PRESS ROOM: Room 162 in the eastern wing of the gymnasium serves as the press room for Titan basketball. Five telephone lines are available -- two at all times and three after the conclusion of radio post-game shows.

PRESS TABLES: Primary beat reporters and broadcasters will be located on the south side of the playing floor, adjacent to or behind the scorer's table. Auxiliary media seating and scout seating will be available at tables along the base line.

GAME SUMMARIES: Will be collated and distributed in Room 162 of the gymnasium building. Halftime box scores, play-by-play accounts and final box scores will be provided.

PRESS/PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Will be issued on a per game basis only. Requests should be made as far in advance as possible. "Visiting" media may make their requests through their respective "home" SIDs. Photo credentials must be worn in plain sight at all times. Photographers may shoot only from the designated areas behind both baselines.

PARKING: Parking is available by:

- a) Using Lot A at State College and Yorba Linda Boulevards or Lot B off State College Boulevard and paying $1.50 upon entry for a daily permit, or:
- b) Obtaining a complimentary pass upon presentation of news credential to the Visitors Information Booth located on the south side of campus, northwest of the intersection of Commonwealth and Nutwood Avenues.

Parking regulations are enforced 24 hours per day, 7 days per week.

BROADCAST SPACE: One table is allocated to each team's designated commercial radio station. Each holds three persons comfortably across the working counter with one cramped seating space available to the rear.

TELEPHONES: There is one telephone at the press table -- (714) 773-3970 -- which must be kept free for messages, out-of-town scores, etc. Additional telephones CANNOT be installed at the press table due to the physical limitations of the building. Please call if you have special telephone needs.

LOCKER ROOMS: Located off the hallway on the north side of the playing floor. Brad Holland will conduct his post-game interviews in the equipment manager's office just outside the Fullerton players' locker room, which is CLOSED to the media. Players will be brought to the office area upon request after a reasonable cooling-off period.

SCOUTS: Requests should be made at least one week in advance. Seating is limited.

The University

California State University, Fullerton is a large, comprehensive institution in which learning is preeminent. A caring university, it is dedicated to fostering the development of humane leaders prepared to meet the opportunities and challenges of a changing, diverse world.

With an enrollment of approximately 25,000 students, the university maintains its tradition of excellence in liberal arts programs both as ends in themselves and as foundations for equally excellent professional programs.

The main campus is located in Fullerton and has been in operation since 1960, a year after the university's opening. A satellite campus offering upper-division and graduate courses has operated in Mission Viejo since 1989.

Students come primarily from Southern California with many from other states and nations. Most students commute daily to and from classes, although nearly 400 now live on campus in residence halls opened in 1988.

Drawn from throughout the world, the 700-member faculty is noted for its commitment to effective teaching and scholarly activity. Research is actively pursued, typically with students involved.

The university is fully accredited and enjoys national recognition for both its array of traditional academic programs and a wide list of independently accredited professional programs, including art, athletics training, business, chemistry, communications, computer science, dance, education, engineering, music, nursing, public administration, speech and hearing and theater. All told, there are 88 degree programs -- 41 of them at the graduate level -- plus a wide variety of credential and certificate programs.

Complementing the regular instruction program is the extended education program, which provides classes, workshops, conferences and study tours without the formalities of admission to the university.

Another of the university's features is the cultural events program. Besides student productions, it includes a series that brings nationally known professional artists to the campus for residencies as well as public performances.

An extensive recreation program aimed chiefly at students, but also open to community members, is another highlight, as is a growing network of support groups, including the Alumni Association, which represents the university's 95,000 graduates, and the Titan Athletic Foundation.

Further examples of community outreach are the Ruby Geronfology Center, which serves as an educational and research facility for the study of aging and a meeting place for the Continuing Learning Experience support group.

Through a series of joint ventures started in 1979 with the establishment of the Fullerton Arboretum and continuing with the opening of a Marriott hotel on campus in 1989, the university and the city of Fullerton opened the Titan Sports Complex in 1992. A 10,000-seat multipurpose stadium, an adjoining baseball stadium and a separate track facility are newly completed features of the complex.

Other partnerships include one with the Orange County NewsChannel that has enhanced the university's ability to provide televised instruction to businesses, schools and government and another with the Pacific Symphony Orchestra that has paved the way for the formation of a new orchestral institute for talented young musicians.

To reinforce the university's commitment to high academic standards and the expansion of community services, the university conducts a variety of fund-raising activities. The purpose of these activities is to generate the necessary non-state support to make a very good university one of the nation's most successful.

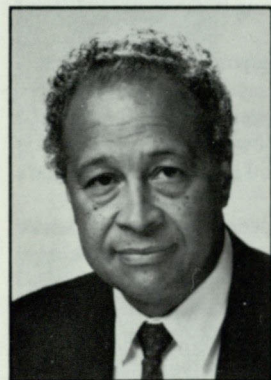

Administration

Dr. Milton A. Gordon, President

Dr. Milton A. Gordon was selected the fourth president of Cal State Fullerton by The California State University Board of Trustees and assumed his duties on Aug. 6, 1990.

His university leadership includes serving as vice president for academic affairs at Sonoma State University for four years, as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Chicago State University for more than eight years and as director of the Afro-American Studies Program at Loyola University of Chicago for six years.

President Gordon also taught at the Illinois Institute of Technology and in the Chicago public schools and served as a mathematician at the University of Chicago's Laboratories of Applied Sciences.

He is the California state representative to the American Association of State Colleges and Universities and serves on the governing boards of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, California Coalition for Mathematics, Orange County Chamber of Commerce, Orange County Community Foundation, United Way of Orange County, YMCA of Orange County and Fullerton Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is on the advisory boards of Pioneer Bank, St. Jude Medical Center and The California State University's Institute for Teaching and Learning.

The President has a Ph.D. in mathematics from the Illinois Institute of Technology, an M.A. in mathematics from the University of Detroit and a B.A. in mathematics and secondary education from Xavier University of Louisiana.

Athletics Department

Bill Shumard, Director of Athletics

Bill Shumard is in his second year as Director of Athletics at Cal State Fullerton after a most eventful inaugural year.

Shumard, 41, assumed his post on Aug. 1, 1991, soon after the start of a two-year, $6 million capital campaign to put the finishing touches on a $14 million Sports Complex. He immediately had to replace two of his associate athletic directors while working under drastic budget constrictions handed down by the state and State University system.

While instituting a new 10-year gender equity plan for CSUF athletics and helping prepare an accelerated marketing plan to showcase the new football/soccer, baseball and track facilities, he was also busy hiring several new head coaches. Brad Holland was appointed men's basketball coach in April and Deborah Ayres (women's basketball) and Mary Ellen Murchison (women's volleyball) were hired in June.

"The challenge before us is immense as we seek to set realistic goals and parameters for our program," said Shumard. "But despite the obstacles, CSUF never has been in a better position to realize its true athletic potential as we enter this new era and move into our new facilities."

Shumard called his Fullerton appointment the achievement of a "lifelong personal goal. Because of where we live (Brea), and having children in the process of growing up, this is where I set my sights. I'm a graduate of the Cal State system (Long Beach State, 1972) and my desire was to get back to this level.

"An athletic department run with ethical and financial responsibility can mirror a successful university. It can bring people to the university in a myriad of ways. There are 80,000 Cal State Fullerton graduates living in the Los Angeles area. We've got the opportunity to use our program to bring them back to campus. If we have a program that is competitive and makes an honest effort at moving athletes toward graduation, I think that's a lot to stand up and cheer about."

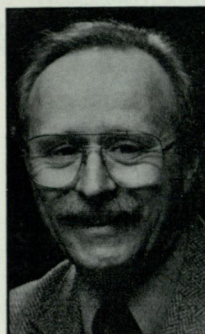

Shumard came to Fullerton after three years as an assistant athletic director at USC, where he was part of a five-person team that raised $7 million per year. His projects included supervising 12 regional Trojan Club support groups and staging a dinner in the Los Angeles Coliseum for 3,000 persons to highlight the university's athletic centennial celebration.

Shumard's 13-year career with the Los Angeles Dodgers began in 1975 as an assistant in public relations and publicity. He became Director of the Speakers Bureau in 1977 and was appointed Director of Community Services in 1981. The title was enlarged in 1983 to include Special Events as he supervised a staff of 15 employees responsible for game and community promotions and all publications as well as coordinating the activities of the Dodger Alumni Association.

His first athletics position was as Sports Information Director at his alma mater in 1972 and 1973. He spent the next two years at Cal State Los Angeles where he was an assistant professor in journalism and physical education, was advisor to the campus pep groups and served as manager of the Athletic News Bureau.

Shumard's athletic career terminated as a freshman quarterback at Compton Junior College, where he obtained his Associate Arts degree in 1970. Bill and his wife, Kim, live in Brea. He has three sons -- David, 21; Matt, 17; and Mike, 14.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The athletic department wishes to acknowledge the support of the CSUF Associated Students, Inc.; the Instructionally Related Activity (IRA) Committee and the CSUF student body they represent. Their support is critical to the success of the Titans' Division I-A program.

Nickname and Mascot

"What exactly is a Titan?"

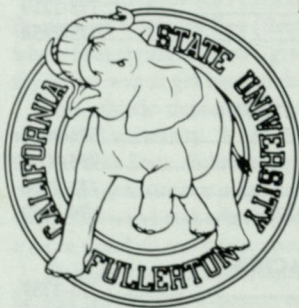

"Why do you have an elephant for your mascot?"

Those are two of the first questions that pop into the minds of media and fans when a Cal State Fullerton athletic team makes its inaugural visit. While the relatively young institution carved out of the Orange County citrus groves may be too new for many traditions, here are the recognized legends.

"It was the students' decision in a vote," explains Dr. Ernest Becker, founding Dean of Students, of the nickname 'Titans.' "More than a hundred names were suggested, and the Student Council took on the job of narrowing the list down to a few for the purposes of an election. The vote was close, with Titans narrowly prevailing over Aardvarks and Rebels."

It was a unique student body at the outset, all upper division students until 1963. There were 453 of them, mostly female, in 1959, the first year of classes at what was then known as Orange County State College. They voted to organize as a student body and to assess themselves a fee of $10 per semester.

"Even when it was decided that 'Titans' would be the nickname, there was confusion as to what it represented," said Becker. "I was thinking of a large mythological figure from Greek history, not unlike Tommy Trojan, but with perhaps straighter, more modern lines. In the same vein, the original dormitories were named Othrys Hall. There were others, however, who related the name to the Titan missile then in prominence."

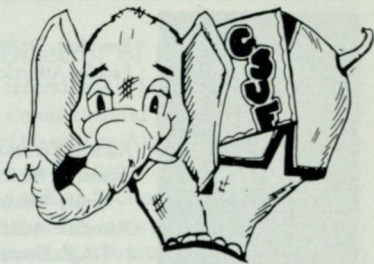

The current emblem

the hastily graded field became known that spring afternoon in 1962.

