

The basic principal of maintaining communities was adopted to maintain a natural community and economic balance by endeavoring to move families with its relatives and friends Pg. 77.

Evacuation to be accomplished as far as possible by civilian personnel Pg. 78

Decided evacuation and Relocation could not be accomplished simultaneously Pg. 78

Reasons for locating Assembly Centers near as possible to the areas of origin. Pg. 78

Of the 126,947 Japanese ancestry persons in the U.S. 117,364 or 92.5% lived in the 8 states of the Western Defense Command P. 79

Strategically important Military Area No 1 had 107,704 - 84.6% of total J population in the U.S. Pg. 79