Dear Miss Morgan

I arrived at the Grand Central Station at 10 o'clock last night (Wednesday) on a train which was due at 5:25. This was a day later than I should have arrived due to starting from San Francisco without the roll of principal drawings & been compelled to cancel my reservation at the Oakland mole. In order to use the ticket it was necessary to wait 24 hours. There was not time to go through of the business of changing the ticket before the departure of the morning train.

I called up Mr Hearsts house this morning. Mr H.

was out. - George Thompson later telephoned ^{instructions} to meet Mr Hearst at the Beaux Arts apartment Hotel at 46th St & 6th Avenue at 3 P.M. . I went at the appointed time & waited in vain an hour for Mr Hearst Later Then telephoned & was informed that Mr Hearst was trying to find me. I left my phone number a second time & was requested by George T. to call up again at 7 P.M., which I did. Mr Hearst had not returned. George Thompson ~~instructed~~ told me to call at the Hearst apartment at 11 oclock tomorrow morning.
