

issuance of them to the operating divisions. He also managed the warehouses for everything except Mess and Lodging.

Milt Maul was employed as Supervisor of Warehouses
Jack Wilson helped as the Asst. Supervisor of Warehouses
A. H. Vaughan served the center as Interior Security
Division Chief. He was a congenial man with a keen sense of humor and dark appraising ^{eyes}. His former experience included a term as Chief of Police in San Antonio, Texas.

Dick Hegener was a Policeman for Interior Security
Edwin Dilstap was a Policeman for Interior Security

J. D. Chipman was the individual that directed the Employment Division. He issued all ^{work} orders ~~necessary~~ necessary for maintenance and operation of the center

S. F. Williams was responsible for Posting and Reconciling Inventory Records

Vale Montgomery was in charge of Transportation ~~and~~ ~~was~~. He had to see that all needed pick up or delivery of materials was taken care of.

(In addition to the above listed individuals there were five caucasian drivers that worked for the Supply Division. They drove for special occasions that required transportation outside the confines of the Assembly Center)

The total number of caucasian ^{administrative and management} employees within the Assembly Center enclosure was 37