To publicize the event, a circus-like elephant called Tuffy the Titan was used and it began appearing on sweaters and notebook covers around the campus. With no other mascot, the elephant was unofficially adopted. Several revisions in the caricature have been made in recent years to create a more tenacious Tuffy, or Titus as he also was called in an attempt to make him Greek.

The mascot outlived the race. In 1963, one elephant charged the crowd causing minor injuries and an early sign of a now-common liability insurance crisis nipped a tradition in the bud.

The origin of the school colors also bears discussion. The students voted for royal blue and white when they chose Titans, but the athletic equipment manager at the time thought orange was an appropriate color on uniforms for a school known as Orange County State College. The unofficial color was "adopted" and finally was formally acknowledged by the Athletics

An early Tuffy

Nothing official was done about a mascot because no one knew quite what to do. Until, of course, the "First Intercollegiate Elephant Race in Human History."

What began as a practical joke turned into probably the biggest "happening" on the campus to this day. The "gag" attracted elephants from universities around the nation and even Oxford from England. A crowd estimated at more than 10,000 people turned out on "Dumbo Downs" as

Council in 1987. A change to a navy blue in uniforms and printing instead of the "reflex" blue of recent years was initiated in 1992 with a de-emphasis of the orange, furthered by former athletic director Lynn Eilefson in the mid 1980s.

And, finally, there is the matter of the school's name. As mentioned earlier, the name originally was Orange County State College. It's also been Orange State College and later California State College at Fullerton or California State College, Fullerton. The change to university status necessitated a further change to California State University, Fullerton, but the school's address could not be changed from 800 N. State College Boulevard. And that's only the start of the confusion.

To out-of-staters, the picture clouds quickly because most don't realize there are two distinct systems of higher education in the state — the University of California and the State University system. So, the school has been called everything from Cal-Fullerton to UC Fullerton to California State Fullerton State to simply Fullerton State. The preferred moniker is Cal State Fullerton, with no hyphens or commas, which is what most of the more than 95,000 graduates recognize. But since there are only two other major institutions known as Titans (Univ. of Detroit and Oral Roberts University), just call Fullerton teams the "Titans!"

History of Titan Athletics

Obstacles and adversity. Grass-roots support and coaches with "sandwich board" signs. Stunning upsets and courageous performances. All have been a part of Cal State Fullerton athletics as "Titan Pride" has taken limited resources to athletic successes disproportionate to such a young institution.

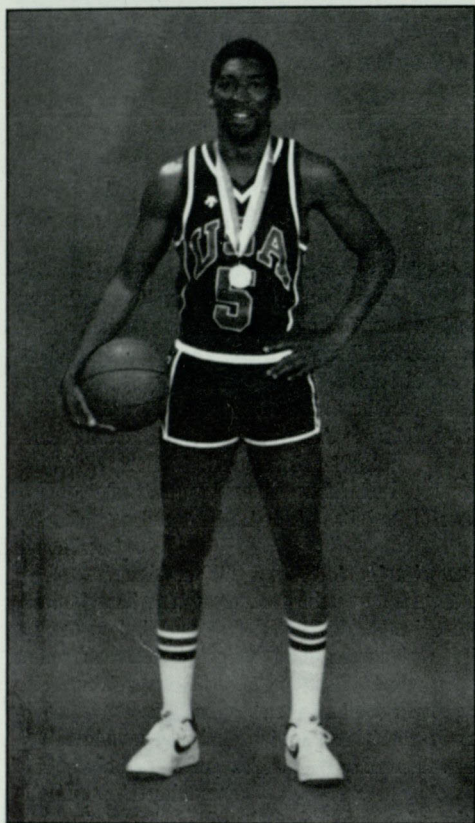

How many universities can claim national championships in seven different sports, a perennial All-Star major league third baseman, baseball and men and women basketball players in the Olympics, two rookies in the Super Bowl, the subject matter of a Walt Disney feature film and the first player selected in the major league baseball draft?

The tenor was set by the first Titan intercollegiate team - men's basketball. In only their second season, the Titans of coach Alex Omalev advanced five rounds into the NAIA national playoffs in 1961-62.

Sixteen seasons later, the entire nation watched another "cinderella" Titan Five advance to within one victory of the "Final Four" as Bobby Dye's 1977-78 team won the Pacific Coast Athletic Association post-season tournament and then beat nationally ranked New Mexico and USF to gain the finals of the Western Regional.

The basketball tradition, which included a women's national title in 1970 and coach Billie Moore and star Nancy Dunkle on the women's 1976 Olympic team, was continued in 1984 as Leon Wood helped the men to a gold medal before he became a first-round NBA draft choice. Coach George McQuarn's teams were usually factors in the PCAA race and had national Top 20 rankings and a victory over the nation's No. 1-ranked and undefeated team to their credit. Fullerton, which seemingly specialized in last-second wins behind 1992 NBA slam dunk champion Cedric Ceballos, also has competed twice in the post-season NIT Tournament while the women have recently been in both the WNIT and the NCAA fields. In 1991, Genia Miller was selected a Kodak All-America after ranking No. 2 in the nation in scoring and blocked shots and No. 7 in rebounding.

Gymnastics has brought Fullerton more fame. Former men's Coach Dick Wolfe won three college division titles (1971, 1972 and 1974) and had recent teams in the Top Ten at the Division I level while winning 10 PCAA titles in a row. His 1987 squad was ranked No. 1 in the nation led by former Chinese Olympian Li Xiao Ping. Lynn Rogers began the women's program in 1976 and the Titans have finished sixth or better in the nation virtually every year and won the national title in 1979. One-armed Carol Johnston was an All-American and star of the Disney film, "Lefty," while more recently Tami Elliott won 10 All-American awards before suffering a fractured vertebra in her senior season.

Baseball exploded on the national scene with the arrival of coach Augie Garrido. He broke the USC monopoly in the western regionals in 1975 and won the national title in 1979 behind the play of Tim Wallach, now of the Montreal Expos. He won the College World Series again in 1984 with players such as CWS Most Valuable Player John Fishel. The Titans won their first six-team regional and finished third in the CWS in 1988 under the direction of Coach Larry Cochell, who in 1990 guided them to a Big West title, a regional championship at Texas and a sixth trip to Omaha in 1990. A total of 16 Titan products have played in the major leagues and now Garrido is back from a 3-year stint at Illinois. He punctuated his return with a share of the 1991 Big West title and a second-place finish in the 1992 College World Series despite losing his old diamond to construction for the new complex. Fullerton has a current 12-game winning streak in regional play -- all on the road at Starkville, Austin and Baton Rouge-- and boasted two players on the 1992 Olympic team in Phil Nevin and Jason Moler, who could not play due to an injury. Nevin, the College World Series MVP and Baseball America's College Player of the Year, also gained national attention as the first player selected (by the Houston Astros) in the 1992 amateur draft.

Women have sparkled on the Fullerton diamonds, too. Coach Judi Garman founded the softball program in 1980 and the Titans have been a powerhouse, making seven trips to the College World Series and 13 consecutive regional appearances. The Titans brought home their first NCAA Championship in 1986 and often have been ranked No. 1 in the country.

There have been national titles in men's cross country and women's fencing and individual standouts like golfer Martha Wilkerson and runner Mark Covert.

Football has had its moments, too. Dick Coury was the inaugural coach in 1970 and he built an instant winner at the Division II level. The Titans were 27-16-1 over the first four years under Coury and successor Pete Yoder before the growing pains of moving up to Div. I were endured. The program came of age under the guidance of Gene Murphy in the 1980s with a pair of conference championships and four runnerup finishes in a seven-year span between 1983 and 1989. The new stadium complex should add more luster to the Titan football and athletic reputation.

Head Coach Brad Holland

First Year UCLA, '79

Brad Holland, who has made his mark on Southern California basketball on the high school, college and professional levels, begins his head coaching career at Cal State Fullerton in the 1992-93 season.

An assistant to Jim Harrick at UCLA for the past four seasons, Holland was tendered a three-year contract on Apr. 8 by CSUF Athletic Director Bill Shumard.

"I'm excited and ready to get started at Fullerton," said Holland upon his appointment. "I feel very good about reaching a short-term goal to be a Division I head coach in a very competitive conference. There is the challenge of moving on and I am looking very much forward to it.

"I've grown up in Southern California and with Cal State Fullerton as a university and a basketball program. I have good memories of Titan Gym where I had a terrific game in the CIF-City All-Star game."

Holland, who will turn 36 on Dec. 6, helped Harrick and the Bruins return to national prominence while compiling a 93-35 record that took them to four NCAA tournaments. Holland worked with the offense and coordinated scouting and recruiting efforts while monitoring academics for this past year's 27-5 squad that advanced to the Final Eight.

Holland was a football and basketball star at Crescenta Valley High School. He was a four-year basketball letterman at UCLA and played with the Los Angeles Lakers and two other National Basketball Association teams before retiring in 1982 due to a knee injury. He entered private business and also was a broadcaster for PrimeTicket from 1985 to 1988.

"Brad has been around the game of basketball all of his life," said Shumard. "Despite his lack of head coaching experience, he has learned the game from and been associated with some of the greats in basketball."

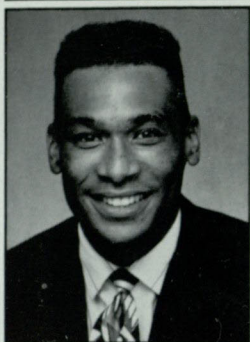

Holland was a part of four Pac-10 championship teams at UCLA from 1976 to 1979, two under Coach Gene Bartow and two under Coach Gary Cunningham. The Bruins went 102-17 during Holland's playing career and he was an honorable mention All-America and second-team Academic All-America as a senior. That year he averaged 17.5 points and 4.8 assists and had a .598 field goal percentage, the best ever by a Bruin guard.

The Lakers drafted Holland in 1979 on the first round (the 14th player chosen) and went on to win the 1980 NBA championship. The rookie guard scored eight points in the decisive sixth game at Philadelphia. He finished his playing career in 1981-82 with Washington and Milwaukee.

Holland is the sixth head coach in Titan history following Alex Omalev (1961-72), Moe Radovich (1973), Bobby Dye (1974-80), George McQuarn (1981-88) and John Sneed (1989-92).

Holland and his wife, Leslie, currently live in La Canada with twin daughters Lisa and Kristin, 10, and infant son Kyle. They plan to relocate to Orange County.

Assistant Coaches

Chris Brazier

Montana State ('84)

Chris Brazier is an experienced but still youthful addition to Brad Holland's first Titan coaching staff.

