

motivated, to gain lower division credits for work done while away from the campus and regular attendance on campus is impossible. Credits for these courses will be entered on the transcript as lower division electives, and a maximum of six credits for any combination of the courses will be counted toward degree requirements. Any student interested in enrolling in these courses should be aware that it is necessary to have the approval of a faculty member and his or her department and to work out a program of study with the supervising faculty member prior to enrollment.

The student must enroll during the late registration period and pay the required fees if credit is to be received.

For further information, assistance, and referral to a supervising faculty member, contact the Student Counseling Service.

WOMEN'S STUDIES

The Women's Studies Program is an interdisciplinary program offering courses in several disciplines. These are designed to develop awareness of the contributions of women throughout history and the roles in which they have been cast as well as to help women discover what is pertinent to themselves and their abilities.

MINOR

An interdisciplinary minor is available, the purpose of which is to give students interested in pursuing this area an opportunity to make a systematic study of women—their roles, their problems, and their contributions.

The minor in Women's Studies requires a minimum of 20 units, including W S 10 and W S 175. The other 14 units shall be selected from at least two of the following groups of courses:

Humanities: W S 50T, 124, 128, 145, 150T, 163, 168T, 176T, 194T
