Dear Democratic Friend:

In the seven days since the primary election, I have received more telephone calls from women who want to work and help re-elect Governor Brown than during the entire primary campaign.

You have asked to do something, so---

Before vacation---

Before the 4th of July---

Before you relax---

Come join the Women's Campaign to Re-elect Governor Brown!

We are asking you to join with the women who care about California and their families in a serious working campaign meeting at 10:00 A.M. on Tuesday, June 28 at Southern California headquarters 3576 Wilshire Boulevard in Los Angeles.

Governor Brown does not want to wait until the traditional Labor Day to kick off his campaign. He believes we must begin now.

If you believe that this campaign gives us an opportunity to stem the tide of ultra-conservatism, please come to enroll and learn how you can help.

Cordially,

Mickey Wapner

P.S. If you should happen to receive more than one of these invitations, please give it to an interested friend.