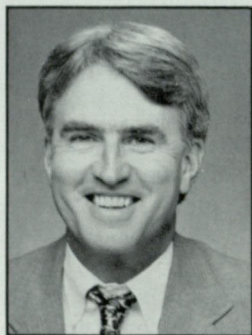

Brazier, 32, begins his seventh year as a collegiate coach, his second full season on a fulltime basis. He worked last year as a full-time assistant to Ernie Kent at Saint Mary's College in Moraga after one season as a part-time coach at Santa Clara.

Prior to those West Coast Conference assignments, Chris was an assistant for two seasons (1988-90) at West Valley Community College in Saratoga where the Vikings won the Golden Gate Conference championship in 1989-90 after a second-place finish in 1988-89. In 1986-87 and 1987-88 he was at the University of the Pacific, first as a graduate assistant and then earning a promotion to a full-time position after a mid-season coaching change.

Two head coaches directed Brazier during his playing career as a small forward at Montana State. Bruce Haroldson was the coach during his junior year and Stu Starnier was the head man his senior season. Chris received his bachelor's degree in Organizational Communications and earned a master's in Human Behavior at National University in 1990.

Brazier has coached in numerous camps and clinics and worked with the Los Angeles Slam 'n Jam Development League. He is single and lives in Carson.

Bob Hawking

Cal State Northridge ('71)

Bob Hawking joins Brad Holland's inaugural Cal State Fullerton staff after two seasons at UC Davis with Head Coach Bob Williams.

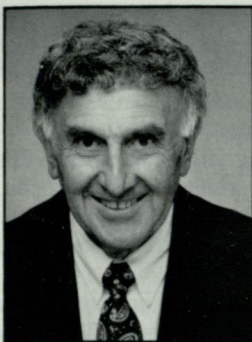

Hawking, 43, has deep Southern California basketball roots. He served the previous two years as an assistant at Pepperdine after a long and successful career on the high school level. He was the head coach for 14 seasons at Simi Valley High School where he took his teams to the CIF playoffs nine times and won five Marmonte League championships. His 1987 team was ranked No. 4 in the state and the following year his team won the CIF championship and climbed to No. 3 in the state led by the play of Don MacLean, who went on to become the all-time leading scorer in the Pac-10 for UCLA. Hawking was selected CIF Southern Section AAAA Coach of the Year in 1988 and won similar honors from the Los Angeles Times in 1986 when Simi Valley was CIF runnerup. He was league coach of the year six times.

Hawking began his coaching career at Pater Noster High in Los Angeles before moving to Simi Valley in 1972 as the junior varsity coach. He has served as coach and director for numerous basketball camps and all-star games throughout California.

The playing career of Hawking began at Alemany High School in Mission Hills and continued at Pierce College in Woodland Hills and Cal State Northridge.

Bob and his wife, Jeannie, have three children. Kristin, 14, and Quinn, 10, are at home while son Butch is head coach of the Air Force Academy Prep School in Colorado Springs after graduating from the Air Force Academy in May.

Ed Goorjian

Cal State Los Angeles ('51)

Ed Goorjian's presence on the Cal State Fullerton basketball staff for 1992-93 represents two "homecomings" of sorts. Goorjian returns to Fullerton where he was an assistant during the 1985-86 season under Coach George McQuarn. And, he returns a favor to Head Coach Brad Holland, who played for Goorjian at Crescenta Valley High School.

Goorjian served the past three years on Jerry Tarkanian's staff at UNLV. Before that he coached one year as a volunteer for George Raveling at USC after directing the Hellal Club in Saudi Arabia for two years.

Holland was one of five prep All-Americans and 32 Division I players who played for Goorjian, who established himself as one of the top prep coaches in the state by compiling a 427-103 record at Crescenta Valley. He won seven league championships and won California High School Coach of the Year honors in 1977 and the William S. Hockwell Award as National High School Coach of the Year in 1978.

Goorjian moved to Glendale College in 1979 and guided the Vaqueros to 19 wins in his first season, an improvement of 18 victories over the previous year's total.

Loyola Marymount soon beckoned and Goorjian was an assistant for two years. He became head coach in 1980 and served for five years. He posted a 2-2 record against McQuarn and Fullerton.

Ed and his wife, Joyce, have three sons -- Brian, Kevin and Greg. The latter was an All-American player for Ed at Crescenta Valley and went on to play for Arizona State, Loyola Marymount and UNLV. Brian and Kevin both are coaching in the National Basketball League of Australia, where Brian was voted Coach of the Year for 1992.

Season Preview

"Adjustment" may be the most definitive one-word assessment of Cal State Fullerton's men's basketball program for the 1992-93 season.

New head Coach Brad Holland inherits a solid returning nucleus from last year's 12-16 Titans' club, but he's approaching the season with his eyes wide open.

"There most definitely will be an adjustment period, for me being a head coach for the first time and for the players getting to know our system and what we expect from them," said Holland, who was hired Apr. 8.

"We have a reduced amount of practice time and don't play our pre-season schedule until early December due to new NCAA regulations, so we will need to make further adjustments. Our staff doesn't know what anyone can do. The players will be competing freely for playing time and everyone will be given an opportunity to show what he can do."

Three starters return in second-team All-Big West Conference small forward Bruce Bowen, point guard Aaron Sunderland and center Sean Williams. Kim Kemp saw extensive duty as a starter and reserve at both the center and power forward spots. But all four are seniors and junior guard Greg Vernon is the only other player who boasts any significant Div. I playing experience.

"Playing time will be based on three things -- work ethic, attitude and performance," said Holland, who spent the past four years as an assistant at UCLA. "Those who show these three things well are going to be the guys that play. Everyone needs to prove himself. They have to prove to us what they can do. I have an idea of ability but don't know about work ethic and how they practice day to day."

The quintet above has a big edge in game experience. Bowen is a two-year starter who averaged 14.6 points and 7.0 rebounds in 1991-92. Defense and scoring out of the transition game and off the offensive backboard are his strong suits.

Sunderland started all but one game last year after a redshirt season and averaged 11.1 points and 6.5 assists. Williams came on strong in the second half of the season and ended up averaging 9.1 points and 5.9 rebounds. Kemp played both interior positions, starting seven games, and averaged 4.4 points and 4.8 rebounds. Vernon served as backup the past two years for off guard Joe Small, who carried the scoring load (14.9 points) a year ago along with power forward Agee Ward (18.0 points and 7.5 rebounds).

"After this nucleus, the picture is very unclear and it will be interesting to see in pre-season practice who emerges that will help," said Holland. "Todd Satalowich, Dijon Bernard, Don Leary and maybe Casey Sheahan. If they emerge, they will make us more competitive."

Satalowich, a power forward, was a late transfer from the University of Missouri and played only 67 minutes last season. Bernard is a wing player from Ventura College who sat out last season. Leary is a perimeter shooter who transferred from Mt. San Jacinto College where he averaged 22.7 points while Sheahan is an incoming freshman from Taft High School in Woodland Hills who might play either point or shooting guard.

Rounding out the roster are sophomore forward Chauncey Woolridge, redshirt freshman forward Ray Hooper and walk-ons forward Andre Toliver and guard Sharif Metoyer. Woolridge and Toliver combined for only 17 minutes last year. Hooper is from San Diego's University High and Metoyer is from Long Beach Poly.

Dijon Bernard sat out a redshirt season behind off guard Joe Small and will try to make an impact this season for new Coach Brad Holland and his staff... lefthanded swing type player who is most effective in the transition game... he is an accomplished scorer from the wing who averaged 17 points per game in 1990-91 for Ventura College while also grabbing 6 rebounds per game... all-conference selection for Coach Phil Mathews, a former Titan assistant... won team's academic award with a 2.9 grade point average... Titan fans hope he can merely approach the success of the last Ventura transfer to Fullerton -- Cedric Ceballos, now of the Phoenix Suns... three-year varsity letterman at Dominguez High School (also Ceballos' alma mater) in Compton for Coach Russell Otis... first-team All-CIF choice as a senior... also all-league, All-South Coast, all-state and honorable mention All-America... averaged 15 points and 5 rebounds per game... second-team All-CIF, all-league and All-South Coast as a sophomore... was Most Improved Player on the freshmen team... criminal justice major... mother is Sarah Peterson.

Major: Business Administration

Bruce Bowen is in line for a starring role with the Titans in 1992-93... the leading returning scorer and rebounder from last year's squad and a second-team All-Big West Conference selection... has excelled at all aspects of the game in a supportive role, but now may have to step forward as the leader... at his best in the transition game and works the offensive backboards extremely well... creates match-up problems -- big men have trouble with his quickness and small players can't handle his height, reach and leaping ability... with 383 rebounds, Bruce ranks No. 10 on the Titans' career list... needs 286 points to become the 14th Titan to break the 1,000-point mark... with 29 career 3-point field goals, ranks No. 7 on Titans' career list.

LAST YEAR: Averaged 14.6 points and 7.0 rebounds... was third on team in scoring behind Agee Ward (18.0) and Joe Small (14.9) and was No. 2 rebounder behind Ward (7.5)... defensively, he usually drew opponents' top scoring forward... led team with 51 steals and had 23 blocked shots... third on team with 70 assists... of his 196 rebounds, 86 came at the offensive end... had a couple of high-scoring spurts in the middle of the season... in Games Nos. 4-7 averaged 22.5 points... in Games Nos. 17-21 averaged 21.4 points... had a career-best of 28 points at Portland on Dec. 14... had 27 points in overtime win vs. Utah State on Feb. 6... started every game except Seniors Night.

SOPHOMORE YEAR: Started 23 games, all at small forward, after growing two inches during off season... averaged 9.8 points and 6.0 rebounds per game... led team with 24 blocked shots... got late start on conditioning due to October surgery for removal of a benign polyp in his nasal passage... the procedure was made possible by funds from the Jim Everett (Rams' QB) Charitable Foundation... had season high 21 points including 14 of team's final 24 in win over Portland on Dec. 20... scored 19 along with a career high 14 rebounds vs. Fresno State on Feb. 9... averaged only 2.5 points and 3.5 rebounds vs. UNLV but averaged 16 points and 9.5 rebounds vs. New Mexico State.

FRESHMAN YEAR: Saw extensive action in only three of 18 appearances... had season-high 9 points in season opener vs. Lamar on Nov. 24 in 10 minutes... had 4 points and season-high 5 rebounds in 18-minute effort on Dec. 30 vs. Middle Tennessee in Casper Shootout... had 7 points and 4 rebounds in 10 minutes in Jan. 25 home rout of UC Irvine... hit pair of 3-point attempts in futile rally at UCI on Feb. 24.

