

Extended Education
San Ramon 3, Room 141
(209) 294-2524
Dean, (To be appointed)

The Division of Extended Education offers a variety of classes and programs designed to enhance and enrich the quality of life of individuals and their communities through the acquisition of skills, experience, and knowledge. Programs are offered to all students, whether they are enrolled in the university or not. Classes may be taken on a credit or non-credit basis.

Extension Programs

Various academic departments offer institutes, workshops, seminars, and courses at several sites throughout the CSU, Fresno service area through the Division of Extended Education.

The financially self-supporting Extension program offers a variety of courses in all disciplines to meet the growing demand for continuing education. To provide flexibility and to better serve the needs of the entire community, regular university courses are offered for credit, as well as other programs for noncredit.

Concurrent Enrollment

Concurrent enrollment provides an opportunity for those individuals who are not admitted to the university on a regular status to enroll in regular courses as an Extension student.

Weekend University Courses

These offerings are short but intensive courses designed to meet the academic needs and interests of matriculated students. Because of their brevity and intensity, the courses provide ideal conditions for academic expansion, as well as an acceptable means for meeting academic requirements. Courses are open to anyone in the community through the Concurrent Enrollment Program.

Travel Study Programs

Travel Study Programs feature the most pleasant and rewarding methods to learn through travel and study. The instructors responsible for the program offerings design the courses to include a variety of learning activities that provide a series of enriched travel study experiences.

Non-Credit Programs

Offerings in this area include specially designed programs developed to satisfy the needs of the specific participants or organizations involved. Professional conferences, seminars, workshops, and institutes are usually jointly sponsored by an academic department of the university and a professional organization, business, or community agency.

Summer and Winter Programs

The university offers short term summer session and winter session programs. A wide variety of programs are made available to regular college students, as well as others who wish to expand their general, cultural, or avocational interests and knowledge.

For more information, see the Division of Extended Education, pages 458–460, or call the Extended Education office, 294-2524.