

charges are assessed for lost or damaged hall property. Each occupant must sign the prescribed license for the period for which the facility is licensed to the occupant. The security deposit and advance payment of rent are required before space can be reserved or occupancy permitted.

2. Special Conferences and Workshops

Participants in special events such as workshops, conferences, and institutes held on the California State University, Fresno campus will be able to utilize the Residence Halls when arrangements are made in advance with the Director of Residence Halls. No reservations are assured unless confirmed in writing by the Housing Office prior to occupancy. All arrangements, including rate quotations for these special sessions, must be made in advance.

B. Off Campus Housing

The university Housing Office maintains a list of available rooms, apartments, and houses as a service to students seeking living accommodations in Fresno. Students are advised to come to Fresno and visit the Housing Office to avail themselves of the list of available rentals and to make their housing arrangements.

C. Visalia

For information on housing accommodations at Visalia, see the special information concerning Visalia in this bulletin.