HIGH SCHOOL: Player of the Year in Fresno for Edison High School in 1988-89... All-Central Section and honorable mention all-state... nominated for McDonald's High School All-America squad... Most Valuable Player for Edison... two-year letterman... averaged 20.3 points and 7.1 rebounds as a senior for Coach Bill Engle.

PERSONAL: Among his biggest sports thrills have been beating No. 1 Westchester in a tournament and scoring 42 points in a losing effort against Crenshaw High of Los Angeles... credits Edison Coach Hart Polk with biggest influence on his career to date: "he taught me never to be satisfied with my play and always try to improve"... also recruited by Fresno State, San Jose State, Pacific, Weber State and Texas-San Antonio... picked Fullerton because of its up-tempo style of play... business administration major... parents are Deitra Campbell and Bruce Bowen, Sr.

TITANS ON THE AIR

All of Cal State Fullerton's 1992-93 basketball games will be carried live on Money Radio -- KMNY (1600 AM). Sports Information Director Mel Franks will serve as play by play announcer as he completes his first year as "Voice of the Titans" after doing the 1992 NCAA Baseball Regionals and College World Series and the 1992 football season.

Fullerton's appearances on television were still in negotiations. Definitely airing will be two SportsChannel contests -- at UC Irvine on Jan. 16 and at Long Beach State on Jan. 21.

13 Aaron Sunderland G

Yr.: Senior

Ht.: 6-1 Wt.: 165

Age: 22 Birthdate: 4-23-70

Birthplace: Hampton, VA

Residence: Fullerton

High School: Northwest

Junior College: Connors State

Major: Criminal Justice

Aaron Sunderland returns to give the Titans a quick and experienced point guard to direct the up-tempo attack for 1992-93... Aaron started every game but one last year and combined scoring with playmaking skills... exceptionally good man-to-man defender who can guard an opponent the length of the floor... had to sit out the 1991-92 season due to irregularities with his national letter of intent but practiced with the team... was a key member of Connors State's (Warner, Oklahoma) national championship team of 1989-90.

LAST YEAR: Started every game except the regular season finale at New Mexico State at the point guard position... averaged 6.5 assists per game, fourth best in school history... ranked No. 2 in the Big West Conference behind Sam Crawford of New Mexico State... averaged 11.1 points per game, fourth best on team... was in double figures in scoring on 15 occasions and in assists three times... had high of 27 points vs. Long Beach Stae on Jan. 25 and 13 assists vs. New Mexico State on Feb. 4... won the Long Beach game with buzzer-beating baskets in both regulation and overtime... his total of 182 assists is sixth best in school history... was team's iron man, playing 1,000 minutes (35.7 minutes per game)... played the entire game 5 times... was under 30 minutes only twice - playing 19 minutes due to foul trouble at Utah

23 Andre Toliver F

Yr.: Sophomore

Ht.: 6-5 Wt.: 210

Age: 20 Birthdate: 7-29-72

Birthplace: Hollywood

Residence: Inglewood

High School: Hawthorne

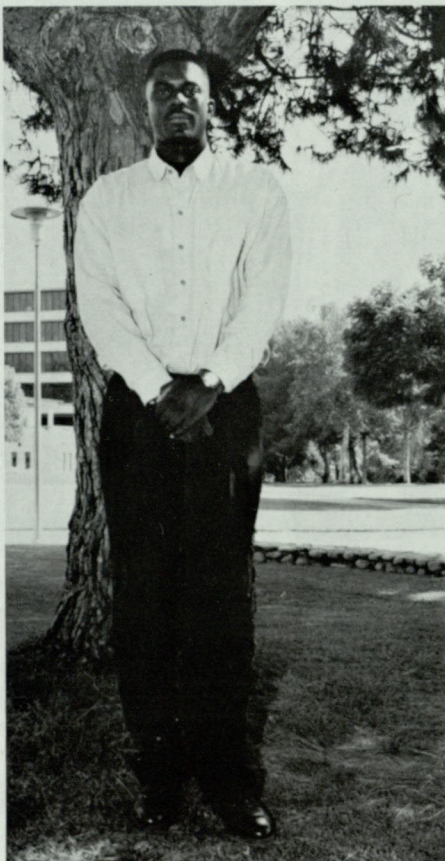

Major: Psychology

Andre Toliver was the only walk-on student-athlete to make the Titans' basketball roster in 1991-92 and he was a valuable practice player... with shortage of front-line depth, he could challenge for more playing time this season... strong, physical player.

LAST YEAR: Appeared in only 4 games, all in the final minute of runaway victories... missed only shot attempt, vs. Northridge on Dec. 21... only other statistic was a foul vs. Pacific on Feb. 27.

HIGH SCHOOL: Two-year varsity letterman at Hawthorne High School for Coach Richard Wells... was team's Most Improved Player as a senior... averaged 12 points and 9 rebounds and shot 82 per cent from the free-throw line... was the outstanding player on the junior varsity as a sophomore... was a long and triple jumper in track and field as a junior.

PERSONAL: Biggest sports thrill was advancing further into the CIF Playoffs his senior year than any Hawthorne team had progressed... was on the honor roll as a senior with a 3.4 grade point average... psychology major who plans to become a counselor or clinical psychologist... is a second cousin of Jimi Hendrix... parents are Stanley Toliver and Margaret Spratt... has one younger brother.

After two years in the shadow of high-scoring Joe Small, Greg Vernon now has the opportunity to establish himself as a solid Div. I college basketball player... has shown flashes of brilliance during two years as a reserve... has excellent physical tools... a late bloomer whose career didn't take off until his senior year in high school... in 1990-91 his role consisted primarily of giving Small a breather... he averaged 2.1 points and 0.7 rebounds while appearing in 20 games... last year he played in all but one game and doubled his minutes.

LAST YEAR: Appeared in 27 games, starting twice (vs. Cal State Northridge on Dec. 21 and vs. Pacific on Feb. 27)... missed Jan. 18 game vs. UC Irvine with head injury...

played several games late in season with seven stitches in his right (shooting) hand, the result of losing a battle with a rim in practice... averaged 1.8 points, 0.7 assists and 0.5 rebounds while playing an average of 9 minutes per game... had high of 7 points in season opener vs. San Francisco (Nov. 25) and at Houston (Dec. 30), where he hit 3 of 4 shots... improved his field goal and free throw shooting percentages over freshman year.

FRESHMAN YEAR: Played 132 minutes over 20 games... started twice, Jan. 17 vs. Long Beach State and Feb. 21 vs. UC Irvine... made critical plays in late-season win over UC Santa Barbara that clinched a berth in the post-season tournament for the Titans... with Gauchos making a run, Vernon hit a 3-point field goal to beat the shot clock and force a UCSB timeout... he then made a steal and went the distance for a dunk... had career-high 8 points at UNLV on Jan. 4, hitting 6 of 7 free throws... had 6 points in overtime loss at Utah State on Jan. 31, hitting 2-of-2 from both the field and foul line... played 21 minutes in home loss to UC Irvine on Jan. 26.

HIGH SCHOOL: Made great strides in his senior season... averaged 23 points, 7.9 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 2.1 blocked shots for University High and Coach Jim Nakabara... shot 56 per cent from the floor and 75 per cent from the free-throw line... Co-Most Valuable Player of the league... all-city and all-westside selection... nominated for McDonald's All-America team... was leading scorer for the City All-Stars in their 137-124 victory over the CIF Southern Section All-Stars on Apr. 13, 1990 at The Great Western Forum... was MVP of both the Hamilton and Bosco Tech Tournaments, scoring six consecutive "triple doubles"... as a junior was all-league first team, all-westside second team and honorable mention all-city... split time between varsity and junior varsity as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: Credits Coach Roger Milstein with improving his skills both on and off the court... business major who hopes to own a chain of businesses... signed his national letter during the April, 1990 signing period... has two younger sisters... parents are Herbert and Gloria Vernon.

32 Sean Williams C

Yr.: Senior
 Ht.: 6-10 Wt.: 210
 Age: 22 Birthdate: 11-10-70
 Birthplace: Baltimore, MD
 Residence: Baltimore, MD
 High School: Mervo
 Junior College: Connors State
 Major: Criminal Justice

