haas, and all of her committee members who put on a great party. Everyone left satisfied and happy! Even the movie was exceptional. We saw actors from a bygone era, and every time another character appeared on screen, we practically cheered. The movie was "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World," slapstick but cute.

It was another very successful SAS picnic

Now for October: Please come to "News & Views" on Tuesday, Oct. 7, at 7 p.m. in the MPR. We'll try to keep the conversations civil! Bring your interesting articles and desserts.

Village Painters

By Aurelie Zachary

At our Sept. 3 meeting, it was time for our annual critique session of the paintings members plan to display at the Nov. 2 Art & Craft Show. Phyllis Doyon, well-known Camarillo artist, graced us with her constructive criticism. She was thorough and tactful. We appreciated all her comments.

The following members participated: Lindy Stein, Bea Metzler, Sylvia Wachter, Aurelie Zachary, Irene Davis, Marge Curry, Kelso Chandler, Sara Kalim-Finn, Hy Golditch, Margery Feith, Rea Williams, Ann Rogers, Reggie Katz, Alice Doretalina and Charlotte Olonoff.

This year, Kelso Chandler will be responsible for the Art show set-up.

Paintings in the library in October are by Florence Gilman.

Tournament and Luncheon on August 20, and a big thank you to our Men's Club and their participation in our tournament and luncheon. They are charming and helpful, and all of their effort was appreciated.

More big thanks to Meriam Laird and her trusted crew for supplying the delicious food and congenial atmosphere for our luncheon.

Our second weekly tournament will be on Oct. 8, followed by our 1 p.m. board meeting and general meeting at 2 p.m. in the AR. Come early for refreshments at 1:30 p.m.

Municipal Bonds: An Investment for Tax-Conscious Investors

Tax-exempt municipal bonds are among the most popular types of investments available today, and with good reason.

They offer you:

- Current income free from federal and, in some cases, state and local taxes
- Relatively high degree of safety
- Dependable income

If you'd like a list of our California municipal bond inventory and a free copy of Municipal Advisor, contact

Paul Feiger

Vice President—Investments

www.ubs.com/financialservicesinc

Neither UBS Financial Services Inc. nor its Financial Advisors provide tax or legal advice. Please contact your tax advisor regarding the suitability of tax-exempt investments in your portfolio. Income from municipal bonds may be subject to state and local taxes as well as the Alternative Minimum Tax. Call features may exist that can impact yield. If sold prior to maturity, investments in municipal securities are subject to gains/losses based on the level of interest rates, market conditions and credit quality of the issuer. Additional information available upon request.

Poets needed

By Anne Prowzor

Our poetry class is quite unique,

Poets — dead or alive — we seek.

Shakespeare, Keats, Whitman, et cetera, Of poets, there is a plethora.

Some poems are good, a few are great,

In honesty, some I hate.

The poems we read include many things, Birds and bees, Haiku, or by-gone kings.

And when you leave and go your way,

You'll be inspired for many a day.

Come join us! Call Anne Prowzor, 482-1277.

About ILV's classified ads

Please follow these instructions when submitting an ad for Inside Leisure Village:

1. Use an 8.5-by-11-inch sheet of paper.
2. Write or type your ad legibly.
3. Give your full name, address, and telephone number.

These are for ILV records and will not be published unless requested.

4. Estimate number of lines; there are approximately 24 characters per line.

5. Cost is $4 for one to five lines and $1 per additional line. Enclose cash, check or money order payable to ILV.

6. Place an envelope with the ad and payment in the ILV box next to the sewing room in the Rec Center before deadline. Each month's deadline is listed on Page 2.

ILV will accept ads from LV residents for properties they own personally, or ads of a non-commercial nature that offer jobs or services to Villagers. There is no charge for items or services offered free of charge. ILV does not investigate the ads and makes no endorsement of them.
