Sept. 18, 1935.

Dear Miss Morgan :

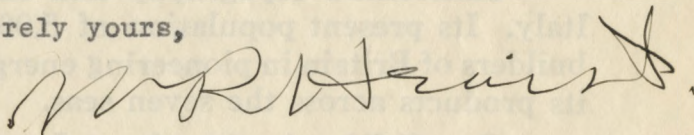

I am extremely sorry that the second plane was delayed so long. I should have taken you on the Vultee to San Francisco, and the only reason I did not was because both Miss Davies and Mr. Pogany were so anxious to get to Los Angeles before the studios closed.

Miss Davies should have reported Monday, but I held her over to discuss things with you and Mr. Pogany. She was therefore doubly anxious to report Tuesday.

Nevertheless I am sorry that I did not take you to San Francisco and then go to Los Angeles. I think we still could have made it, and I surely would have done this if I had known that there would be so much delay.

I thought that the other car was on its way and would arrive any moment. Please pardon the inconvenience I caused you.

Sincerely yours,

Miss Julia Morgan,