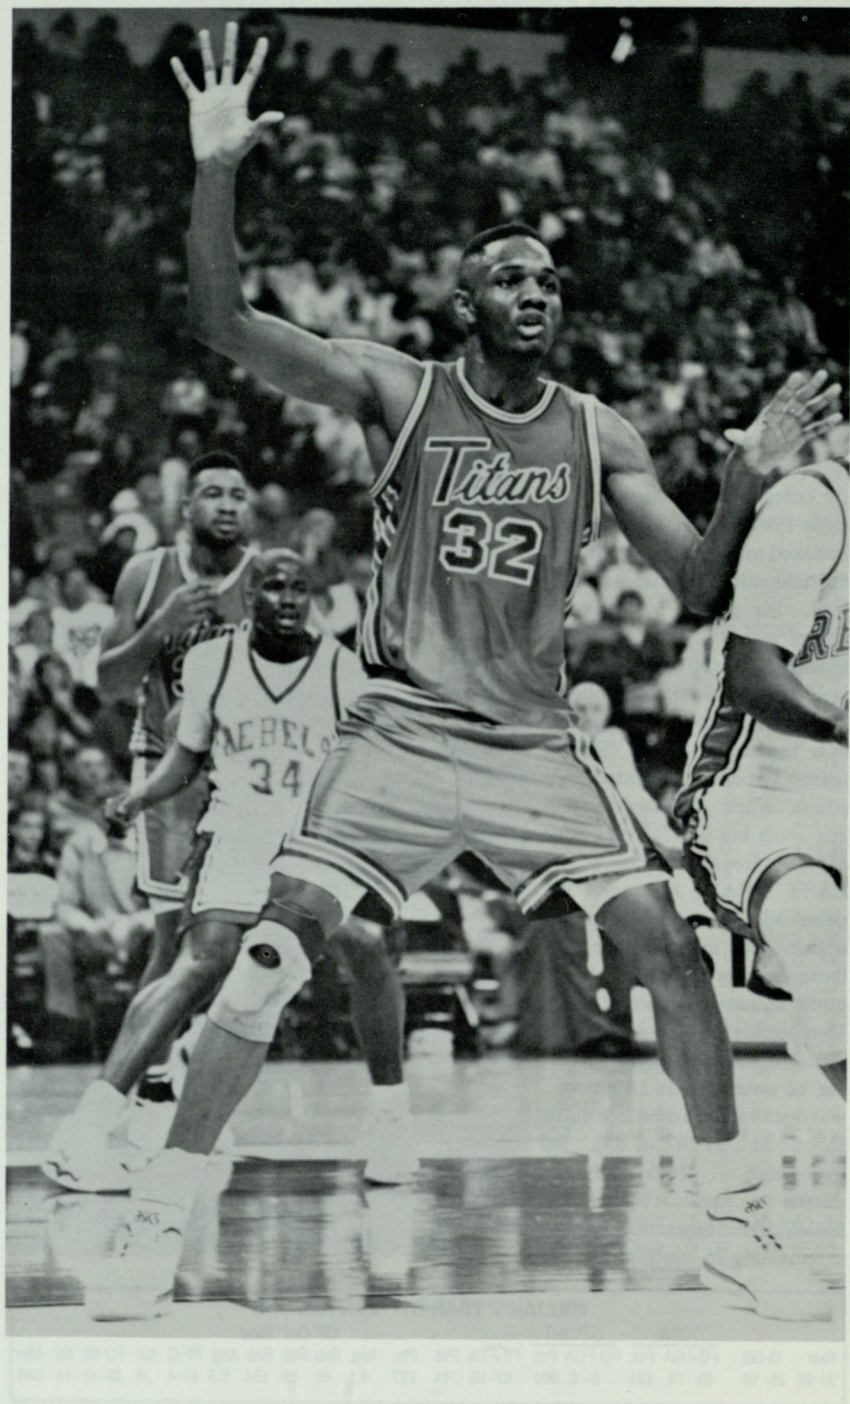

Sean Williams is a big man both literally and figuratively in the Titans' 1992-93 basketball plans... the tallest player in the program since 1984 (Ozell Jones), he will be asked to carry a large share of the rebounding and inside scoring load... his goal is to break the school single-season record for blocked shots (56 by Derek Jones in 1988-89)... Sean was probably the Titans' most improved player over the course of the 1991-92 season and developed into a consistent center... displays unorthodox shots but is effective.. is an excellent free-throw shooter.

LAST YEAR: Averaged 9.1 points and 5.9 rebounds for the season... but in conference play those numbers were 12.2 and 6.1... turned season around with 7-point, 15-rebound effort at Houston (Dec. 30)... was in double figures in scoring 12 times in last 16 games... was team's second-best free throw shooter at .761 (67 of 88)... led team with 41 blocked shots... missed two games with sprained ankle suffered in practice... played in remaining 26, starting 16 times.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Transfer from Connors State JC in Warner, Oklahoma, where he averaged 12 points and 8 rebounds in 1990-91 as a forward... second-team all-conference selection... played his freshman season (1989-90) at Navarro Junior College in Corsicana, Texas, and averaged 6 points and 4 rebounds as a center..

HIGH SCHOOL: A two-year varsity letterman at Mervo High School in Baltimore as a center...averaged 19.9 points and 12 rebounds in his senior year for Coach John Blake... led the state in blocked shots, was No. 5 in rebounding and No. 12 in scoring.

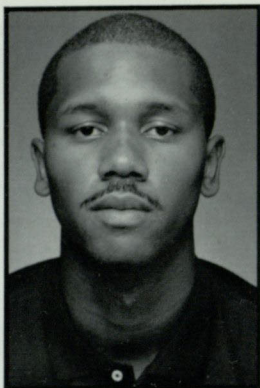

PERSONAL: A criminal justice major who hopes to play professional basketball or become an FBI agent... has a younger brother... parents are Robert Williams and Barbara Chandler.

44 Chauncey Woolridge F

Yr.: Sophomore

Ht.: 6-5 Wt.: 210

Age: 19* Birthdate: 1-18-73

Birthplace: Lexington, KY

Residence: Santa Ana

High School: Santa Ana

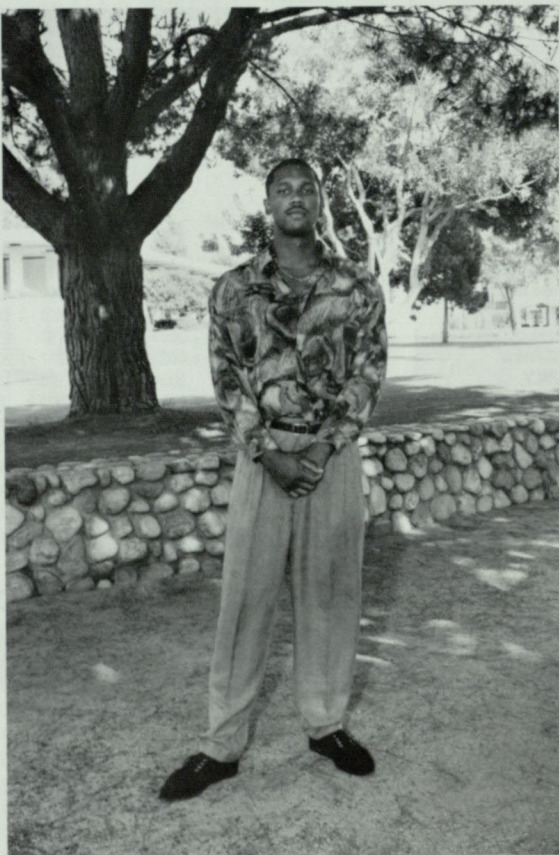

Major: Undeclared

Chauncey Woolridge will get an opportunity to make a major impact on the Titans' 1992-93 season... swing player who likely will have more opportunity on the front line.

LAST YEAR: Saw only 13 minutes of action as a true freshman last season... played 7 of those minutes in regular season finale at New Mexico State when he grabbed 2 rebounds.

HIGH SCHOOL: A talented high school player who was beleaguered by ankle injuries and didn't capture the attention of many college scouts during summer league and camp activity... averaged 26 points and 12 rebounds for Coach Todd Morse at Santa Ana High School.

PERSONAL: Credits Coaches Greg Katz and Nash Rivera for greatest influence on his career -- Katz for being so hard on him and making him strive for the best and Rivera for believing in his ability... most memorable

Asst. Commissioner

JOHN DANGLEIS
Supervisor of Officials

The Big West Conference is in its fifth year of existence since changing its name from the Pacific Coast Athletic Association prior to the 1988 football season and it has a new look for the 1992-93 basketball season

Dennis Farrell, who has worked in the conference office in a variety of roles since 1980, was named Commissioner in August. And Fresno State, a charter member in 1969, has moved to the Western Athletic Conference and been replaced by the University of Nevada.

The name was changed to reflect a simpler, more accurate description of the league's 11 member institutions -- Cal State Fullerton, Long Beach State, Nevada, New Mexico State, San Jose State, UC Irvine, UC Santa Barbara, Hawaii (women's sports only), UNLV, Pacific and Utah State.

Basketball success among Big West institutions has been growing over the years and reached its apex in 1989-90 when UNLV won the NCAA championship in convincing fashion over Duke yet couldn't even claim sole possession of the Big West championship. New Mexico State tied the Rebels for the regular season title and actually was the No. 1 seed in the post-season tournament in Long Beach. The league's third-place team, UC Santa Barbara, went on to beat Houston in the first round of the NCAA tourney and help the Big West top all other conferences in tournament play with a .778 percentage (7-2).

In 1990-91, UNLV was ranked No. 1 in the nation all season until losing to Duke in the semifinals of the Final Four. New Mexico State again was ranked nationally, but Cal State Fullerton was the only other team to avoid a losing overall season. Last year, New Mexico State captured the nation's fancy by advancing to the Sweet 16.

1991-92 in Review

For the second year in a row, the Cal State Fullerton men's basketball team outperformed the pre-season prognosticators but not well enough to get over the .500 mark.

The Titans were predicted to finish eighth by both the media and the coaches at the annual Big West Conference Media Day in November but they gained a share of sixth place with Pacific at 8-10 in the conference and 12-16 overall.

The 4-5 non-conference portion of the schedule went pretty much according to form. The closest thing to an exception was game No. 3 at Eastern Illinois, where the Titans squandered a late 5-point lead and then fell victim to some devastating foul and no foul calls in the final seconds of a 1-point loss. Otherwise, Fullerton lost as an underdog at Butler, UCLA and Houston and won as the favorite at home over San Francisco, Cal State Northridge and Drake. The Titans hung on for a road victory at improved Portland but couldn't beat eventual West Coast Conference champion Pepperdine in Titan Gym.

The Big West schedule maker put the Titans in a hole from the outset. After a home game against powerful UNLV, Fullerton went on the road for its next three games. The Titans were 0-3 before they halted the slide by holding on for a victory at UC Irvine. A frustrating home loss to UC Santa Barbara was followed by a thrilling overtime win over Long Beach State. That triggered a spurt where the Titans won five of seven games, losing only at Pacific and in the closing seconds at home to New Mexico State.

That positive momentum was abruptly reversed on a week-long road trip in late February. The Titans lost soundly at UNLV and then fell apart in crunch time in losses at Long Beach State and UC Santa Barbara. A return to Titan Gym cured those ills as the Titans easily beat Pacific and then had to rally in the closing minutes to beat last-place San Jose State. The season finale at Las Cruces was a narrow loss but also a confidence booster for the bench, which was pressed into starting duty by illness, injuries and disciplinary moves and responded surprisingly well.

The Big West Conference Tournament opened on Friday the 13th and if the Titans weren't superstitious before the game, they were after. First, because they lost a coin flip with Pacific, they had to play Long Beach State on its part-time home floor. They had a rusty Agee Ward, who hadn't practiced in 13 days due to back problems, and a rusty Joe Small, who had not played in a game in 9 days due to illness. To compound things, Bruce Bowen got into foul trouble, the 49ers had a collective hot hand from 3-point range and two key calls down the stretch went Long Beach's way. The result was a 77-71 49ers' win that ended the Fullerton season and the prolific careers of Ward and Small.

The three returning starters from 1990-91 played to mixed reviews. Forward Ward lifted his game and led the team in scoring and rebounding while increasing his playing time to about 32 minutes per game. Small forward Bowen improved his scoring and challenged Ward for the rebounding lead. But guard Small lost his shooting touch at Houston and never recovered in Big West play, where he had been the conference's No. 2 scorer a year earlier.

Newcomers progressed with the schedule. Point guard Aaron Sunderland developed into a scoring threat while cutting down on his turnovers and ranking in the top 15 in the nation in assists. Center Sean Williams rebounded from an educational non-conference schedule to average double figures in Big West play and Kim Kemp adapted to his role as rebounder and shot blocker while improving his shooting touch and cutting down on his fouls.

The Titans opened the 1991-92 season with mid-season shooting form in a 93-84 victory marred only by 21 turnovers.

Newcomers Aaron Sunderland, Sean Williams and Kim Kemp all made significant contributions with Sunderland leading a trio of Titans with 19 points.

USF took an early lead, saw Fullerton go on a 12-4 run to take control and then led for the last time at 32-30 on a free throw at 6:22 by Kevin Weeks.

Fullerton used a 16-9 run at the end of the half for a 46-41 lead at the intermission. The Dons closed to within four points on a couple of occasions but that was as close as the West Coast Conference visitors would get. Greg Vernon and Kemp hit free throws to open the gap. Fullerton's lead never got larger than 11 points but accurate free-throw shooting down the stretch kept the Titans in control.

