

In this issue:

Park in Assigned Areas for Commencement
New and Promoted Faculty to Begin Teaching in Fall Semester
Symposium on Fraud, Ethics to Provide University with Scholarship Funds

wavelength

Reminder to Faculty, Staff: Park in Assigned Areas for Commencement

Tomorrow's commencement ceremonies will attract an anticipated audience of more than 5,200 people to campus. Faculty and staff who are participating in the ceremony should arrive as early as 7 a.m. to avoid congestion. Please park in assigned areas as designated on the attached map.

For information, contact Ray Porras, director of Transportation and Parking, at ext. 8434.

Islands Café Closes for Summer but Available for Catering

Following commencement tomorrow, Islands Café will be closed for the summer. The dining room will reopen in the fall semester, beginning in August. Catering services, however, will be available for groups of more than 50 people.

For more information, contact Eric Shimabukuro, Sodexo manager, at ext. 8917.

New and Promoted Faculty to Begin Teaching in Fall Semester

Twelve tenure-track faculty members, four of whom were promoted from CSUCI lecturer positions, will begin teaching in the fall semester, according to Ted Lucas, vice president of Academic Affairs and provost. New faculty members are Damon Aiken, Ph.D., assistant professor of marketing, previously employed at Pepperdine University; Sean Anderson, Ph.D., assistant professor of Environmental Science Resource Management, previously employed at Stanford University; Manuel Correia, Ph.D., assistant professor of education, previously employed at the San Francisco Unified School District; Elizabeth Hartung, Ph.D., professor of sociology, previously employed at California State University Fresno; Tiina Itkonen, Ph.D., assistant professor of education-special education, previously employed at the University of California Santa Barbara; Bradley Monsma, Ph.D., professor of English, previously employed at Woodbury University; Gregory Wood, Ph.D., assistant professor of physics, previously employed at California State University Northridge; and Cynthia Wyels, Ph.D., associate professor, mathematics, previously employed at California Lutheran University.

Promoted from full-time lecturer positions at CSUCI are: Andrzej Bieszczad, Ph.D., assistant professor of computer science; Blake Gillespie, Ph.D., assistant professor, biochemistry; Kimmy Kee-Rose, Ph.D., associate professor of psychology; and Bob Mayberry, Ph.D., associate professor of English.

Symposium on Fraud, Ethics to Provide University with Scholarship Funds

California State University Channel Islands, along with the University of California Santa Barbara, the Pepperdine School of Law, and the Ventura College of Law, will receive scholarship funds raised by a symposium on fraud and ethics, to be held Friday, June 10, from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Pierpont Inn, Ventura. The event, presented by the CPA Law Society of Ventura County and sponsored by Santa Barbara Bank & Trust, will feature keynote speaker Kenneth Starr, member of the Pepperdine University School of Law and a former solicitor general of the United States; Gregory Totten, Ventura County district attorney; Special Agent Louis Caprino, FBI, White Collar Crime Branch, Los Angeles; Mark Morze, former CFO, ZZZZ Best Carpets; and Joan Allen, elder law attorney and founder of the Ventura County Financial Abuse Specialist Team. Cost is $75 for members of the CPA/Law Society as well as students and faculty members from CSUCI, UCSB, the Pepperdine School of Law, and the Ventura College of Law. Non-members will be charged $110 per person.

For more information, contact Marti DeLaO, director of donor relations, at ext. 8919.

Four Photo Sessions for ID Cards Scheduled Next Week

University faculty and staff who have not yet had their photos taken for campus identification cards may do so at one of four sessions next week. Employees will also have the option of having their photos included in the University's Face Book, a campus directory of employee information. Employees, however, may choose not to have their photos included with their employee identification information. To have your photo taken, visit the cashier's desk in the Enrollment Center of the Professional Building at one of these times: Monday, May 23, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.; Tuesday, May 24, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.; Wednesday, May 25, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 3 p.m. – 5 p.m.; and Thursday, May 26, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Library Acquires Multidisciplinary Historical Works

The library has recently purchased Early English Books Online and the American Periodicals series. Early English Books Online contains nearly 125,000 multidisciplinary books, speeches, and tracts spanning from 1473 – 1700, while the American Periodicals series features more than 1,100 multidisciplinary periodicals spanning nearly 200 years, from 1740-1900. To find these extensive databases, go to the library's homepage and roll over to "Articles & Databases" and click on "Databases A-Z." A link has also been created for annual reviews in each appropriate academic major or program listed under "Resources by Subjects and Majors." In addition, instructors may post articles for students by using the external links section of Blackboard or the library's Electronic Coursepack Program.

For more information, contact Kristen LaBonte, reference and GIS librarian, at ext. 3256

Students Chosen for New Orientation Sessions.

Whitney Blundell, Scott Boczek, Austin Dias, Stephanie Erickson, Rachael Jordan, and Jessica La Roe have been selected as 2005-06 orientation leaders. They will work closely with incoming students at four freshmen sessions (July 11, 12; July 25, 26; August 4, 5; August 8, 9) and two transfer session (August 11, 23) this summer.

For more information, contact Lisa La Frenz, coordinator of Student Leadership and Development, ext. 8961.

Workshop on Careers to Be Held May 27

A workshop, "Career Planning – My Next Job," will be presented Friday, May 27, in the Training Room of the Administration Building, from 9 – 11 a.m. Conducted by Art Flores, associate vice president of Human Resource Programs, the event will focus on three major aspects of the job search: self-assessment process, writing an interview-generating resume, and interviewing and negotiating techniques.

For more information, contact Colleen Bennett, HR administrator, at ext. 8846.

Reminder: Air Show Scheduled Near Campus on June 13

Members of the campus and residents of University Glen are reminded that the annual private air show sponsored by University benefactor John Spoor Broome will be held on his nearby ranch on Monday, June 13. The sight and sound of airplanes will occur from 5 - 7:30 p.m.

Around Campus

Student Honors

At the recent Honors Convocation, President Rush honored members of the campus MEChA (Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlán) organization with the Club of the Year Award. From left are Aida Jimenez, who was also one of five to be recognized with student leader of the year awards, Adan Gomez, Dr. Rush, David Boubion, and Sergio Alvarez.

Orators

After a three-way tie for top speaking honors at the recent Talkin' Dolphins Speech and Debate Tournament, Scott Boczek won first place, Deanna Kessler, second, and John Bickford, third. From left are, back row, Leann Corbett, Melissa McLaren, Alisa Wilcox, Blake Toland, Erin McManus, Eric Suliga, Ronald Sullivan, Nicole Kornreich, Matthew Hewitt, Cristopher Powell, Jocelyn Kornfeld, Scott Boczek, Deanna Kessler, Lindsay McCarthy, Patrick Laughlin, John Bickford, Scot Cole, Patrick Garcia, and Desiree Wade. In front row, from left, are Jessica Fitzpatrick, Jessel Aspuria, Marysia Wancewicz, Shauna Ringquist, David Boubion, and Kosta Grammatidis.

wavelength is published by CSUCI Communications and Marketing.

Please direct questions or suggestions to Richard Suenaga, (805) 437-8940 or richard.suenaga@csuci.edu.