SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY GRANTS

CSU, Fresno participates in the Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant Program as provided by the Higher Education Amendment of 1972. These grants must be equally matched with other institutional aid. Undergraduate students who qualify will receive grants ranging from $200 to $1000. Applications for grants may be obtained from the Financial Aids Office, California State University, Fresno. The application deadline is March 1.

AIR FORCE RESERVE OFFICER TRAINING CORPS (AFROTC) FINANCIAL AID AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Students enrolled in the 2-year AFROTC program receive $100 per month non-taxable financial assistance up to a maximum of $2,000.

Applicants attend a six-week field training prior to enrolling in AFROTC. They are paid approximately $524, travel pay to and from the field training location, and are provided meals and housing while in attendance.

Applicants with prior military service attend a four-week field training for which they receive approximately $322 plus travel, meals, and housing.

In addition to the $100 per month financial assistance and field training pay, scholarships are available which provide full tuition, allowances for books, laboratory fees, and incidental fees for a maximum of four semesters.

Applications should be submitted to the Professor of Aerospace Studies during the sophomore year or the fall semester preceding anticipated enrollment in AFROTC. Detailed information concerning AFROTC can be obtained by calling the Department of Aerospace Studies (Ext 2593) or by visiting the Air Science Building, Room 158.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS

A number of graduate assistantships and teaching assistantships are available to students who are enrolled in the master's degree program and whose previous records show outstanding achievement in academic work, outstanding subject matter competence in the major field, and the special qualities necessary to the duties assigned. A beginning graduate assistant may receive a stipend of $3,610 for twenty hours per week of work during the academic year. Some assistantships may be for reduced time and carry prorated stipends. For information write to the Dean, School of Graduate Studies, specifying field of graduate study and any special abilities that might justify assignment as a graduate assistant.

RESIDENT ADVISERS

The university employs a number of students as advisers in its residence hall program. These positions are available to upper division students whose interest and background indicate competence in this type of work. The stipends vary, depending upon the work assignment. Generally they cover the cost of residence hall room and board. Applications and further information are available at the beginning of the spring semester from the Director of Housing.