Nine players -- five Dons -- scored in double figures in the fast-paced contest that featured 60 free throws. Four fouls -- three on Fullerton -- were called in the first minute of the tightly officiated contest.

Icy cold weather in the Midwest greeted the Titans on their first road trip. A blizzard in Chicago stranded them on their plane for more than three hours and caused them to miss practice the night before the game in Indianapolis.

At historic Hinkle Fieldhouse, once the largest basketball arena in America and the actual as well as film site of the Indiana prep basketball tournament depicted in "Hoosiers," the Titans stayed even with the host Bulldogs until a pair of untimely turnovers.

After J. D. Green's dunk put the Titans ahead, 74-69, with 7:06 to play, the Bulldogs rallied. They went on a 12-2 run to take an 81-76 lead at 4:02. Bruce Bowen's 3-point play cut the gap to 81-79 but a dunk by burly center J. P. Brens was followed by two midcourt steals that resulted in 5 Bulldog points and an 88-79 lead and the game was essentially over. Butler would continue the assault and author a 19-2 run before Aaron Sunderland's jumper with 0:10 to go.

Joe Small matched his career high with 33 points. He ignited a 17-6 Titan run that turned a 63-57 deficit into the 74-69 lead on Green's dunk.

Fullerton missed getting a split on its opening road trip when the Titans couldn't hold a late 5-point lead in Charleston.

The Titans and Panthers shot as cold as the sub-freezing weather outside and the outcome was decided by the last official's call. Fullerton had a 57-56 lead and Aaron Sunderland at the foul line with 28 seconds to play. He missed the front end of the one-and-one opportunity and in the struggle for the rebound, J. D. Green was cited for a foul even though he was lying prone on the floor. Steve Rowe converted both of his free throw tries and the Titans couldn't get a clean shot before the buzzer as Joe Small came up short of the rim in traffic at the top of the key.

Neither team led by more than 5 points in the game. Fullerton led early, 6-1, and 53-48 with 5:50 to go after a pair of buckets by Agee Ward. But David Olson, who was 0-for-4 to the that point from 3-point range, banged in two in a row and the Panthers were on top, 54-53. Two Bruce Bowen free throws and Small's bucket put Fullerton up 57-54 with 1:44 to go. Center Curtis Leib muscled in a short shot to set the stage for the decisive missed free throw and foul call.

Eastern Illinois' 5-point lead came at 43-38 eight minutes into the second half but Fullerton went on an 8-0 run.

Pepperdine and Fullerton renewed their Southern California rivalry and played another tight game that Pepperdine pulled out after a furious Titan rally. The final outcome was determined at the foul line, where the Waves made 23 of 29 shots to an 8 of 15 performance by the home team.

Fullerton spurted late in the first half of a very even game that was tied six times and had eight lead changes before intermission. The Titans went ahead, 27-21, at 3:03, but the Waves scored the next 9 points and led at the half, 30-29.

After Joe Small's 3-pointer gave Fullerton a 2-point lead, Pepperdine went on a 17-4 run for a 47-36 lead at 15:30. The Waves gradually opened it up to 15 points at 6:50 with 7:24 left, at which time Bruce Bowen ignited a 13-0 run with 7 unanswered points. Fullerton was down, 65-63, with 4:25 to go. But Rick Weich hit his fourth 3-pointer of the game for a 68-63 lead to snap a 3:15 scoreless period and the Titans would never get closer. Geoff Lear scored 6 of his team-high 20 points in the final 1:56.

The victory ran Pepperdine's record to 5-1 with the only loss coming big at UCLA. The Titans fell to 1-3.

What was shaping up as a laughter turned into a near nightmare for the Titans at the Chiles Center in Portland.

Fullerton parlayed phenomenal efforts by Agee Ward and Bruce Bowen into a 21-point lead at 74-53 with 11:18 to play. The Titans had used an 11-0 run to take the lead for good at 31-21 with 8:30 to go in the first half.

The lead was still 17 points at 79-62 with 7:38 to play and 11 points at 89-78 with 2:41 to go.

But the Pilots started hitting 3-pointers from all angles and positions. Peter McKelvey's second of the game closed the gap to 92-88 with 0:49 to play. Uba Satterfield hit his fourth 3-pointer 17 seconds later to cut the margin to 93-91. A Ward dunk and a Joe Small free throw opened the margin to 5 points but McKelvey threw in another 3-pointer from the hip to make it 96-94 with 0:09 to go. The Titans inbounced successfully and Ward hit two free throws with 0:02 to go.

Ward's career-high 35 points and career-high equalling 15 rebounds along with his solid game against Pepperdine earned him his first Big West Conference Player of the Week Award. Bowen's 28 points were a career high as well.

The Titans hosted a struggling Cal State Northridge team that came into Titan Gym with an 0-8 record but a history of playing games close until the final minutes.

The Titans never gave the Matadors a chance to seriously threaten. Northridge, playing as a Division I independent, scored first, but Fullerton went on a 15-3 run and never looked back. The Matadors closed to within 3 points at 32-29 on Andre Chevalier's 3-point play with 2:41 to go in the first half before the Titans scored the next 7 points and settled for a 9-point halftime lead.

A 7-0 spurt manufactured by Bruce Bowen and Aaron Sunderland put Fullerton ahead by 19, 55-36, with 14:11 to go in the game and Northridge never got closer than 16 points. The Titans' lead grew to as many as 25 points and Coach John Sneed was able to clear his bench early and start thinking about the game at UCLA in two nights.

As if they needed it, the Titans enjoyed one of their hottest nights ever behind the 3-point line, hitting 6 of 7 attempts.

The folly of looking at comparative scores was exposed again at Pauley Pavilion. Fullerton had lost at home to Pepperdine by 10 and the Waves had lost at UCLA by 40. So, were the No. 2-ranked Bruins really 50 points better than the Titans?

With 3:19 to play, they were one point worse. Agee Ward's spinning 6-footer in the paint had given Fullerton a 74-73 lead and raised the possibility of a major upset.

But UCLA responded, primarily with its defense. After Tyus Edney's long 3-pointer put UCLA ahead by 2 points, the Bruins converted a couple of steals into a pair of layups and quickly it was 81-74 UCLA with 2:13 to play.

Fullerton did not throw in the towel. Sean Williams and Aaron Sunderland hit buckets around an Edney miss at the foul line and it was 81-78 with 0:29 to play. Edney hit one free throw and then Don MacLean rebounded the missed second attempt and turned the subsequent foul into two free throws for an 84-78 lead.

Ward had a sensational game and would go on to earn his second Big West Conference Player of the Week Award. Had Joe Small had a hotter hand, it would have been the Titans' first triumph in four tries at Pauley, where they will give it a go again in the 1992-93 season.

Fullerton found someone a little more its size and got them on their home court as the Drake Bulldogs rolled into Titan Gym for their inaugural appearance and the first of a two-game series that will take the Titans to Des Moines, Iowa in December of 1992.

Coach Rudy Washington, who, like Coach John Sneed, has roots to Verbum Dei High School in Los Angeles, saw his Drake team stay with the Titans until the end. The Bulldogs had their last lead of the game at 16-15 with 6:50 to go in the first half, but they never fell too far behind as Kevin Sams worked the offensive backboards and the paint on his way to a 20-point night.

Countering him from the perimeter was Joe Small, who had a big night from the 3-point line. Small's final 3-pointer of the night put the Titans up by 10 at 55-45 with 9:33 to play after Drake had cut the deficit to 7 points. Bruce Bowen's jumper and dunks by Sean Williams and Aaron Sunderland kept Drake at least 8 points behind the rest of the way.

A 9-1 Fullerton run in the closing two minutes opened the gap to as many as 16 points.

The Titans closed out their non-conference schedule by tackling another perennial collegiate basketball power on the road but they couldn't put up the fight they did at UCLA. Fullerton fell behind at the outset, 12-3, and never was able to recover.

With monuments to Clyde Drexler, Elvin Hayes, Akeem Olajuwon and friends surrounding them, the Titans were unable to overcome a 7-point performance by Joe Small, who was shadowed unmercifully by the physically talented Cougars. Agee Ward had another strong road game and Bruce Bowen gained double figures but that was it offensively for Fullerton.

Meanwhile, the Cougars showed a deep bench. Derrick Smith came on in relief to score 11 points and grab a team-high 9 rebounds. Forward Sam Mack had received national publicity but was only one of five Cougars in double figures and had a quiet 12 points and 3 rebounds in 25 minutes.

Surprisingly, the Titans outrebounded the Cougars by 8 but never could make a dent in the scoreboard deficit. They settled for a 4-5 non-conference record and went home to open Big West play.

Coach Jerry Tarkanian brought a UNLV team into Titan Gym for the tenth time and for the eighth time he went away with a victory in the Big West opener.

Seven-foot center Elmore Spencer asserted himself in the second half just about the time the Titans hit a shooting slump and the Rebels turned a 4-point deficit into a 7-point lead in a matter of eight minutes and that was the ball game.

Hot-shooting Joe Small propelled the Titans into an early 21-12 lead with 12:14 to go in the first half. Tarkanian switched to a diamond and one defense to cool him off and the strategy worked, although Fullerton still held a 7-point lead at 41-34 with a minute to go in the half. But the Rebels got a 3-point bucket from freshman Reggie Manuel and a last-second steal and dunk by Bobby Joyce to cut the gap to 41-39.

After a 4-2 Fullerton start after intermission, the Rebels ran off five consecutive buckets for a 51-45 lead. Small hit a three to stop the run but UNLV scored 8 of the next 10 points for a 59-50 lead with 10:43 to play.

Fullerton twice cut the margin to 5 points at 65-60 and 67-62 but Manuel and Spencer hit buckets to open it up again and the Titans never got closer than 7 points.

Fullerton ventured out on the treacherous Big West road for the first time in 1991-92 and found itself in a less than sold out Selland Arena, where the Titans had won four of the last eight meetings. But the Bulldogs had a good shooting night from both the foul line and 3-point field goal line and held on for their first Big West win.

San Joaquin Valley products Joe Small and Bruce Bowen did not have good nights. Small, the College of Sequoias (Visalia) transfer who almost singlehandedly won last year's game at Fresno, hit only 1 of 10 shots in the first half on the way to a 22 per cent evening. Bowen, from Fresno's Edison High, was obviously pressing in front of a score of family and friends and fouled out with only 9 points and 4 rebounds.

