

Patricia:

I'll try to be back from Palo Alto by four. I'd like you to see the car (the so-called "honey bronze" one). If you don't like it or if your clothes don't look well with it, I'll arrange for a change to the white one, I want you to look well and feel right in whatever I buy.

If I'm not here on the dot of 4:00 and you can stay a little & wait for me, please do so. Otherwise leave me a note as to when and where this P.M. I can find you so you can see the car. It looks browner to me now than when I first saw it.

Carl.