The teams exchanged second-half spurts and the Bulldogs had the final and decisive one. Fullerton last led at 47-43 and still was down only a point at 71-70 with 6:06 to play. Fresno then went on a 6-0 run and moved out to an 84-76 lead with 1:02 to go before Fullerton made a pair of steals on the press and cut it to 84-80 and had the ball. But J.D. Green missed a 3-pointer at 0:25 and fouled Tod Bernard on the rebound try. After Bernard made both tries, Aaron Sunderland hit a 3-pointer but Wil Hooker iced it with two free throws at 0:13.

Not since current assistant coach Leon Wood was a Titan sophomore had Fullerton won in Logan, Utah. Any chance of the 9-year losing streak not reaching 10 was snuffed out early in a flurry of personal fouls against the Titan backcourt.

Seldom does a player receive four personals in the first half. Almost never do two players on the same team do it in the same game. But that's what happened.

Point guard Aaron Sunderland picked up No. 3 at the 14:49 mark. Joe Small moved to point and Greg Vernon replaced Small. But Vernon got No. 3 at 11:37 and No. 4 at 9:05, forcing Coach John Sneed to go to seldom used Brian Wood. And when he became tired after unusually long activity, Sneed had to go to Sunderland, who quickly got No. 4 on a questionable blocking call at 7:20.

Not surprisingly, the Aggies' impressive new point guard Malloy Nesmith took over the game. After buckets by Carillo DaSilva and Kendall Youngblood broke a 15-15 tie, Nesmith scored five unanswered points for a 24-17 advantage and the rout was on.

Fullerton finally got its first Big West victory, victimizing a rebuilt UC Irvine team and new Coach Rod Baker. The Titans spurred just before halftime and gradually increased their advantage before weathering a remarkable rally by the Anteaters.

Despite a 1-for-7 first half by Joe Small, the Titans moved out to a 36-32 halftime lead on the strength of strong play by Aaron Sunderland and Agee Ward. Small heated up after intermission, ultimately hitting 4 of 5 shots including a pair of 3-pointers. The Titans led by 11 at 51-40 at 13:37 and kept the Anteaters at least 8 points behind before pulling out to a 76-62 lead with 1:51 to play. It was still an 11-point lead at 79-68 at 1:10 when Khari Johnson missed two free throws. Nineteen seconds later it was a 79-76 game after Jeff Von Lutzow got a dunk and two Fullerton inbounds violations led to a 3-point goal by Gerald McDonald and a 3-point play by Elgin Rogers.

Sunderland hit a pair of free throws to offset Keith Stewart's bucket. Sunderland missed two but Sean Williams rebounded the second miss and that led to two charities by Joe Small. Bruce Bowen hit one of two before Stewart bombed in another 3-pointer. Bowen then hit a pair at 12.8 seconds and the Titans didn't even have to inbound the ball after Rogers' layin at 06.5.

The return to Titan Gym wasn't enough to get the Titans on a winning streak as visiting UC Santa Barbara displayed tenacious man-to-man defense in holding the Titans to their third lowest scoring total of the season. Both Joe Small and Agee Ward had cold shooting nights and no one could pick up the slack.

Coach John Sneed was displeased with the execution of his offense and blistered his players in the newspapers the next day.

After the Gauchos took an early 7-2 lead, the Titans fought their way back into the game and led, 19-17, with 4:26 to go in the half. But Lucius Davis scored 8 points and Kris Jones added 5 to fuel UCSB on a 15-4 run for a 32-23 halftime lead.

After intermission the Titans drew even on a couple of occasions, the last at 45-45 with 9:17 to go. But the Titans never could get the lead again and Fullerton went more than 5 minutes before getting a bucket at 4:11. But that 3-pointer by Aaron Sunderland only brought the Titans to within 4 at 53-49. Sunderland's 3-point play at 3:16 made it 55-52 but the Titans could get no closer and Jones hit a 3-pointer to beat the shot clock for a 60-54 lead with 47 seconds to play. Davis hit two free throws and a breakaway dunk to seal the decision.

Aaron Sunderland took the most heat from Coach John Sneed's post-game review of the UCSB game and the junior point guard responded brilliantly, battling an aggressive Long Beach full-court defense the entire game to score a career high 27 points and hit the decisive shots in an overtime victory over Long Beach State.

Sunderland hit a jumper with 11 seconds to go in regulation that forced overtime when the 49ers missed their final two shots. Sunderland then turned a 77-76 Long Beach lead into a 78-77 Fullerton victory when he took the inbounds pass and dribbled most of the length of the floor before popping in a 10-foot jumper with :03 to play.

The 49ers called timeout with 0:01 to go and then perfectly executed a full-court pass from Bryon Russell to Lucius Harris. But the latter's shot attempt was stopped by Bruce Bowen for a jump ball and the final buzzer sounded.

Joe Small had another cold night and Agee Ward scored only two points after intermission and fouled out with 2:11 to go in regulation.

Fullerton never trailed in the first half and built a 50-43 lead with 13:07 to go. But the 49ers had an 8-0 run and neither team led by more than 3 points the rest of the way.

No one associated with the Titan program could recall a more lopsided first half of a road game. Fullerton jumped out to a 28-9 lead and coasted over a San Jose State team still seeking its first home win.

The Spartans were stymied by a combination of Fullerton defensive plays, most notably a full-court press and an aggressive match-up zone in the half court. San Jose State committed 16 turnovers and managed only 13 field-goal attempts in the first half. After Jason Allen scored in the game's second minute, the Spartans didn't get another field goal until Kevin Logan was credited with a deuce on a goaltending call. Basket No. 3 came with 3:53 to go in the half and made only a small dent in Fullerton's 33-10 lead.

The Spartans did cut the gap to 12 points with an 8-2 run to open the second half but Fullerton scored the next 11 points. A technical for having six men on the floor didn't help San Jose State's cause.

A chance to sweep a San Jose and Stockton road trip for the first time in seven tries awaited the Titans in Spanos Center. So much for seven being a lucky number.

Agee Ward finally had a subpar game on the road and, while it was clearly a team defeat, Ward's field goal numbers of 3 out of 15 stood out after his 68 per cent shooting on the road for the year.

With Ward cold, the Pacific zone defense gradually extended and shut down the Titan perimeter shooters. The final .388 percentage would be the third lowest of the year and .324 (12 of 37) in the second half wiped out an 8-point lead.

Pacific wasn't exactly burning up the nets. The Tigers got their last field goal in a 30-34 first half at 7:36 courtesy of Randy Lavender. Their first bucket of the second half came at 16:21 or 11 minutes later but it was a 3-pointer by Randy Morphew and touched off a rash of 3's by Tony Amundsen and Dell Demps that turned a 44-36 Fullerton advantage into a 57-52 deficit with 4:38 to play. A breakaway layup by Matt Olin, his only bucket of the game, extended the lead to 61-54 at 2:11 and Lavender followed with a pair of free throws. The Tigers, the worst foul shooting team in the Big West, hit 8 in a row and 12 of their final 16 tries.

All the complex analysis of this basketball game could be boiled down to two 3-point field goal attempts: Sam Crawford, in desperation to beat the shot clock, banked his in from the left side for New Mexico State while Bruce Bowen, in desperation to beat the final buzzer, came up well short from the top of the key for Fullerton. The result was a narrow road victory for the Aggies, who had been upset in Titan Gym a year earlier.

Crawford's trey gave the Aggies a 67-63 lead with 2:21 to play and his driving layup made it 69-65 with 1:29 to go. Bowen sank a follow shot at 0:56 to make it 69-67 and the Titans got the ball back when Crawford turned it over at 0:34. Crawford then fouled Aaron Sunderland at 0:17. He missed the free throw — the Titans' only miss all night in a paltry six tries — but Agee Ward got enough of the rebound to force a jump ball and the alternate possession sign pointed in Fullerton's favor.

After a timeout, the Titans got the ball to Sunderland, who had won the Long Beach State game 10 days earlier. He was well defended and gave up the ball to Bowen, who was stopped near the top of the key. With the clock down to 0:03, Bowen raised and fired straight but into the net below the rim and the Aggies were able to inbound the ball and use up the final seconds.

Fullerton's mastery of Utah State at sea level continued as the Titans, who have lost 10 games in a row in Logan, made it seven wins in a row (6 in Titan Gym) in Southern California over the Aggies.

In the biggest scoring output by Fullerton since a 117-point effort vs. U.S.I.U. on Dec. 11, 1985, and the fifth most (tie) in school history, the Titans overcame big games by forwards Kendall Youngblood and Carlito DaSilva. Point guard Malloy Nesmith, who got Aaron Sunderland into immediate foul trouble in Logan, was less effective this time and turned the ball over in the final minute of regulation when the Aggies were setting up for a game-winning shot.

Utah State was down, 89-87, when Joe Small was called for an intentional foul at the 1:21 mark. Todd Gentry made both free throws and the Aggies got the ball back, only for Nesmith to cough it up against a Fullerton trap after a timeout at 0:50 with 14 seconds remaining on the shot clock.

Small missed a 15-footer with 0:05 to go and Youngblood missed a desperation 30-footer at the buzzer to force overtime.

Fullerton scored on its first four possessions and went on to roll up 22 points, only 3 shy of the NCAA record for one overtime.

Playing perhaps their most complete game of the season, the Titans routed WAC-bound Fresno State in its final appearance in Titan Gym.

Aggie Ward had a second consecutive strong game at home and Bruce Bowen and Aaron Sunderland paced a superlative effort at the foul line for the Titans.

There were seven ties and 13 lead changes in the first half before the Titans went on a 12-6 burst to post a 45-40 half-time lead behind Bowen's 15 points and 13 by Ward. The Titans opened the second half with a 10-4 burst capped by Sean Williams' third blocked shot and two free throws. That opened a 55-44 lead and the Bulldogs never got closer than 8 points again as Williams hit 4 of 5 second-half shots in his first starting role since spraining an ankle two weeks earlier.

The Titans were able to clear the bench in the closing minutes as the Bulldogs were unable to generate a serious threat as Portland, UC Irvine and San Jose State had done with 3-point barrages.

The first time Fullerton and UC Irvine met this season, both teams were struggling, seeking their first Big West victory. This time, both teams came in with positive momentum after home wins over Fresno State and Utah State.

Another big difference was the momentum of Titan center Sean Williams, who was still adjusting to his starting role back on Jan. 18. This time he came in on a roll and he continued his fine play with a career-high 20 points and 6 rebounds.

The Titans had taken control of the game with a 15-6 burst to close the second half. But UCI, which chopped 11 points out of a 14-point Fullerton advantage in about a minute of their Jan. 18 contest, threatened to rally again. The Anteaters cut a 68-47 Titan lead to 73-63 with 3:22 to play on Gerald McDonald's 3-pointer. But Williams took an inbound pass under the Titan basket, scored, was fouled and converted the 3-point play for a more comfortable 76-63 lead with 2:47 to go.

Fullerton's longest winning streak of the year came to a screeching halt as the Titans suffered their worst loss since last year's visit to Las Vegas.

Fullerton jumped out to an early 11-5 lead as Agee Ward and Sean Williams got loose inside a 1-2-2 UNLV zone defense. But Coach Jerry Tarkanian made an adjustment to a 3-2 and the game turned dramatically. The Rebels went on a 14-0 run as the zone stopped the Titans at one end and J. R. Rider dunked Fullerton crazy at the other end. The league player of the year candidate released on missed shots, made shots and steals and had 16 of the first 29 UNLV points including three dunks in a span of only 65 seconds.

Ward and Williams kept the Titans in the game until early in the second half when the Rebels went on a 12-0 run to turn a 44-31 contest into a 56-31 rout. Joe Small was held scoreless and Bruce Bowen and Aaron Sunderland could add only six combined points over the tenacious UNLV zone.

Another typically close Fullerton-Long Beach game went to the 49ers, who ran their record in the Campus Gym to 11-0 by outplaying the Titans in crunch time. Unlike the previous meeting in Titan Gym where Long Beach point guard Bobby Sears fouled out with 4:16 to play in regulation and Aaron Sunderland ran wild to win the game, Sears contained Sunderland and disrupted the Titans' offense as Sunderland committed 9 of the team's 17 turnovers.

Despite foul trouble for Agee Ward and Sean Williams, the Titans were hanging in and actually took a 66-65 lead with 4:44 to play on two free throws by Bruce Bowen. But Bryon Russell, on his way to a career high 32 points, made a 3-point play around Kim Kemp and the 49ers went ahead to stay at 68-66. Chris Tower followed with a driving layup to make it 70-66 and Sunderland then committed a turnover and fouled Sears. He made the first free throw and the 49ers rebounded the missed second try, eventually getting a dunk from Russell for a 73-66 lead with 1:46 to play. Forced to foul, the Titans saw the 49ers make 10 of their last 12 free throws.

Joe Small had a perfect first half, hitting all three field goal tries and four free throws on his way to 12 points and his total of 19 matched his best in Big West play.

In a near carbon copy of Thursday night's game in Long Beach, the Titans played a first division Big West opponent even on the road for 35 minutes despite foul trouble to Agee Ward only to come up well short in the final minutes.

Aaron Sunderland hit a jumper off the break for a 52-50 Fullerton lead with 5:54 to play, but then it was all UCSB. Mike Meyer put the Gauchos ahead to stay with a 3-point basket and Sam Robson followed with a pair of free throws after Sean Williams was cited for a foul. The teams exchanged missed shots and turnovers until Lucius Davis finished a fast break with a dunk and then rebounded a missed free throw by Ray Kelly and scored for a 59-52 Gauchos lead at 3:40.

Kelly atoned for his errant shot by making three of four free throws and twice stripping Titans of the ball and feeding Davis for clinching layups.

The finish ruined a strong first half by the Titans, who overcame an early 19-12 Gauchos lead with an 11-0 run and led by as many as 6 points at 30-24. The Gauchos went on a 10-2 run to close out the half.

The game marked the 10th time in 14 losses the Titans had squandered a second-half lead.

In a dramatic reversal from their performance in Stockton, the Titans easily handled the Pacific Tigers in Titan Gym.

The difference was obvious as the paint in the free-throw lane. Agee Ward, who hit only 3 of 15 shots in Stockton, hit 10 of 15 this time. And center Sean Williams, who did not play at Pacific due to a sprained ankle, hit half of his 10 attempts on his way to 15 points.

No other Titans were in double figures and back-up center Kim Kemp was the only Titan besides Ward and Williams to go to the foul line as Fullerton constantly forced the ball inside against the outmanned Pacific front line.

Meanwhile, UOP's 3-point-happy backcourt was having an off night. Dell Demps had a season low of 6 points and both Tony Amundsen and Walsh Jordan found themselves in foul trouble.

Greg Vernon started in place of Joe Small as John Sneed shook up the lineup and got a solid team effort. The Titans never trailed and led by as many as 10 points in the first half and 21 in the second.

Fullerton bid farewell to Titan Gym for the 1991-92 season and to four seniors making their final home appearances. The celebration almost was spoiled by the last-place San Jose State Spartans, who overcame Titan leads as large as 12 points to take a 3-point lead at 64-61 with 8:20 to play on Daryl Scott's inside bucket.

The Spartans still were ahead at 70-69 with 2:46 to go after a pair of Scott free throws, but the Titans managed only their second come-from-behind victory of the year with flawless play down the stretch.

Bruce Bowen drove down the lane for a 71-70 lead with 2:22 to go. Joe Small converted both ends of a one-and-one free throw opportunity after an illegal Spartan screen to make it 73-70 and then Bowen made six consecutive free throws, the first two coming after Sean Williams logged his fourth blocked shot of the game.

Bowen scored 16 of his game-high 18 points in the second half. J. D. Green started in his place and scored 9 points in the first half.

Fullerton scored the game's first 7 points and took an early 14-4 lead. The Spartans drew closer at the half but fell behind by as many as 12 at 57-45 with 16:03 to play.

The regular season finale in Las Cruces proved memorable if only for the unique starting lineup John Sneed had to use.

His top two scorers did not dress as Agee Ward injured his back the night before and Joe Small was still weak with the flu. His center (Sean Williams) and point guard (Aaron Sunderland) were not fully healthy and had missed practices. Against one of the top teams in the conference, an inexperienced lineup averaging a total of 21.7 points more than held its own. With the Aggies shooting only 20 per cent from the floor, the Titans overcame an early 5-2 NMSU lead and led virtually the entire half.

Coach Neil McCarthy no doubt inspired his troops at halftime and they quickly cut the lead to one but couldn't go ahead until William Benjamin's 3-pointer made it 40-38 at the 15:51 mark. They moved up by 4 but no further. Williams led a charge that twice tied the score and Fullerton twice led, the last time at 55-54 on his free throws at 2:34.

Cliff Reed hit a free throw to tie and then a dunk to put the Aggies ahead to stay at 57-55 at 0:59. The Titans lost an inbound pass with 0:28 to go and a miraculous upset bid was thwarted as Sam Crawford, Benjamin and Chris Hickman hit 6 free throws.

The calendar read Friday the 13th and nothing but misfortune greeted the Titans as they began what they hoped would be a season-redeeming performance in the Big West post-season tournament.

Having lost a coin flip for seeding, the Titans had to play the hometown 49ers on their part-time home floor. They did it with a rusty lineup that had Agee Ward suiting up for the first time in nine days and he and Small playing for the first time in 13 days. To compound things, Bruce Bowen got into foul trouble, the 49ers had a collective hot hand from 3-point range and two key calls down the stretch went Long Beach's way.

The game began predictably as the rusty Titans had trouble running their half-court offense. They were trailed, 17-6, 8 minutes into the game before several steals punctuated a 13-2 Fullerton run over the next five minutes for a 20-19 lead.

The 49ers scored 12 of the first 16 points of the second half for an 11-point lead at 44-33. The Titans whittled into that margin and were within 63-61 when Bryon Russell was awarded a continuation bucket and free throw instead of the ball out of bounds on a Small foul. Fullerton's last gasp disappeared when Aaron Sunderland was called for a block instead of the 49ers getting a charge.

AGEE WARD - Led the Titans in scoring and rebounding in 1991-92 and closed out his three-year Cal State Fullerton career as the No. 11 scorer and No. 5 rebounder.

Titans in the NBA

Ozell Jones

Greg Bunch

Mike Niles

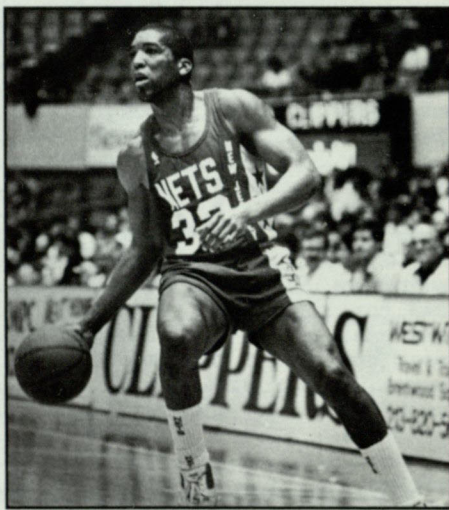

Cal State Fullerton has been well represented at the professional level despite the relative youth of the intercollegiate basketball program.

Seven Titans have been drafted in the past nine years and several more players have signed as free agents. The Titans hit it big in 1984 when two players made National Basketball Association rosters -- guard Leon Wood with Philadelphia and center Ozell Jones with San Antonio. Each was subsequently traded more than once. Wood completed a 6-year NBA career with Sacramento on Christmas Eve, 1990. He played last year in the CBA and in Europe.

Recent star Cedric Ceballos has become a fan favorite with the Phoenix Suns after being a second-round draft pick. "Ice" cemented his place in the Valley of the Sun by winning the Slam Dunk competition at the 1992 NBA All-Star game with a blindfolded "hocus-pocus" performance. Other former

Kevin Henderson

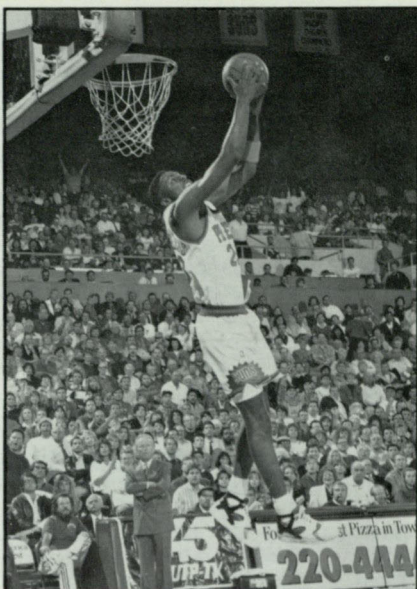

Leon Wood

Titans in and out of the NBA and CBA the past few years were 1988 graduates Richard Morton and Henry Turner. Morton started the 1988-89 season with Indiana and later played with Golden State. Turner, who was a teammate of Morton's in the CBA, spent much of the 1989-90 season with Sacramento. Morton was traded in September to the Rapid City Thrillers of the CBA from the Albany Patroons.

Another recent Titan to play in the NBA was guard Kevin Henderson, who played with Golden State and Cleveland. Other players drafted in the 1980s were Ricky Mixon (Lakers), Tony Neal (Lakers) and Kerry Boagni (Utah Jazz).

From the decade of the 1970s, the Titans saw forward Greg Bunch play for the New York Knicks and forward Mike Niles play with the Phoenix Suns. Foreign leagues have featured the likes of center Herman (Demone) Webster, Boagni and sharpshooter Kevin Heenan to name a few.
